

With or Without the Ballot. Voteless women leaders urging measures of reconstruction on machine-controlled officials and legislators are one thing. Women leaders invested with the vote and representing the demands of two or three hundred thousand other women invested with the vote and determined to use it are quite another thing in compelling a performance of full official and legislative duty.—St.

OVERTIME FIGHT IN LEAGUE GAME

Hair-Raising Game Between Tigers and Weavers Won in Sixth by Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. has the happy faculty of furnishing the best brand of competition of all teams in the Twilight league to date, and the Wednesday night game was no exception to this rule. For six fierce cantos the Kay Weavers and "Y" tigers tore into each other and the game was anybody's until Adolph rumped home in the last of the sixth inning with the winning count.

Both teams played good ball in the field, but two errors being chalked up against each team, and only one of which was costly. The pitching honors were even, with Osborne going steadier than Battles and better in the pitches. The little Che-mawa twirler struck out eight men while Osborne sent four to the bench. Battles walked two batters, as did Osborne. Three wild pitches by Battles and Adolph, each picking a single and a double out of three times up. Adolph also tallied twice while Battles scored once and stole two sacks in neat style. Unruh caught a good game for the "Y," picking a runner off third in the first inning and retiring the side.

The game was a thriller from gong to gong, and marked another epoch-making contest in the present Twilight series. The summary:

fler and five passed balls betrays the battery weakness of the Kays, to which may be attributed the loss of the game for the Weavers. The Kay artillery was going stronger than that of the "Y," the Weavers securing six hits, compared with three blows garnered by the Red Triangle outfit.

The first scoring occurred in the initial inning when the "Y" shoved two tallies across on an error, two passed balls, a pair of wild pitches, a stolen base and a hit by Adolph. Armstrong and Adolph registering the runs. Cole scored in the fourth on a walk, two passed balls and a wild pitch and Adolph made his second score of the day in the last of the sixth when he doubled and came home on an error at third.

The Weavers made all of their runs in the third frame on hits by Battles, Comstock and Naak, a walk, stolen base and error.

The hitting honors went to Battles and Adolph, each picking a single and a double out of three times up. Adolph also tallied twice while Battles scored once and stole two sacks in neat style. Unruh caught a good game for the "Y," picking a runner off third in the first inning and retiring the side.

The game was a thriller from gong to gong, and marked another epoch-making contest in the present Twilight series. The summary:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
State House	2	0	1.000
Y. M. C. A.	2	1	.666
Hauser	2	1	.666
Spaulding	2	1	.666
Valley Motor	1	2	.333
Kay	0	4	.000

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless) and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Twilight Briefs.

The State House and Valley Motor will tangle tonight at the Sweetland battlefield and another good game is predicted by the fans.

The crowd at the Kay-"Y" game was large and noisy and a testimonial of the success of Twilight baseball in Salem.

Don't forget that the "umps" is offering his services free and paying for his insurance policy out of his own jeans; he is out there calling them just as he sees 'em.

The Twilight players don't benefit financially if you miss the dance they are staging—the games are free but the morale of the league is benefited materially by a bunch of rabid fans out there fighting for their favorite team. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday nights, 6:30 sharp. Sweetland field, the hottest place in town.
