

Beauty—

Real beauty may be a reflection of your soul—as the poets say—but what a large factor skin is when beauty is judged?

Fine, soft skin of beautiful texture can be had only when the utmost attention is given regularly to the care of the skin.

Purola Toilet Preparations have contributed toward the attainment of Beauty for many years. They are compounded from finest ingredients and are pure, beneficial and soothing to the skin.

PUROLA WISTARIA CREAM—is a good night cream—ideal for removing the soil gathered during the day upon the skin. It keeps the skin soft, fine and clean. Try it!

IN A SOCIAL WAY

By RUTH LEVORE FISHER

ONE of the most beautiful of the June home weddings was Sunday when Miss Doris Sawyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sawyer of Salem Heights, and Howard Robert Woodburn of Portland, plighted their troth at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Sawyer, also in Salem Heights. Dr. W. C. Kantner of the First Congregational church officiated at the at the impressive ceremony at 3 o'clock. The house was elaborately adorned with summer blossoms in the pink and white colors which were predominating. Roses and pink snap dragons were used lavishly to make the artistic setting for the bridal party. The service was read before a mass of flowers banked at the end of the living room. Tall pedestals on which were placed large baskets of flowers were at either side. Garlands of red clover were hung about the rooms and porches. Miss Lavina Rodgers of Portland presided at the piano for the wedding march.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon with her full length veil caught with a wreath of orange blossoms around her head. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses. Miss Grace Brewer of Portland wore a frock of white organdie and carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds. Miss Helen King of Salem and Miss Dollie Brewer of Portland were attractive bridesmaids. Miss King wore a simple pink organdie frock and carried pink sweet peas and Miss Brewer's frock was in lavender and she carried lavender sweet peas.

Dainty Jane Pray, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pray, made a pretty flower girl in her fluffy white frock as she carried a basket of pink and white rosebuds. John

Dandruff Heads

Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff. Dandruff starves your hair and ruins it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon, apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you may have. This simple remedy never fails.

Lundine of Portland was best man for Mr. Woodburn.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served in the dining room which was graced with pink and white flowers. Mrs. Nettie Young presided at the coffee urn and a group of Delta Delta Delta sorority sisters of the bride assisted in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodburn left on the evening train for a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Portland. As they left the bride was admired in her smart tulle of navy blue tricotine with a chic hat to match.

Mrs. Woodburn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sawyer. She attended Salem high school and is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college. She is a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority. Since her graduation in the 1918 class she has been teaching school in Washington.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodburn of Portland. He is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college also and is an Alpha Tau Omega fraternity man. He spent two years in the 6th division in France. He is a salesman for the Willamette Valley Steel company with offices in Portland where they will make their home.

About 50 guests were present at the wedding.

To honor Miss Amanda Otto of Portland who has been a Salem visitor for several days, Mrs. George E. Waters entertained with a luncheon at her home Monday, inviting a small company of friends to share her hospitality with Miss Otto. A bowl of beautiful pink rosebuds formed an attractive centerpiece for the prettily appointed table.

A quiet home wedding was that Sunday at 1 o'clock when Miss Lora M. Spilman of Portland and Binger H. Sefton of Portland were married at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Sefton, 615 Statesman street. Rev. Horace N. Aldrich of the Leslie Methodist church officiated. Miss Bertha Spilman was her sister's bridesmaid, and Albert Lund of Portland was best man.

Only relatives and immediate friends were present and shortly after the service Mr. and Mrs. Sefton left for their honeymoon after which they will make their home in Portland.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marilda Spilman of 5425 Forty-second avenue, Portland, and for several years has been assistant cashier for the Honeyman Hardware company.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Sefton of this city and is employed at the American Express company in Portland. During the war he was a sergeant in the base hospital corps, serving nine months in France.

Miss Doris Churchill and Miss Hattie Mitchell and Carl H. Jaquet, all of Salem are taking part in the opera "The Rose Maïgen to be presented by the University Oregon School of Music at Eugene during the music festival to be held in that city under the direction of the School of music of the university, June 7, 8, and 9.

Miss Jean Mackenzie, also of Salem, has a part in the chorus of the opera "Cavallera Rusticana" which will be one of the numbers to be given during the musical festival.

Miss Amanda Otto of Portland left last night for her home after being the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pettit for a short stay in Salem.

The North Salem Woman's club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Hutcherson, 1915 North Church street, for the regular monthly meeting and social hour.

Miss Margaret Rodgers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Rodgers of this city, is a member of the graduating class at Vassar college, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. today. Within a few days Miss Rodgers and two classmates, with Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers who have been traveling in the east, will leave for Salem, planning to arrive here about June 16.

There will be a meeting of the American War Mothers in the parlor of the First Congregational church this afternoon to work for the coming bazaar. All War Mothers not working in other sections are asked to attend. There will be a welcome for all.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rosey returned last night from Portland where they motored Saturday for the week-end.

The annual state conventions in Astoria of the numerous state patriotic organizations which meets this week has taken a large number of Salem folk to that city. Mrs. Norma Terwilliger goes as the delegate from the women's relief corps and others going from different organizations are Mrs. F. B. Southwick, Mrs.
