

IN A SOCIAL WAY

By RUTH LENORE FISHER

The reception Wednesday evening which Dr. and Mrs. Henry J. Talbott gave for the students of Kimball college was one of the largest and most elaborate functions of the week. Over 200 guests thronged the apartments of Dr. and Mrs. Talbott at the Kimball school during the evening. The decorations of the rooms were beautiful. They were done under the direction of Rev. H. N. Aldrich of the Leslie Methodist church. In the hall and assembly room a profusion of roses and wild flowers, in which sweet briar predominated, were arranged about the rooms beautifully. Green and white streamers were also added to the adornments.

Receiving at the outer doors down stairs were Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bates, Rev. and Mrs. David Hassel, Rev. and Mrs. Fred Roysdon and Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Deery. Announcing the guests to the receiving line were Rev. Roysdon, Rev. Bates and Rev. Cooper.

The receiving line included Dr. and Mrs. Talbott, President and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Goltra, Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Howard, Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Hall, Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Keefe, Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Woodfin, Rev. R. N. Gatke, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Sherwood and Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Hammond.

In the dining room, which was prettily adorned, Mrs. George J. Pearce poured and Mrs. F. A. Elliott cut the ices. Assisting throughout the rooms were Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. M. C. Findley, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. H. E. Carrier, Dean Francis M. Richards, Mrs. Gustav Ebsen, Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. F. W. Seele, Misses Mary Findley, Evelyn Gordon, Velma Baker, Margaret Legg, Mary Jane Albert, Margaret Alden, Mildred Garrett, Muriel Steeves, Faye Peringer, Genevieve Findley, Esther Paroungian and Winifred St. Clair.

During the evening the Kimball college chorus furnished a delightful musical program.

The alumni banquet of the Kimball School of Theology was given at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Edward Sherwood Friday evening and was a pleasing affair for the school. The rooms were attractively done in purple and white, lupin and wild daisies being used to carry out the school colors. Et each plate were small bouteneires of purple pasties. Plates were set for 68.

Rev. Ernest Goudge, Kimball first graduate in the class of 1909, John Woodfin, Alexander Hawthorne, W. D. Jasper, Andrew Jackson, T. D. Yarnes, D. Lester Field, Clarence D. Smith, William Nichol and George R. Abbott were the speakers and the Kimball chorus with Miss St. Pierre accompanist and Miss Lucile Barton, musical director, rendered special music.

Miss Elizabeth Levy was given a delightful farewell surprise party by a large number of her violin pupils last Sunday afternoon. Music, brief speeches by the pupils, and light refreshments made the afternoon a very enjoyable one.

Before departing the pupils wished Miss Levy "bon voyage," and as a token of their appreciation of her efforts in their instruction, presented her with a beautiful bouquet of flowers, a traveling bag and traveling case.

The High School Reserves met Monday evening at the First Congregational church for one of the most delightful meetings since organization. After assembling Miss Lucile Ross presided at the organ and Miss Lena Bell Tartar lead in singing. The guests were then shown a cinema of the Y. W. C. A. summer camps. The delegates for the camp at Dakridge at McCredie Springs near Eugene to be held July 14 to 22 were chosen and Misses Josephine Iross, Miss Frances Shrode and Miss Roma Spence were elected.

Light refreshments completed the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Young of Albany have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Isabelle Young, to Bogart Rodgers of Los Angeles, which will take place at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 26, at the O'Yung home on Sixth and Washington streets. Miss Young is a charming young girl. She has visited in Salem many times and was the honor guest at a smart bridge tea which Mrs. Harry Hawkins gave this week. She also has just completed her course at Stanford university. Mr. Rodgers belongs to a prominent Los Angeles family and was a captain in the British flying corps during the world war, serving in France.

Mrs. T. A. Livesley spent a few days in Portland visiting with friends during the week, and returned home Saturday.

Mrs. W. H. Eldridge returned last night from Portland where she visited for a few days during the week with friends.

Miss Helen Moore returned from Corvallis for the summer in Salem after attending Oregon Agricultural college during the winter.

Miss Alno Maitland of Deep River, Wash., who is on her way home from attending O. A. C., is spending the week-end in Salem as the guest of Miss Inez Cook.

Mrs. George Waters returned last night from Portland where she has been visiting during the week.

Mrs. E. E. Fisher returned last night from Portland where she spent the week going down as a delegate to the state P. E. O. Sisterhood meeting. While in Portland Mrs. Fisher met many of the prominent workers in the baby clinics and especially Dr. E. W. Moore, the specialist of the northwest for babies who gave her much praise for the work of the Marion county clinics which are held here.

The committee of women of the Marion County Children's bureau who are working on the special baby page to be given in The Statesman next Sunday are requested to meet in the Commercial club auditorium Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock for an important meeting.

Miss Dorothea Chambers has as her house guest over the week-end Miss Hazel Madgison of Everett, Wash., who arrived Friday.

Mrs. Percy Cupper entertained with a delightful children's party Tuesday for her small daughter, Mabel, who at that time celebrated her 10th birthday anniversary. About 14 girl friends of the honor guest were bidden to spend the afternoon with games and a general good time. In the late afternoon a luncheon was served in which a feature was a dainty candle-laden birthday cake.

Miss Eva Molton of Portland is the week-end house guest of Miss Gene Bell.

Miss Gertrude Hartman and her brother, Otto Hartman, who have been in Portland during the week, returned home Friday evening.

Mrs. Lela Saling of Portland has left for her home after being the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman on Cottage street. Mrs. Saling has been at Corvallis where she sang at numerous functions at O. A. C., and at the graduation exercises. Mrs. Saling possesses a beautiful dramatic soprano voice and is prominent as a singer in Portland. She has studied with Tagliero for many years and is now studying for grand opera. Her voice is especially adapted for out-door singing.

The annual ladies' night Wednesday at the Elks club was a delightful occasion of the week when over 400 Elks and their wives or friends gathered to enjoy a dainty supper and a pleasing program given by a group of the Elks. Later an informal social time finished the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Upjohn of 964 South Liberty street, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival yesterday of a daughter. She has been named Rowena Mary.

Salem folk were glad to see Arthur Wilson, who arrived in the city yesterday directly from London. After a short visit here he will leave for another tour of the world. Mrs. Wilson is in London at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. Kline (Mildred Davis), who visited here some time ago. Mrs. Wilson will remain in London for a year.

Miss Marion Stelwer is in Portland where she went to attend the wedding of Miss Dorothy Phillips and C. T. Footh which took place last week. She will remain in Portland as the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. T. Douglas until after the Shrine convention and the Rose festival.

Mrs. N. T. Heyler left Thursday night for Denver, Colo., where she will visit with relatives. She will not return to Salem for two or three months.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry J. Talbott entertained in honor of Dr. J. W. Walters of the Central Methodist church of Spokane Friday at luncheon. Dr. Walters made the commencement address for the Kimball school. The guests were the seniors for the year and Dr. E. E. Gilbert, Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, Rev. H. N. Aldrich and Rev. W. W. Youngson of Portland.

Mrs. E. E. Waters has had two grandchildren, Miss Luemma Waters and Northrup Waters, students of Oregon Agricultural college, with her for a short visit before they leave for Los Angeles to join their mother for the summer. They will return in the fall to resume their studies at O. A. C.

Mrs. Amos Strong was hostess for two smart dinners of the week, both of which were at her home on South Commercial street. One company was assembled for Tuesday evening and the other dinner was on Friday evening.

Mrs. S. S. Eddy of Bellingham, Wash., is visiting in Salem at the A. E. Gibbard home while en route to Coos county to make her home. Mr. and Mrs. Gibbard also had as their guests Mrs. Fred O'Rourke of independence, who came over for the high school commencement.

A company of the younger set motored to Spang's landing last Sunday and enjoyed a picnic dinner and passed the day at that favorite place.

Captain and Mrs. Earl Coulson Flegel motored to Portland Friday and passed the day with relatives.

Mrs. Richard Mason of Portland was the house guest of Mrs. Sherman Heckman during the homecoming.

Mrs. E. A. Bennett is visiting with Portland friends for a few days.

Mrs. F. W. Seele has returned from Portland where she visited with friends for a week.

Miss Ethel Liston and Mrs. Charles Niemeyer have returned from Portland where they visited at the homes of their sisters, Mrs. Ralph Harris and Mrs. Arthur Lennon.

The many friends of Mrs. R. E. Pomeroy, who underwent a serious operation at the Salem hospital last Monday, will be glad to know that she is improving and can now see her friends.

Herbert Darby of the University of Oregon is visiting his mother, Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, over the week-end.
