GREAT DAYS FOR OLD WILLAMETTE

These are great days for Willamette University.

At the annual meeting of the trustees yesterday there was brought up for action an offer of the General Education Board to contribute $35,000 of a new million dollar endowment fund, and also a telegraphed offer of $17,500 annually for two years for the salaries of teachers, conditioned upon the raising of a like amount by friends of the institution. This offer was also from the General Education Board, which was created a few years ago by John D. Rockefeller, with headquarters in New York City.

The board of trustees took action by authorizing President Doney to inform the General Education Board that the offer of the $17,500 annually for two years would be accepted and matched by friends of the institution; also, that the work of raising $100,000 for the completion of Lausanne and Waller halls was proceeding, and that upon its completion the contract for the raising of the additional $650,000 to complete the new million dollar endowment fund would be entered into.

Steps were also taken to organize for the work of raising all this money.

This consummation need not be doubted by friends of Old Willamette and the people of Salem.

It will take time—perhaps two years after the completion of the $100,000 fund.

But it will be done.

This will mark the most distinct advance ever made in the work of building Old Willamette into a great institution, doing a very broad work that will endure throughout the ages to come—

And from this day forward Willamette University may be pointed to as the foremost institution of learning devoted to Christian education west of the Rocky Mountains.

That is a proud distinction.

It is a consummation worthy of the sacrifices of the fathers; of the founders of Old Willamette along with our commonwealth.

Willamette University, with its $500,000 endowment funds and its $500,000 plant, is already a million dollar institution—plus.

And it will be a two million dollar institution—plus when the present projects are completed.

President Doney, in his annual report to the trustees yesterday, said a good many fine things and said them well. The following are some of the high lights in very brief outline:

"We mention with gratitude the generous expectation from the General Education Board, and the two or three friends of the University whose deliberate confidence in religious education leads them to place faith in Willamette as the great center in the Northwest of Christian scholarship, character and citizenship. We have dreamed, planned and prayed for this day which appears now to be breaking. It has been in the heart of all; but only those who have tried to make ends meet which were far apart can know the sheer joy that comes when relief appears.

"It is my judgment that both Lausanne and Waller should be completed for use by September 15th.

"The enrollment of students has been encouraging, though it is to be regretted that we have not had the facilities to care for them as we should. In the College of Liberal Arts the enrollment is 399 as compared with 295 last year. The students of the Law School number 42 in comparison with 9 a year ago. The School of Music has enrolled 73, an increase over last year of 22.

"I am hopeful that the students will soon desire to accept some form of self-government.

"Of the eight intercollegiate debates of the year, Willamette won seven."

The General Education Board has not generally given more than 30 per cent of endowment funds for institutions. It has departed from this rule and offered 35 per cent of the proposed million dollar endowment fund; and it has gone further and offered an additional $35,000 towards the salaries of teachers, because it is the conviction of the managers of that great fund that Willamette University should be made the outstanding rallying point for Christian education on the Pacific Coast, for several reasons. Among these are its splendid history; its fine plant and campus; its ideal location, in a clean city of size below a great metropolis, and the spirit of the great forces of Methodism behind it.

Hon. Robert A. Booth and President Carl Gregg Doney are the outstanding figures deserving of the credit of directing the leaders of the General Education Board to this splendid recognition of Willamette University as deserving of the position of leadership to which this great benefaction will raise and keep it. These men have been long at the task, and they have been unremitting in their splendid endeavors.

SWEETS FROM THE ORIENT.

The Japanese are reported to have 100,000 tons of crystallized sugar ready for export to this country and it can be sold in Seattle at a good profit at $15 a hundred pounds, although $17 is offered. About 50,000 tons of sugar from the Orient will be shipped to New York at once. The sweets of the world are available for America and it would seem that the home market should be stabilized at a reasonable figure.

the same complaint—that labor is drifting to the cities. The world will yet be compelled to find relief in the millions of capable and industrious agricultural workers of China. A million of them under contract to American farmers would do more to assure the future food supply of the country than all the legislation of which congress is capable.—Los Angeles Times.

CUTTING MEAT.

The price of lamb in the Chicago market was forced down two or three cents when some cargoes of frozen mutton from Australia arrived on the scene. The meat brought clear from the Antipodes was sold cheaper than that taken from the stockyards, a few blocks away. It is needless to say that the packers had nothing to do with this importation.

FARM AND NEEDS.

Herbert Hoover intimates that it may yet be necessary for America to extensively import foodstuffs if prices are to be lowered. The shortage of farm labor is making it hard for the United States to feed its own people. There are great resources and possibilities in South America, but from Argentina already comes

THE MADCAP POET.

Gabriele d'Annunzio is now said to be too busily engaged in a love affair with a beautiful Venetian pianiste to look after his personally-conducted empire of Fiume. The town is liable to read a lesson from the life of Senator Knox and make a peace of its own without the consent of its guardian angel, Gabriele. When an Italian poet is in love he has neither time nor inclination for anything else.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

Watch old Willamette grow. The students will carry away mighty good news to their homes.

The old school will have $35,000 a year more than heretofore for expenses.

It will have two splendid new buildings for next year's work.

It will have the beginning of a new million dollar endowment fund to keep up the standard for all time that is now set, and to improve and expand it.

In fact, Old Willamette is now on the map in large letters, to stay forever and a day.

The little band of missionaries on the Lausanne, three-quarters of a century ago, who provided from their scanty means for the beginning of Old Willamette, were building wiser than they knew.

If the ouija board could communicate with the spirit of Father Waller now, a message of cheer and satisfaction would surely be received.

Chicago is becoming noted for lightning strikes. Senator Harding was struck there last Saturday and yesterday several persons were hit—the difference being that these latter were killed. In fact, Chicago is known to have several kinds of lightning.

State Highway Bonds Sold Far Below Par

The state board of control yesterday sold $1,500,000 state highway bonds to Henry Teal of Portland, highest bidder, at $7.62. This represents interest of approximately 5.84 per cent.

On the basis of $1,000,000 the bid is $14,700 less than that highest bid of $9.09 submitted on May 11 when $1,000,000 in bonds were sold.

E. Benson of Portland and R. A. Booth of Eugene, members of the highway commission, were present at the meeting and both advised the sale. Mr. Benson's comment was

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat, Also Take Glass of Salts Before Eating Breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like jumps of lead. The blood becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in over-coming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

that the bids represented the market price of bonds and existing contracts. The commission make it imperative that the commission have money.

Other bids received today were: Lumbermen's Trust company, $6.56; R. M. Grant & Co., $6.52 for $500,000 and $7.54 on remaining two thirds with 30-day option; Ralph Schneeloch and others, $7.57; Freeman, Smith & Camp company, $6.28.

A Chicago citizen who wanted some theater tickets telephoned the box office and asked, "can I get a box for two tonight?"

A puzzled voice answered from the other end of the line. "We don't have boxes for two."

"Isn't this the theater?" he asked crossly.

"Why no," said the puzzled man at the other end, "you are talking to an undertaker."

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your gray hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.
