MR. AND MRS. A. N. BUSH are at their North Sumner street home again after an absence from the city of over three months while they were motoring in southern California. They had shipped their motor car down and after a short visit in San Diego motored to all the interesting places in the state. After visiting in San Francisco they sent their motor car home and returned by rail.

Mr. and Mrs. Bush will have as their house guest, Miss Ruth Gatch of Oakland, the charming daughter of a former Salem family. Miss Gatch will be in Salem Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. This is her first visit home since the family moved from Salem nine years ago to Oakland, and her many friends here are delighted at the news of her visit and despite the shortness of her stay they are planning to make it very enjoyable.

MRS. GEORGE BURNETT and Mrs. Edwin Weller gave an informal reception Thursday afternoon at the home of the latter, 165 North Seventeenth street, in honor of Mrs. W. A. Morris of Berkeley, Calif., who is niece of the former and a sister of Mrs. Weller, which was an unusually handsome reception. The rooms were beautifully decorated with Caroline Testout roses and fern which were fashioned in large French baskets to grace the tables and rooms.

Little Rosalind Van Winkle and Myrtle Page graciously assisted at the door while Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. L. H. McMahan, Mrs. W. P. Babcock and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers shared honors in the dining room. The dining table was centered with roses and ferns on a mirror. Over 50 prominent matrons thronged the Weller home during the afternoon.

Mrs. Morris returned to Berkeley yesterday where she will join Professor W. A. Morris of the University of California, leaving for Los Angeles, where the latter will teach at the summer session of the southern branch of the university. In August Professor and Mrs. Morris will leave for New York, sailing on the Lapland August 21 for a year's study in Europe. They will go directly to London where Professor Morris will finish a book on English history, later going to France, Belgium and Switzerland and returning by way of Italy.

The marriage yesterday of Miss Marybelle Reinhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reinhart of this city, and one of the most prominent girls of the younger set, to Howard J. Eberly of Medford, causes a ripple of excitement and surprise among the younger social set, for though their friends knew of the engagement no one thought of the wedding at this time. The marriage is the culmination of a romance begun when both were at the state house. The service was read at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhart at 4:30 yesterday afternoon by Rev. James Elvin of the Leslie Methodist church.

Only the close family of the bride and F. A. Elliott, by whom both the bride and groom had been employed for several years, were present. The bride, who is an unusually attractive girl, was charming in a white broadcloth sport suit, with white brooch hat and a large corsage of bride's roses.

The service was very quiet, but none the less beautiful. There were no attendants.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Eberly left for a short wedding trip to Portland, after which they will go to Medford to make their home.

Mrs. Eberly is one of the most popular girls of the younger set. She is a graduate of the 1916 class of Salem high school, and has lived in this city for a number of years. She has been employed for the past three years in the state forester's department. She is a member of the Breakfast club. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Eberly of Seattle. He has been in the state forester's department for the past five years, and before entering the service at the beginning of the World war, was in the Salem office. During the war he served as captain in the Tenth engineers in France and was overseas two years. Since his return from the service he has been stationed in the state forester's department at Medford.

DR. AND MRS. CARL GREGG Doney's reception to the seniors and friends of Willamette university will be one of the largest events of the year and is to be a beautiful function. It will be given in Eaton hall which will be elaborately adorned with garden blooms. The decorating is in charge of Rev. H. N. Aldrich who is to be assisted by the members of the sophomore class. In the receiving line with Dr. and Mrs. Doney will be Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves and Dean and Mrs. George H. Alden. Mrs. Alice H. Dodd will introduce the guests to the line and she will be assisted by Dean Frances M. Richards. The wives of the faculty members will assist about the rooms.

On the second floor where the refreshments will be served Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks will preside over the tables and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay and Mrs. M. C. Findley will assist in serving.

Over 500 guests are expected to assemble at Eaton hall for the event.

AS a betrothal courtesy to Miss Isabelle Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Young of Albany, Mrs. Harry Hawkins was hostess for one of the smartest functions of the week when she assembled a company of the younger social set for a party at her home. A profusion of garden flowers graced the rooms of the attractive home. Mrs. Hawkins invited guests to make up four tables at cards at which Mrs. Dan J. Fry Jr. scored high.

Additional guests called for tea. Mrs. Percy A. Young presided and Mrs. Chester McMurray served. During the afternoon Miss Young, who has a beautiful lyric soprano voice, sang a group of songs.

Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Eleanor McClain of Silverton, Miss Myrtle Smith of Portland and Mrs. Chester Moores of Portland who were guests of Mrs. Hawkins and her sister, Mrs. McMurray.

MRS. JOHN J. ROBERTS was a lovely hostess of the week when she entertained the members of the Bridge club for an afternoon of cards. Blue lupine and marigold were charmingly combined in baskets about the rooms. After the play the guests adjourned to the den for tea. Mrs. Clifford Brown presided at the daintily appointed table, and Mrs. T. C. Smith Jr., Mrs. T. A. Livesley and Mrs. W. M. Plimpton served. Besides the honor guests Mrs. Roberts invited Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Will H. Bennett, Mrs. Oliver O. Locke, and Mrs. Leo Schmidt for the afternoon. Mrs. T. C. Smith Jr. will entertain the club Tuesday at her home.

One of the prettiest dinners of the season was the one Thursday evening when C. B. Clancy entertained a company of friends at his apartments on North Liberty street. Perfection in appointments and beauty in the flower combinations marked the dinner. The centerpiece was a large flat basket filled with yellow and white snap dragon, Shamy roses and fern. A unique and very delightful feature of the dinner was the placecards, which were photos of the wives of the guests, which had been taken when they were small children. Each guest was to find his wife's photo, which caused much merrymaking. Plates were set for Messrs. U. G. Shipley, Russell Catlin, Frank Myers, E. B. Webb, John Todd, E. R. Pearce, J. R. Lind, T. E. McCroskey, S. B. Elliott, C. E. Wilson, D. W. Eyre, William McGilchrist Jr., Homer Smith and the host.

The fact that Representative and Mrs. W. C. Hawley and Miss Iras Hawley will arrive in Salem the last of this month from Washington, D. C. to spend the summer at their Oak street home in this city is the cause of much delight to their many friends here. Mrs. Hawley and Miss Hawley left Washington last week but Representative Hawley will go by way of California and remain there for a meeting in the Yosemite National park, arriving in Salem later.

For Miss Isabelle Young of Albany and Mrs. Robert McMurray bany Mrs. Robert McMurray entertained with a luncheon Thursday afternoon at her home on Lincoln street. The pretty table was centered with a crystal bowl of summer blooms. Plates were set for Miss Young, Mrs. Percy Young of Albany, Miss Myrtle Smith of Portland, Miss Eleanor McClaine of Silverton, Mrs. Chester Moores of Portland, Mrs. Harry Hawkins and Mrs. McMurray. Late the party adjourned to the Hawkins home for the bridge tea for which Mrs. Hawkins was hostess for Miss Young.

The Salem homecoming Friday, which because of threatening weather conditions was held in the armory instead of Willson park, was one of the successful events of the week. A large number of Salem folk were present to greet the former residents. Because of the shortage of gasoline there were not so many out-of-town guests as in other years but everyone got together and as one of the guests expressed it had a "wonderfully good time."

Governor Ben W. Olcott was speaker of the day and Mayor Otto Wilson presided over the meeting. Mrs. Hallie Parrish Durdall, whose voice always delights those who hear her, sang a group of old-time songs in her lovely manner. Speeches were made by P. H. D'Arcy, Isaac Lee Patterson and Frank Davey.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the day was the large exhibit by Tom Cronise of many old time pictures of Salem and the pioneers of the city. Pictures of now prominent men and women in the state when they were children were very interesting.

At noon a big picnic dinner was enjoyed and the women of the Illahee auxiliary served the coffee.

Miss Ada Ross and Miss Theresa Fowle entertained at the home of the latter, the teachers of the Washington junior high school Monday evening for a very delightful gathering, at the close of which the hostess served refreshments. Those who enjoyed their hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Durham, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Ackley, Miss Orpha Bell, Margaret Martin, Margaret Dickey, Lucille Huggins, Ruth Wilson, Myrtle Tobey, Lora Hale, Alma Poble, Conifred Hurd, Ruth Fleming, Lena Belle Tartar, Lillian Tischhauser, Mesdames Julia Creech, Fannie Douglas, M. B. Shirley, E. England and O. A. Miller. Additional guests were Miss Margaret Cosper, Miss Alpha Rosenquest and Miss Edna Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker are entertaining as their house guests over the week-end and for the Salem high school commencement. Mrs. Percy Read of Portland, Mrs. R. H. Johnson of Philomath, Mrs. R. C. Torrey, Miss Josephine Torrey and Dell Torrey of Portland.

Miss Marjorie Mellinger, a sophomore, has won for Salem high school the Almack cup, which is presented yearly by the Oregon Council of English. Each year the State Composition league offers this cup to the school which produces the best essay in the "Know Oregon First" essay contest. John C. Almack of the University of Oregon, has charge of the contest, and who is compiling a history of Oregon from the facts presented is the donor of the cup. Any student in any high school in the state is eligible to enter the contest. A number of students in the Salem high school presented themes to their instructors, and the best of these were incorporated with Miss Mellinger's essay with the result that the judges at Eugene and Corvallis voted her the winner. The students aiding Miss Mellinger were Delmer Desart, Robert Littler, Lynn Jones, Lelieth Kuhn and Frances Parker. Any high school winning this cup for three years, becomes its permanent possessor.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Bayne, who has returned from O. A. C. and who won high honors as a student at that institution.

Over 25 women of the Jason Lee Memorial church partook of the hospitality of Mrs. J. N. Clark at her home on North Church street Thursday afternoon, the time of the regular quarterly tea of the Women's Home Missionary society. Officers of the society for the ensuing year were elected.

In the election of officers for the coming year for the state Daughters of Veterans of the Civil War, at Astoria last Tuesday, Salem was well represented. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Florence M. Sturdevant of Portland was reelected president, Mrs. E. McLeod of Marshfield was elected senior vice president, Mrs. C. M. Lockwood of Salem was elected junior vice president, Miss Julia Webster of Salem was elected chaplain. Mrs. John Shipp of Salem was reelected treasurer and Mrs. W. J. Entress of this city was reelected patriotic instructor.

An event of interest was the presentation of a large American flag by the state department of the Daughters of Veterans to the Astoria Boy Scouts.

Mrs. W. J. Entress of Salem, department patriotic instructor, made the presentation address.

The monthly supper social and business meeting of the Jason Lee Memorial church were well attended Tuesday evening in the church parlors. Rev. A. S. Mulligan was in charge of the combined meetings in the absence of the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Webb motored a party of friends to Portland Wednesday and passed the day with friends in that city. Their guests were Mrs. E. A. Skelly, Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Frank Myers and Mrs. Tom Galloway.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee for the monthly meeting of the society. After the business meeting, Miss Julia Morrow, a returned missionary from Kolar, South India, spoke to the women of her work in that country. The assisting hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames W. Wherry, Will T. Kirk, D. H. Mosier and E. Savage.

About 50 members were present.

The many Salem friends of Miss Edith Carter Kunev, formerly of this city, will be interested to know that she left Spokane Friday en route for a year's study in Europe. She will sail from New York on the steamship Celtic and will visit in Liverpool, Stratford-on-Avon, London, and at Paris, and will take a special course at the University of Madrid, specializing in Spanish. She will later travel in Italy and France and spend some time studying there also. She now plans to spend the winter in Algiers, returning to the states some time next year.

Mrs. Mason Bishop entertained the members of the Golden Hour club at her home in North Salem Thursday afternoon for a very pleasant meeting. After the afternoon of social chat and sewing the hostess served a dainty luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton and Miss Flo Bushnell attended the junior prom at the Monmouth normal school yesterday.

The Order of the Eastern Star social club met Tuesday afternoon in Miss Georgia A. Bacon of Worcester, Mass., first vice president of the general federated Women's clubs, who will be elected without opposition at the federation's meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, for one week beginning Wednesday, June 16. As national chairman of Thrift, Miss Bacon is now conducting a campaign among the women of the country to aid the government's efforts to reduce the high cost of living.

the Masonic temple for the social afternoon which the club members enjoy every two weeks. Miss Constance Kantner gave a very enjoyable reading and Mrs. R. H. Robertson delighted the guests with a vocal solo. For the afternoon large jardeniers and baskets filled with red poppies graced the rooms. At the close the hostesses served a light luncheon. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. J. K. Page chairman, Mrs. A. E. Dinamore, Mrs. W. C. Kantner, and Miss Mabelle Page, Miss Paul Houser and Mrs. Charles Elgin assisted. About 40 members attended.
