Five Couples Licensed—The county clerk enjoyed an unusually good day yesterday. Five couples chose to travel the long, narrow lane of wedded life. Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Sim F. Etzel of Portland to Katie Vanhandel of Sullimity; Elmer A. Wilson, of Burk Idaho, to Dora Hegien, 1164 Front street, Salem; Miles R. Holland of Salem to Lora Myrtle, Salem; Walter Lettenmaier to Florence Stone of Aurora; Alfred Harris of Clintonville, Wis., to May Frances Harris of Salem.

There Will Be a Refund—To all Lyceum ticket holders at the armory box office from 4 to 5 p. m. Wednesday, June 10. This refund was made possible by the Ellison-White Lumber bureau. The failure of Mark Sullivan and Cecil Fanning was the cause of this refund. A refund was made some weeks ago, but through some misunderstanding some did not get their refund. This is to give every one a chance to get their money back if they so desire.

New Corporations—The Western Lumber agency of Portland, capitalized at $25,000, filed articles of incorporation yesterday at the office of T. B. Handley, state corporation commissioner. Summer Fancies in Daytime Frocks of Voile

June days demand just such dainty dresses as these in light and dark patterns and shades of an extra fine quality of voile. Each frock has an individual charm of its own. Dainty lace yokes, the new, quaintly rounded yokes, short sleeves that are cool and comfortable; these and many other features are to be found in these frocks. Priced from

Dimities and Lawns

These are truly "warm weather dresses" and they are doubly charming in the range of light and brilliant shades in which they come. They are universally becoming and modish. What more could one ask, especially when they are priced at only

$6.95 to $14.75
