

SALEM WINS MOST EVENTS ON CYCLES

Lone Portlander, However, Captures First Place in Fastest Race in Gypsy Hill-Climbing Event

UNIQUE COMPETITION SLATED FOR TODAY

More Than 250 Cycles Here Saturday, More Are Reported Enroute

The best time ever made over the hill on Turner road yesterday when the Gypsy Tour staged its hill climbing races was 13 4-5 seconds. C. H. Hunt of Portland was the rider who established this mark, but that he didn't things all his own way was proved by the fact that H. V. Smith, bearing the Salem club colors, flashed under the wire half a second later.

Three races were run over the same course which was a heart-breaking grind of 250 feet on the steepest part of the hill and all first and second places were taken by riders driving Harley Davidson motorcycles.

The first race was for sport moped machines and was won by Charles Thomas of Salem, time 41 seconds. Second place went to H. T. Smith of Salem, time 42 seconds.

The second race was for motorcycles with 61 inch motors and C. V. Hinshaw of Salem took first place, time 16 seconds. Second place went to R. J. Smith of Salem, time 22 seconds.

The third race was the closest of the three and furnished the large gallery of spectators with thrills galore. This race was a free for all and first place went to C. Hunt of Portland, time 13 3-4 seconds. Second place went to H. T. Smith of Salem, time 14 seconds.

That Salem has some excellent riders is proved by the fact that five of the winners were Salem boys. At first it was thought the local boys' success was due to their opportunity to practice over the course, but this was disproved when it was learned

SATURDAY, JULY TENTH, WILL BE BIG EVENT

The Bargain Day Idea Has Become Widely Popular Because Merchants and Customers Derive Decided Benefit From It, As It Brings All Together in a Most Pleasing and Profitable Way and Makes Town and Country Folks One Great Big Busy Family for a Day.

The Bargain Day spirit is already stronger and more general among the business houses of Salem this year than at any time since it was first inaugurated here. That is because it has been proven to be a success and because the demand for it has become more widespread among the buying public. The first few times, Bargain day was an experiment, with more or less doubt about its results, but it is now a tried-out feature of the city's commercial life and found to be just as useful and beneficial as any other well-directed effort of the community.

It occurs at a time when vacations are about to begin; when the town-people will be preparing to hike to the seashores and the mountains, to the berry and fruit fields; when the country folks will be doing the same things, and everybody will be getting ready for the changed surroundings of the next few months. They will be all wanting to equip themselves with a thousand little articles of comfort and necessity to suit the times and the merchants propose to give them the best opportunity in the world to select and secure the very things they need and to devote one day to that purpose especially, and to set aside special things at special bargains to make the day worth while.

Yesterday, being Saturday, the merchants of the city, and the newspaper offices also, were too busy and only a few additional names were sought or received for the list of those who will participate in Bargain day and prepare for it, but during the week a great many more volunteers will be added until it embraces practically all the business places of the city.

Following is a list of the persons and firms that have already joined in the Bargain day movement and from day to day as the time passes, more names will be added.

The Bootery, ladies' and men's shoes.

CRIMINAL SHOWS SPOT WHERE MURDER OCCURRED

PORTLAND, June 19.—Harry Dubinsky, slain last Sunday by Russell Brake and George Moore, according to a confession said by the police to have been made by Moore, was killed in Clackamas county and not in Multnomah county (Portland) according to a statement today by Moore, who accompanied officers and pointed out, what he said was the exact spot where the murder occurred. The alleged slayers therefore will be taken to Oregon City for trial eventually, the officers said. Drugging of the Willamette river below the Oregon City bridge today at the spot where Moore said the body had been thrown in, failed to result in its recovery.

DEMOCRATS WILL BACK LEAGUE IDEA

Homer S. Cummings, Chairman of National Committee, Says Platform Will Endorse Mr. Wilson's Course

"REPUBLICANS MADE VAGUE PROMISES"

Leader Favors Definite Action on Plank—Will Be Big Issue of Campaign

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic national committee, declared today that the Democratic platform would endorse President Wilson's course in regard to the league of nations and that the league plank adopted would be the one incorporated in the Virginia platform. The president, Cummings said, at all times had agreed to any suggestions that would expand or develop the league provisions, and his opposition to some of the so-called reservations were that they vitiated the document.

"The stand of the Republican party on the league was a dishonest statement," Cummings said, "a premeditated attempt to satisfy irreconcilables. At no point did it suggest ratification of the league and treaty. It was made up of vague promises of some other kind of league. I feel that the Republican position will not deceive anyone."

Cummings also declared that while the Republican convention had not disposed of the issue, the party candidate himself already had voted for a league with reservations.

In regard to Herbert Hoover's Hoover's statement that he was in accord with Harding's candidacy, Cummings said that was a matter Hoover would have to fight out with his own conscience.

"I consider it a rather sad episode in American politics," he added. Full hearings on all campaign issues will be held by the resolutions committee, it was announced today.

City School Election Will Be Held Tomorrow

AMERICAN AVIATOR ROUTS BOLSHEVIKI

Lieutenant G. M. Crawford Sinks Red Ship

Although Plane is Riddled With Bullets Brave Flyer Succeeds in Sending Boat to Bottom

WITH THE POLISH ARMY AT THE FRONT, June 18.—Confirmation of destruction of a Bolsheviki troship in the Dnieper river by an American aviator of the Kosciuszko squadron during the Polish-Ukrainian drive which resulted in the capture of Kiev, was received recently by the Polish military authorities. The American credited with this military feat, accomplished single-handed, is Lieutenant G. M. Crawford of Wilmington, Del., a member of the Kosciuszko squadron of American aviators for nearly a year.

The American in the first attack swept the ship's decks with his machine gun fire, many of the Bolsheviki jumping overboard to escape the effect of the incendiary bullets, but the ship did not take fire as the aviator had planned.

Again Lieutenant Crawford attacked the vessel, the wings of his airplane being pierced by bullets as he dived and poured his ammunition into the decks. He saw a fire break out. Then, circling for altitude to return to camp, the American watched the ship, enveloped in a mass of flames, settle down into the river with the hundreds of soldiers fought for their lives. The ship disappeared soon afterwards.

CARE IS URGED ON MOTORISTS

Dust Cloths, Best Tires, Extra Spark Plugs Advised for Shrine Trip

Suggestions for the Shrine drive Wednesday have been received by the Local Commercial club. It is particularly urged that all drivers be in Portland not later than 7:30 Wednesday and earlier than that hour if possible in order to get the procession started promptly.

The list of suggestions follows: Purely with view of assisting in making our Shrine Auto Trip to Salem as much a success as possible, the following suggestions are made: Each car should be provided with at least one or more of the following:

- 1. Good sized dust cloth.
- 1. I wish broom.
- 1. Duster.

It will be very important that seats in the car be kept clean and dusted off and machines made as inviting as possible on arrival in Portland and before lining up for load.

If nice weather prevails, tops of all cars should be down and folded before arrival; this should be taken care of the evening before departure from home garage.

Drivers should plan to have all cars arrive in Portland not later than 7:30 a. m., and as much earlier as possible, as after a drive of over 50 miles operators will be seeking "comfort stations" etc., and as far as possible in the morning.

You can reasonably expect from 20 per cent to 25 per cent of you cars to have some trouble that will lay them out before they have returned their loads to Portland.

Particular attention should be paid to tire inflation and general overhauling of cars the day previous, bearing in mind a drive during the day of over 150 miles to return loads to Portland.

No accommodations are provided in way of comfort stations at the gas filling stations, but in a separate letter directing the traffic after arrival in Portland city limits; occur of the serious delays likely to occur at these filling stations where practically all cars will be obliged to stop and take gas, water, oil and some will probably take a tire if the car has been all right possible must be given there; on arrival filling stations drivers should remain at their wheels as a retinue of experienced service men will give each car quick and complete service.

Engines must be stopped when cars are in proper position for filling and the car is being pumped; any other attention than gas, oil or water must be while out of line.

Each driver should provide himself with small change, including pennies, in order to make quick payments for purchases at filling stations. Best tires on and properly inflated. Extra tires carried and in good shape.

Radiators filled. Gas tanks filled. Oil containers filled. General going over of engine and all parts of car before attempting in-bound trip. Extra spark plugs. Batteries properly charged.

TOOZE TELLS OF SCENES AT CHICAGO

Salem Is Urged to Bring Roosevelt's Sister as Campaign Speaker Prior to November Election

TICKET IS TERMED STRONG COMBINATION

Battle With Chicago Profiteers and Atmosphere Wears Web-Footer

Walter I. Tooze Sr., alternate for ex-Supreme Judge Conrad P. Olson at the Republican national convention at Chicago and who has devoted his energies to advance and to secure the nomination of Leonard Wood for president during several months past, has just returned from the exciting scenes which surrounded what he terms the greatest convention ever held in the United States.

Though loyal still to Leonard Wood, he is enthusiastically supporting the Republican nominees of the convention.

Harding and Coolidge are the strongest combination possible and his judgment is that the Republican party will sweep the country on November 2," said Mr. Tooze.

Wood Ovation Described.

Wood, Lowden or Johnson could not make the alliance necessary to achieve success, and it became absolutely obligatory upon the part of the delegates to the convention to discard these three leading candidates for the presidency.

The scenes attending the nomination of Leonard Wood by Governor Allen of Kansas are indescribable. Imagine, if you will, thousands of colored feathers upon which the name Wood was stamped floating downward from the dome of the mammoth coliseum, falling, floating over the heads of 1,000 men and women, delirious with enthusiasm and excitement which lasted for more than 40 minutes. Spontaneous and irresistible as it was, it will ever remain as a remarkable tribute to a splendid leader and American citizen.

Roosevelt's Sister Speaks.

"A mighty storm of applause again swept over the audience when Governor Lowden was nominated, which equalled in length of time that which was given General Wood. Throughout all the wonderful scenes of this historic convention there will forever stand forth as a beacon light the form and figure of a wonderful woman, Mrs. Corinne Roosevelt Robinson, sister of Theodore Roosevelt, who seconded the nomination of her brother's best friend, Leonard Wood.

"It has been my good fortune to listen to scores of the best speakers in America and I do not hesitate to declare that her effort was not only the strongest of all addresses made in that great convention, but was superior to any that I have ever heard.

Oregonians Did Duty.

There is no question that her services will be solicited and enlisted to tour the country for Harding and Coolidge during this campaign and Salem citizens must demand that she make an appointment here.

"There was never a moment that Hiram Johnson became a strong contender for the nomination in the convention. Those Oregon delegates who remained with him to a high simply did their duty under the laws of Oregon and carried out the wishes of the voters of the state as expressed by the plurality vote on May 21. On no ballot during the convention would their votes have assisted Leonard Wood to achieve success.

Victory Believed Certain.

"The selection of Harding and Coolidge as our candidates and the adoption of a genuine forward looking platform which breathes the true spirit of red-blooded Americanism, means the end of Democratic control of government and executive autocracy at the white house. Republican success means the re-establishment of constitutional government in the United States.

"After two weeks spent in the blistering heat, dirt and smoke of Chicago and a grueling, never ceasing fight with the profiteers of that removed city, I was the happiest man on earth to once again fill my shriveled lungs with the cool and balmy air of Oregon and to view with reborn delight the multitude of wondrous beauties of nature surrounding us."

SHRINERS ARRIVING IN CITY.

PORTLAND, June 19.—Individual parties of Shriners were pouring into Portland throughout today for the annual imperial session to be held next week. Special trains will begin arriving tomorrow, and on Monday more than 70 special trains, loaded with officers, patrols, bands and delegates, are due.

W. Freeland Kendrick, imperial potentate, will arrive early Monday with other members of the imperial divan. Among today's arrivals was James H. McCandless of Honolulu, imperial assistant rabban.

TAXES OF AMERICAN PEOPLE MAY BE REDUCED

HOPE FOR DECREASE HELD OUT BY REPRESENTATIVE

New Session of Congress Which Starts in December Should be Able to Lift Some of Burden

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Hope for an early reduction in taxes is held out by Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican leader of the house in a statement prepared for the final issue Monday of the congressional record and made public tonight.

"We shall enter the new session of congress in December and the new congress in March," said Mr. Mondell's statement, "with the way opened for a substantial reduction of the tax burdens."

The Republican leader said reductions would not be possible until after the close of the fiscal year, which begins next month.

The entertainments will continue throughout the summer on Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week, three being 18 concerts in all.

Steelhammer has added some new talent to the band this year and the organization promises to be one of the best in the history of Salem.

BITE OF PET SNAKE FATAL

PENDLETON, Or., June 19.—A bite from a pet rattlesnake which had for years been a plaything caused the death yesterday of James Davis, 22, of U'kiah, Umatilla county. Davis, who since boyhood, had played with reptiles, picked up the snake by the neck and was surprised by a swift strike, the fangs sinking twice into the hand. Before a doctor could be reached the poison had permeated Davis' system and he died some hours later.

THE STATESMAN'S SUNDAY SERMON

BY PROF. J. T. MATTHEWS

I bring the professor a charge to the senior class of Willamette university, Wednesday, June 9.

One day not long ago when I was thinking seriously and tenderly of our seniors I received a package, large and pretty heavy. It did not come by mail; it did not come by express. I can hardly state just the manner and medium of its coming, but there it was at my hand.

The address ran: "Senior of W. U., per Mr. Matthews."

Opening the box I found a pair of spectacles for every senior, each pair in its individual case. Spectacles! But such peculiar and unique specimens of that useful article.

If I were asked what is the commonest fundamental defect in men and women I should reply, spiritual blindness.

If I were asked by any number of persons any number of times what I considered the producing cause of most of my own personal errors and sins, I should say to one and all: Spiritual blindness is the cause. It is appalling how blind we are. It is astounding how universal blindness is—spiritual blindness.

HARDING TO REMAIN AT CAPITOL

Senator Abandons Plans for Rest at Seaside Resort—Assured of Support of Party Leaders and Newspapers

REPUBLICAN TICKET TYPICALLY AMERICAN

Conferences With Prominent Politicians Take up Many Hours

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Abandoning plans for a vacation at a seaside resort, Senator Harding, Republican presidential nominee, today decided to remain in Washington until the middle of July when he will get to his Marion, Ohio, home for the formal notification ceremonies.

Immediately on announcing his decision to forego a rest, the nominee began a series of conferences with party leaders which will continue throughout the preparation of his acceptance address.

Assurances of support were received during the day by Mr. Harding from Senator Poindexter of Washington, who contended with him for the nomination at Chicago; from Governor Allen of Kansas, who placed the name of Major General Wood before the Chicago convention and who himself was put before the convention as a candidate for the vice presidential nomination; from A. P. Moore, publisher of the Pittsburgh Leader, and from John G. Shaffer, publisher of the Chicago Evening Post, the Rocky Mountain News of Denver, and several middle western newspapers.

Senator Poindexter issued a formal statement tonight saying that Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge presented a "typically American ticket" for the election of which he expected to do all that he could. Governor Allen, in a letter to Senator Harding, said:

"It will be a pleasure to do anything I can at any time to further the cause of your election."

After calling on Mr. Harding, Mr. Moore said he "could not be a very good American and not be for him." He added that while he was not authorized to speak for Senator Johnson of California, he could say that the Californian was "100 per cent American, from which you can draw your own conclusions."

Conferences between Senator Harding and former Senator Beveridge of Indiana, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and other men prominent in the "progressive wing" of the party were arranged today, largely, it was said, through the efforts of Mr. Moore and Mr. Shaffer, both of whom were

Ruskin wrote: "I do not wonder at what men suffer, but I do wonder often at what they lose."

Well, just think what the unseen is missing every moment of their lives.

One of the most thrilling statements in a book that abounds with thrills is this exclamation:

"One thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see."
