Royal Neighbor Session Is Held at Scotts Mills

SCOTT'S MILLS, Or., June 8.—The Royal Neighbor convention, held here Wednesday, June 2, proved a decided success. About 75 delegates from Portland, Salem, Oregon City, Silverton and Woodburn attended. A class of seven was initiated in the evening. The convention began at 1 o'clock and lasted until a late hour. The next convention is to be held in Salem next June.

The Noble school closed May 25, a program being given by the Home Making club in the morning, then the judging of the club's work, which consisted of one piece of starched and one piece of unstarched material, Dorothy and Orla Shepherd, Lorraine Hogg and Grace Dunham receiving prizes. This club is the first to complete its project in the United States. After a picnic dinner, games were played on the school grounds.

Allan Bellinger was a Salem visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Walbel returned to her home Friday from Oregon City where she has been visiting her mother, who has been ill.

Mrs. Ole Larson and son, Oscar, and daughters Clara and Lillie Larson, attended the play given at Noble Saturday.

Mrs. T. Naplethorpe of Salem, who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. W. T. Hogg and family the past week returned home Friday evening. She was accompanied by Mrs. Hogg and two daughters, who will visit in Salem for a week.

The play given at the Noble school house Saturday was appreciated by a well filled house. The proceeds taken in, which were $45.20, are to be used to improve the inside of the school.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound", which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

to her home in Silverton where she will spend her vacation.

John Brougher spent the week-end visiting his parents here.

Mrs. Lena Bellinger returned home Wednesday evening from Portland where she had been visiting relatives and friends for several days.

Mrs. Charles Phillips of Portland visited friends here over Decoration Day.

J. R. Fisher has been in Portland the past two weeks where he went for medical treatment.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davenport at their home on the Abiqua, Wednesday, June 2, a son.

Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson of Salem attended the play given at the Noble school Saturday night, and brought the diplomas for those who finished the eighth grade, which were Dorothy Shepherd, Averitt Dunham and Joe Gersch. Miss Emma Larson, who has just finished a very successful year, has been employed to teach again the coming year.

It would seem that there would be more apartments for rent if the stories about the frequency of divorces were all true.

LODGE FLAYS DEMOCRATS IN SPEECH

perceiving the dangers of the league, determined to resist Mr. Wilson's demand. The American people will never accept the alliance with foreign nations proposed by the president. The president meantime has remained inflexible. He is determined to have that treaty as he brought it back or nothing, and to that impetuous demand, the people will reply in times which cannot be misinterpreted.

"We have stopped Mr. Wilson's treaty and the question goes to the people. In 1915 Mr. Wilson won on the cry that 'he had kept us out of war.' He now demands the approval of the American people for his party and his administration on the ground that he has kept us out of peace. The league must be discussed in every district and in every state and we desire to have the verdict so clearly given that no man who seeks to represent the people in the senate, in the house, or in any place, or in any degree, can have the slightest doubt as to his duty.

"We make the issue; we ask approval for what we have done. The people will now tell us what they think of Mr. Wilson's league and its sacrifices of America.

"They (the people) will tear aside the veil of words woven to blind and deceive, and come down to the essential and vital point—Mr. Wilson's plan on one side and the independence and safety of the United States on the other. All Americans must join together in their own way and with their own arguments to defeat Mr. Wilson's league as he desires it, whether amended by him or in its pristine simplicity.

Senator Lodge charged the Democratic party with responsibility for the "perilous conditions of the hour" and said if the Republican party fails to grapple it effectively, "the Russian descent into barbarism will begin to draw near."

A beginning has been made, he said, by a Republican congress in restoring economic conditions, "working under all the difficulties and opposition imposed by a hostile executive." He enumerated various beneficial measures, adding that the estimates had been reduced over a billion dollars.

He advocated enforcement of the laws against profiteering and said was possible to check the advance prices by laws, by providing for control of credits in such manner to give preference to the most essential products.

He described the railroad act a single great law which in a period would be sufficient to distinguish a congress as one of its accomplishments.
