

Society

By RUTH LENORE FISHER

The North Salem Woman's club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. F. Hutchason at her home on North Church street for the monthly meeting of the club. During the business meeting which occupied the early afternoon a report was read from the county federation meeting of women's clubs. Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. W. E. Trawick and Mrs. L. J. Simeral were taken into the club.

Dean Frances M. Richards of Willamette university gave a very interesting informal talk on the life of Miss Opal Whiteley, whose diary, which appears in the Atlantic Monthly, is creating so much interest.

Miss Marie Corner, accompanied by Miss Faye Pratt, sang a solo. Miss Richards and Mrs. Byron Brunk were guests of the club. In serving light refreshments at the close of the afternoon the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Guy Smith. For the afternoon the rooms were graced with garden heliotrope and pink cive pinks.

The next meeting will be held July 7 at the home of Mrs. Lee Unruh, 1165 North Fifth street.

Miss Gladys Cartwright, who has been teaching in the Boise schools, has arrived in Salem to spend the summer with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cartwright. Miss Constance Cartwright who has been teaching English at Pacific university has arrived home to spend the summer with her parents.

Miss Hazel McGilchrist has returned from O. A. C. and will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist Sr.

"DANDERINE"

Stops Hair Coming Out; Doubles Its Beauty.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After an application of "Danderine" you can not find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

Grass, Annabelle Hawley and Mable Porter.

Rosebud song, by the girls.

"Taking Your Picture," Frederick Blatchford.

Doll Drill by 16 girls—Dorothy Cannon, Myrtle Porter, Kathryn Corey, Karlene Rice, Evelyn Young, La Verne Proctor, Mary Todd, Pauline Lockhart, Isabel Morehouse, Marjorie Webb, Kathleen Lindbeck, Elva Sehon, Mary Jean Lau, Faith Hansen, Bertha May Ballinger, Norma Roberts.

"Over the Top" by Floyd DeHarpport and Frederick Blatchford.

Song—Singing for Jesus.

Refreshment committee was Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford, Mrs. Lockhart, Mrs. Charles Maxwell. Reception committee, Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, chairman, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. W. C. Young, Mrs. Wherry, Mrs. R. L. Farmer. Mrs. A. A. Lee was assisted by the eight captains, Mrs. Frank Hughes, Mrs. J. E. Thomas, Mrs. Cecil Hawley, Mrs. F. L. Utter, Mrs. Chas. Roblin, Mrs. E. C. Ballinger, Mrs. Oliver Whitney. Nearly 150 were in attendance.

Miss Theresa Fowle entertained the members of the Sphinx Dramatic society of Washington junior high school Thursday evening at her home for the last meeting of the year. During the business meeting officers for next year were chosen. They are Chester Kurtz, president; Robert Ashby, vice president; Helen Pollock secretary; Everett Walker, treasurer; and Jane Hillpot sergeant-at-arms. Miss Evelyn Walker, Earnest Vass, Robert Ashby and Jane Hillpot were taken into the club.

Games and light refreshments were enjoyed after the business meeting.

Mrs. A. E. Gibbard was hostess Wednesday for a prettily appointed luncheon at her home in honor of Miss Ruth Ross, one of the members of the high school graduating class who leaves for Yakima to make her home. The table was centered with a bowl of pink rosebuds and at the honor guest's cover was a small bowl of pink roses, while at the other covers were vases with single rosebuds. Covers were laid for five class friends of the honor guest, Miss Alma Wells, Miss Gene Bailey, Miss Mattie Jarman, Miss Marion Emmons and Miss Catherine Gibbard.

The wedding of Miss Hazel Caspell and Arthur A. Priem took place at the home of the bride, 2252 State street, Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. Rev. R. L. Putman conducted the ring ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives. The ceremony was performed in a corner of the living room with streamers of pink and white, with flowers banked high as a background. Miss Fieta Caspell was her sister's bridesmaid and Frank Caspell, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine and carried a large bouquet of sweet peas. Light refreshments were served following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Priem will make their home on the former's farm near Macleay after a short honeymoon in Portland.

The piano pupils of Mrs. Julia Mills Weigel enjoyed a recital at her home on South Church street Thursday afternoon. The selections showed faithful effort on the part of both pupils and teacher. Winifred Plant delighted her audience with a swan dance and graciously responded to an encore. Refreshments were served after the program which was as follows:

- Duet—Bobolink Bilbro
- Eldon Jory, Delbert Vlesko
- Lullaby Martin
- Irene Keuscher
- Valse Mignonne Streabbog
- Juanita Shipman
- In the Month of May Behr
- Irma Reeves
- Learning to Waltz Missa
- Eldon Jory
- Cuckoo Song Martin
- Grace Russel
- Duet—Encarillion Ringuett
- Anna McIntyre, Mrs. Weigel
- Taps Englemann
- Delbert Vlesko
- Sweetheart Waltz Kern
- Ruth Hazelton
- Twilight Bells Goerdeler
- Mrs. Edith Hale
- Dainty Miss Daisy Engleman
- Out in the Field Engleman
- Winifred Plant
- Joyful Greeting Kern
- Helen Leisey
- Memories of Spring Anthony
- Evelyn Hale
- Echoes of the Alps Moter
- Alice Gortmaker
- Duet—
- Over Hill and Dale Engleman
- Hazel Hamman, Helen Leisey
- In Twilight Gaschals
- Anna McIntyre
- Mocking Eyes Anthony
- Hazel Hamman
- Dance of the Kewpies Ashford
- Maxine Donaldson
- One the Lake Williams
- Doris Hensley
- The Fairy Barque Emallowood
- Mrs. Ella Donaldson
- How Sweet the Moonlight Sleeps
- Decevee
- Laynelle Leone Beckett
- Nearer My God to Thee Frans, Goerdeler
- Deloise Hice
- Chapel By the Sea Fisher
- Honor Zell
- Duet—
- Spanish Dance, Op. 12 No. 2 Moszkowski

Ganelle Beckett, Doris Hensley

Showers of Stars Wachs

Susie Hazell

La Harpe Eolienne Smith

Alice Boock

Tam O'Shanter Warren

Elfa Persy

Duet—

Prelude C Minor Rachmaninoff

Alice Boock, Susie Hazell

Mrs. Beatrice Walton, who graduated with the Jupe class at Mills' college returned home Wednesday evening and will spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. James Walton.

Mrs. Norma Terwilliger of this city was elected at the state convention of the W. R. C. at Astoria as a delegate at large from the state to the national convention of Women's Relief corps to be held in Atlantic City next September.

Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Bennett and Bennett's mother, Mrs. E. J. Burchell, motored to Portland yesterday morning and today the christening of their small son will take place at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. John H. Boyd will christen him Pearson. The young chap's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bettett of Portland, will also be present.

Franklyn Miles, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Miles, has returned from Portland where he visited his cousin, Miss Hallie Knitch, and attended her birthday party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Richards are spending today with their daughter, Miss Ruth Richards, a student at Willamette university. They motored from Portland and were accompanied by Mrs. E. Patton and Jess Patton who will visit relatives in Salem. The party will return to Portland this evening but Miss Richards will remain until after the Doney reception Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn will go to Portland tomorrow to spend the week and convention of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. E. C. Gamble and two children, Winifred and Francis, returned Wednesday night to Salem from California where they have been spending the winter, having motored down last autumn. They will be domiciled during the summer at their home, 966 South Twelfth street.

Richard D. Slater returned yesterday from Corvallis and will visit with his mother, Mrs. Fred Stewart.

Mrs. Zadoc Riggs returned Friday night from Portland where she visited with friends.

Among the former Salem residents who were in Salem Friday for the home coming at the armory was Whitney Boise of Portland. He was a guest at the R. P. Boise home.

The missionary society of Leslie Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the national organization of the Methodist missionary societies. The church was beautifully decorated to represent woods, and the many wood ferns and blooms were effectively used. The feature of the interest-

Above: Group from girls' chorus of "The Mikado" recently given by the girls' Polytechnic of Portland of which Miss Minnetta Magers is director. The three girls kneeling from left to right are Phyll King (Koddy Reynolds), Yum Yam (Nellie Bramberg), Peep-Bo (Leslie Atkinson). Below Kaneko Takahashi, one of the members of the chorus.

At the graduation exercises held Friday night for the school Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, gave the address of the evening. Miss Magers had charge of the music.

Salem folk are familiar with "The Mikado" for it was presented by Miss Magers in Salem some time ago and was one of the delightful comic operas given in the city.

ing program was an Indian play, presented by the children of the Home guards, and the Mothers' Jewels class. A delightful social hour and light refreshments finished the celebration. Over 100 guests were present.

Mrs. Clifford Brown and small son Werner have returned from Portland after a visit with friends in that city for a week.

The Home Guards society of the Leslie Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. John B. Ulrich, 210 Myers street, for the regular meeting of the society Thursday afternoon. A short business meeting occupied the early afternoon and this was followed by a program and sois one of the most skillful in the business. What he doesn't know about bread making isn't worth knowing. Just to prove to yourself how foolish it is to sweeter over a hot oven, try a loaf of our BAKE-RITE Bread. Once tried it is always a favorite.

OUR BREAD MAN

BAKE-RITE BAKERY

457 State St. Phone 268

A Beautiful June Display of FINE SUMMER FOOTWEAR

The prettiest, daintiest, loveliest collection of Summer Shoes we have ever had the pleasure of displaying for public approval. The very spirit of summer and the quintessence of beauty are exemplified in these new Shoes.

See them in our spacious windows. And the price attractions are very notable Red Cross Brown Kid eyelet ties, very high grade and most beautiful this week, only

$10.95

The same style ties in Black Kid, Patent and Brown from $7.87 to $10.85

Plain Pumps in pleasing varieties with buckles or bars or without from $7.85 to $12.50

Don't Forget 10 and 162 Per We Are Giving 163 Cent OFF ON PUMPS

Lovely Brown Calf Pumps with brown covered buckles and the comfortable Dutch heels, a real $14.00 value

$10.95

Red Cross Black Kid Colonial Pump, Leather Covered Buckle, hand turned soles, full leather Louis heels, $13.00 grade

$10.65

Brown Kid one eyelet tie, brand new this season, leather French heels, should sell for $10.00

$8.29

Oxfords in Black, Brown or White Kid with French, Cuban, Military and school heels. $5.75 to $12.82

And every pair warranted to give satisfaction

At the Electric Sign "SHOES"

VISIT OUR BARGAIN DEPARTMENT

WHY CHANGE YOUR WIFE?

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Richards are spending today with their daughter, Miss Ruth Richards, a student at Willamette university. They motored from Portland and were accompanied by Mrs. E. Patton and Jess Patton who will visit relatives in Salem. The party will return to Portland this evening but Miss Richards will remain until after the Doney reception Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn will go to Portland tomorrow to spend the week and convention of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. E. C. Gamble and two children, Winifred and Francis, returned Wednesday night to Salem from California where they have been spending the winter, having motored down last autumn. They will be domiciled during the summer at their home, 966 South Twelfth street.

Richard D. Slater returned yesterday from Corvallis and will visit with his mother, Mrs. Fred Stewart.

Mrs. Zadoc Riggs returned Friday night from Portland where she visited with friends.

Among the former Salem residents who were in Salem Friday for the home coming at the armory was Whitney Boise of Portland. He was a guest at the R. P. Boise home.

The missionary society of Leslie Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the national organization of the Methodist missionary societies. The church was beautifully decorated to represent woods, and the many wood ferns and blooms were effectively used. The feature of the interest-

SUMMER SUITS

Smartly Styled Attractively Priced

Their correctness and exclusiveness combined with excellent materials and splendid workmanship will appeal to women who always aspire to wear the undeniably smart in apparel.

Highest class novelty and tailored suits each one authentic in style and remarkably well tailored of the finest Tricotine, Poiret Twill, Serge and Fancy Checks. These new arrivals have an air of individual smartness and priced at

$25.00, $39.50 and $49.50

Kasowry Bros.
THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE

Ladies' Store 466-471 State Street

Men's Store 416 State Street