for the national convention for motorcycle riders consisting of 500 motorcycle riders from all parts of the state. Remember an entire new orchestra of five pieces.

Carcase Not Manufactured—A slaughtered carcase is not a manufactured article, according to a legal opinion given by Attorney General Brown yesterday. The opinion was asked by R. B. Goodin, state purchasing agent, who, under the law is authorized to pay 5 per cent duty for articles manufactured at home than for those offered for sale in the foreign markets.

Dance Tonight—Armory floor in good condition.

Peterson Defeated—George C. Blakeley defeated Will M. Peterson of Umatilla county by eight votes for delegate to the Democratic national convention from the second congressional district, according to the complete official canvass of the votes in the recent primary election by the secretary of state. Mr. Blakeley received a total of 2951 votes and Mr. Peterson 2873 votes. Will R. King was high man in the district with 2957 votes.

Saturday Night, Moose Hall—Dancing, "Revelation" Harmony Six.

Strange Man Sought—That a man acting in a strange manner had been seen near his home was reported to the police yesterday by L. J. Gardner, who lives about a mile out of Salem on the Oak Grove road. Mr. Gardner said the man had inquired the way to Independence and that he seemed to be in a hurry. He was described as being about 45 years of age, gray hair, gray suit, hatless and apparently was carrying something under his left arm. The police got in touch with the various state institutions, thinking that some one might have made their escape, but as far as could be learned all of the inmates of these places were accounted for.

was reported to the police yesterday. Upon investigation the police learned that this license was issued to Chester Hadley, route 4, Salem.

Licensed to Wed—Howard W. Mort and Mary O. Putnam, both of Salem, were issued a marriage license yesterday by County Clerk E. G. Boyer.

Administratrix Is Named—Bertha A. Hamre was appointed administratrix in the estate of her father, the late Peter P. Hamre, by the county court yesterday. The estate, which is located in Marion county, is valued at $2000.

Moose Hall, "Revelation"—Saturday night, dancing.

Memorial Services—The Woodmen of the World will hold memorial services Friday night at the McFornack building. Owing to the unfavorable weather Sunday, the meeting was postponed until Friday, June 18.

Baths Open—The opening of the Oregon bath and therapeutic treatment rooms this afternoon, from 1 to 7 p. m., the public is most cordially invited to come in and try out, free of charge, our system of baths and swims in the pool. Because of improper plumbing we have been unable to meet the demands of the public. We have made extensive alterations and are now open to the public.

Dance, F. A. Doerfler Farm—Saturday June 19. Steelhammer orchestra. Tickets, $1; war tax 19c.

Migrating by Auto—Man, wife, son and dog—Joseph Richards and family were sojourning at Salem's auto camp grounds Thursday night, proceeding on their way to California yesterday morning to make a home there. They are from Butte, Mont., and are equipped with camping outfit, so they are enjoying the trip immensely. They came by way of Spokane, Walla Walla, Pasco, the north bank of the Columbia river to Vancouver and Portland, thence through here on the Pacific highway. They report a good many interruptions to smooth traveling because of new road construction.

Garden Attracts Visitors—One garden in Salem is attracting a world of attention, especially a crop of telephone peas, the vines of which have grown to the height of six feet, and are heavily laden with peas. Mrs. O. I. Ireton, 1947 South Commercial street, is the proud farmette of the garden which is located on a vacant lot near her home and she says that many people have come to the house and inquired as to what kind of peas they were. Two persons who called were visitors from Montana. Mrs. Ireton said, and after seeing the fine gardens in Salem and vicinity they have decided to locate here. The peas grown by Mrs. Ireton are large enough to eat now, but she is saving them for the Shriners to see when they come here next week.

The Official Exploits—Of the German submarine U-25, coming to Ye Liberty Sunday.

Daughter Is Born—A baby daughter is announced at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knute Anderson, route No. 3, Salem. The baby arrived June 17.

After 27 Years—Ben H. Weeks and wife are here, all the way from Crescent City, Fla. Mr. Weeks is an orange grower there. He is a brother of Hon. George W. Weeks, who lives just north of Salem, near the River road, in what will be a part of Salem one of these fine mornings, the way the old town is growing. The visiting brother is a Shriners, and he is out here as a part of the hebra this way from all the points of the compass. This is his first visit to Salem for 27 years, and he is surprised to find the town so grown up since he was here before. Not only does he find it grown up, but he thinks it has been a very symmetrical beautiful and substantial growth. He says the country around Salem looks mighty good to him, coming up from the bare brown hills of California, by way of Los Angeles.

Officers Are Elected for Kafoury Progressive Club

The Progressive club of the Kafoury Brothers stores held its monthly meeting in the rest room of the women's store Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at which time the semi-annual election of officers was held.

The officers for the coming term are Mary Foltrick, president; M. Pollock, vice-president; Emma Lou, secretary and treasurer. Modern methods of salesmanship, public courtesies and business problems are discussed at these meetings by the managers of the stores. The subject of "Salesmanship and Courtesy to the Public" was discussed by N. C. Kafoury. S. K. Kafoury spoke of his recent trip to California, concerning his observations of business methods in vogue in larger department stores.

The purpose of this club, whose membership includes only the employees of the stores, is to obtain information about modern business methods, to create a feeling of fellowship and to raise the standards of efficiency.

Oregon Electric to Run Special Train to Portland

The Oregon Electric Railway company will run a special train to Portland Thursday of Shrine week to accommodate Cherrians who wish to visit the city on that day. The train will leave Salem about 7:15 a. m. and will not return until late in the evening, probably between 10 and 11 o'clock. This will give local persons an opportunity to visit Portland during the day, enjoy the evening festivities and return to their homes the same night, thus eliminating the necessity of finding accommodations in Portland, which will be greatly overcrowded during the week.

Garden Plants

We can now supply Early and Late Cabbage, Early and Medium Tomato plants, Celery, etc. Will soon have Kale, Peppers and Broccoli plants. Retail stock always on hand but large lots must be ordered the day before. Fine, strong plants.
