Gypsy Tour Dance Sat. Night. Those who have registered complaints about the former violin music at Auburn hall will find one of Salem's best five-piece orchestras playing for the gypsy tour dance Saturday night—500 motorcycle riders from all parts of the state.

Permits Recalled. Temporary automobile licenses issued by the police will be recalled, according to an order received by the police yesterday from the police committee. These licenses were only issued as a means of identification, Chief Welsh explained and as it is against the law that now exists, no more will be issued and the police will take up all that are now in use.

The Biggest Dance Ever. Held in Auburn hall will be Sat. night for the annual gypsy tour by the Salem Motorcycle club. Entirely new 5-piece orchestra. 500 motorcycle riders from all parts of the state.

Mrs. Hutchason Sues. Alleging cruel and inhuman treatment, Mrs. Pearl Hutchason instituted divorce proceedings Friday against J. F. Hutchason. The couple were married at Carthage, Mo., July 5, 1899, and Mrs. Hutchason alleges that her husband has heaped personal indignities upon her for the last 10 or 12 years, making her life extremely burdensome. The complaint further alleges that the defendant is capable of making $100 a month and the plaintiff asks for $150 a month for the support and maintenance of herself and their minor children and also for the custody of the minor children.

Card of Thanks. We desire to express our thanks and heartfelt gratitude to the friends for the kindness and sympathy extended at the last and rites of our dear mother and grandmother, and for the many floral offerings and thoughtful care in their arrangement; also for the beautiful music rendered at the funeral services at the church. Mr. and Mrs. John Riesbeck, John Riesbeck Jr., Oliver V. Riesbeck, Fred La Branch, Mrs. Anna La Branch.
