

CITY NEWS

Special meeting of De Molay commandery. No. 5, K. T., this evening. Work in the R. C. and Malta degrees.

Two Plead Guilty.—D. R. Mover, 371 Court street, and C. Ridgway, route 3, Salem were arrested Saturday night for speeding on Chemeketa street. As neither of them had $5, which the police demanded as bail, they were forced to leave their car for security. They appeared in Police Judge Earl Race's court yesterday morning and were each fined $5 upon pleading guilty.

Ladies' Night.—At Elks Wednesday, June 9.

Foragers Visit Hospital.—Reports from the Deaconess hospital that campers at the city camp grounds were taking lumber from the new hospital building which is being erected near the site of the camp grounds were investigated Sunday by officer J. F. White. The campers said that they did not have firewood and admitted taking some old lumber from the hospital building but promised not to do so again.

Sir Ernest Shackleton's.—Thrilling pictorial record of the exploring expedition to the South Pole. Ye Liberty.

Car Slightly Damaged.—Robbin Day reported to the police Sunday that an auto owned by Mrs. E. J. Blazier, 629 East Ankeny street, Portland, had backed into his auto while it was parked on a down town street Sunday. Day said his car was slightly damaged.

We Buy Used Fords.—187 South Liberty street.

Mr. Roque Reported.—Napoleon Roque, 385 Bellevue street, was reported to the police Sunday for passing a street car that had stopped to receive and discharge passengers at an intersection of State and Commercial streets. The report also said that Roque had passed two other autos that had stopped to allow the passengers to alight.

Competitive Reading Today.—At the Kimball College of Theology will be held the annual competition in hymn and scripture reading for the Fisher prize at 3:30 this afternoon in the college assembly hall. Many people are interested in this rather unique contest and everyone is welcome to come and listen to the competitive readings. Wednesday at 8 p. m. President and Mrs. Henry Talbot will entertain the faculty students and friends of Kimball college in the Kimball assembly hall.

Estate to Be Settled.—The county court issued an order yesterday appointing Ada Peck administratrix in the estate of her brother, the late Robert W. B. Riggle. The estate is valued at about $500, and the only heirs are Ada Peck, a sister of the deceased, who is father of Silverton, and W. B. Riggle, father of the deceased, living at The Dalles. The court appointed F. L. Newnam, Roy F. Shields and S. M. Endicott as appraisers of the estate.

Legal Blanks.—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.

Four Couples to Marry.—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Oscar Sater and Martha Emma Mos of Silverton; to Andrew J. Felin and Cecelia Zelinski of Salem; to William Henry Boutin of Portland and Mary Maud Ruelgas of Turner, and to William M. Zook of Hills Ferry and Gertrude Hansen of Salem.

Administratrix Named.—An order appointing Mayme Cochran administratrix in the estate of her late husband, A. Cochran, was issued yesterday by the county court. E. G. Ennet, D. A. Dayton and R. W. Archer were appointed appraisers of the estate.

You Are Invited To Attend.—A dancing party to be given by the drill team of the United Artisans on Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock June 8, 1920, at Moose hall. Ladies 25 cents, gentlemen, 50 cents. Rev. elation orchestra.

Picnic Cancelled.—The Willamette geology picnic that was to have been held today at Silver Creek falls has been cancelled on account of continued rainy weather.

New Classes Today.—The new course of study in the Red Cross is starting with new classes today, and Mrs. Will Mott will be at the postoffice so that those desiring to register for the course may do so. This course consists of 16 lessons in home nursing, aid, and the care of small children. Classes will be held in the morning, afternoon and evening so that all may be accommodated. Mrs. Mott can be called today at 756.

Bicycle is Damaged.—Lyle Perrin reported to the police yesterday that an automobile bearing license No. 55566 had backed into his bicycle, while the wheel was paired at the curb of a down town street, slightly damaging the bicycle. Upon investigation the police learned that the auto is the property of G. W. Ricketts, route 8, Salem.

Dancing Wednesday Night.—Moose hall, "Revelation" harmony six.

Water Applications.—David L. Webb and Gertrude F. Webb of Waido, Or., have filed an application with the state engineer covering the appropriation of water from Dwight creek for the irrigation of 45 acres in Josephine county. Michael Gallagher of Crowley, Or., has filed an application covering the construction of Gallagher reservoir for the storage of 2 1/2 acre feet on Bryant flat creek and the appropriation of the water stored for the irrigation of 150 acres in Malheur county.

Wednesday Night, Dancing.—"Revelation" Pep at Moose hall.

Fire Loss $210,000.—The monthly report of A. C. Barber, state fire marshal, for the month of May shows that the total fire loss in the state last month outside of Portland was $210,000. The heaviest loss was that caused by an incendiary fire at Oregon City when $75,000 worth of property was destroyed.

Next Clinic Date Set.—The Marion County Children's bureau announces that the June clinic will be held June 24, Thursday, in the auditorium of the Commercial club. It is advised that all women desiring to have their children examined at this time phone Mrs. F. Von Eschen at 903-J, or write her at 1775 Court street as soon as possible for the registration of children because only about 35 children can be examined at each clinic.

New Schedule Ordered.—The public service commission yesterday issued an order placing into effect a new schedule of rates for the Florence Electric company. The order does not increase the rates as petitioned for by the applicant.

Love, Watchmaker and Jeweler.—337 State street, Salem. Two Big Days for Salem—June thirteenth and fourteenth.

War Veteran Dead.—Samuel Armstrong, a Civil war veteran living at 2945 South Winter street, died last night at 6:30 o'clock at his home. He was 85 years old. The body is at the Webb & Clough establishment. The funeral will be announced later.

Car Cuts Corners.—An automobile bearing license No. 21841 was reported to the police yesterday for cutting corners at the intersection of Market and Capital street. The records show that the car is owned by J. Gehlin of Stayton.

Rigdon and Son.—Reliable funeral directors.

Forgot His Bicycle.—A bicycle was found Saturday night on Fourteenth street by Officer J. P. White. Yesterday morning Walter Frazer, 259 South Sixteenth street, appeared at the police station and claimed the wheel, saying that he had left the bicycle on Fourteenth street and had gone off and forgotten it.

Fancy Color, Fast Selina Cloths.—All shades. Reg. $1.—73c yard. Hamiltons.

Driver Too Young.—Arrested for cutting corners and then found guilty of violating the state traffic law, was the misfortune of Clyde Madison, 12 years old, yesterday. Young Madison was arrested yesterday by Officer Volk for cutting corners at the intersection of Capital and Market streets, and on being arranged it was discovered that he was only 12 years old, thus violating the traffic law which requires that a minor has to be 16 before he is eligible to drive a car. The lad's father appeared for him and was fined $5, after he promised not to allow the boy to drive the auto again.

Fancy Color, Fast Selina Cloths.—All shades. Reg. $1.—73c yard. Hamiltons.

Herren Forfeits Bond.—J. C. Herren, who was arrested several days ago for passing a street club. It is advised that all women desiring to have their children examined at this time phone Mrs. F. Von Eschen at 903-J, or write her at 1775 Court street as soon as possible for the registration of children because only about 35 children can be examined at each clinic.
