

TROUT STREAMS LURE TOURISTS

Campers at Auto Park Stay Long Enough for Trip Along Santiam

Evidently some of the campers who were at the camp grounds last night heard of the good fishing in Oregon streams, for several of them, according to T. G. Albert, left for the Elkhorn country on the Santiam river to spend a few days in pursuit of the gamey trout. More at the camps contemplate leaving for the fishing streams.

Also Mr. Albert has heard from reliable sources that so me land deals are now pending. The majority of the campers who have been at the grounds have been so well pleased with the Oregon country that they have been dickering for suitable property.

The elderly woman who was scolded some time ago is now out of the Deaconess hospital and will resume the journey to Los Angeles with her party. The son of a Mr. Howard who was stricken with acute pneumonia has now recovered to the extent that the family is permitted to leave for Portland.

The following are registered at the camps:

Mr. and Mrs. E. Magni, Hamilton, Mont.; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Read, of Hamilton, Mont.; Mr. and Mrs. S. Poole, Memphis, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eery, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Martin, Yakima; Mr. and Mrs. James Cooke, Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Wood and daughter, Centuria, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Betzger, Imperial Valley, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. B. Neilsen, Moore county, Ida.; Mr. and Mrs. A. Sth, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. W. Dunn and family, Ocean Park, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Coutts, Fresno, Cal.

WILD CAT PROMOTERS ARE INDICTED

Oil Mills and two officers of the Goree-Hartman Gins, with profiteering in violation of the Lever act, it was announced tonight by Robert J. O'Connor, United States attorney. The firms involved are Imperial Valley concerns and alleged violations of law occurred in connection with the ginning of cotton, it is charged.

The officers of the Globe Oil Mills indicted are: W. E. Keller, president, A. H. Morgan, vice president and A. D. Buckley, secretary and treasurer.

The officers of the Goree Hartman gins made defendants are W. J. Hartman, president and Robert G. Goree, secretary-treasurer.

The indictments charge the defendants entered into a conspiracy to exact exorbitant prices and to stifle competition by unfair methods.

It is alleged that prior to November, 1, 1919, the Globe Oil mills, at Calexico, El Centro, Brawley and Holtville, were charging 35 cents a 100 pounds for ginning cotton. This corporation then raised the price to 50 cents a hundred pounds and tried to dissuade other firms to take like action, the government charges. All other companies refused except the Goree-Hartman company of Calexico. It is alleged.

The Globe corporation then reduced the price to 20 cents a 100 pounds at Calexico, El Centro, Brawley and Holtville but in conjunction with the Goree-Hartman company charged 50 cents a hundred pounds at Calexico, according to the charges.

calism or any other subject could not be brought into accord quickly.

Mr. Bryan's arrival should clear the air as to the league itself. The leaders here now apparently are prepared to accept President Wilson's views in this regard with little question, some of them because they are in fact in accord with him and others for reasons of political expediency; but if Mr. Bryan, as has been suggested, plans to urge what would amount practically to acceptance of Republican reservations to the league covenant as framed in the senate, there is likelihood that hopes for a committee compromise would go a-climbering.

the wool growers may be able to recover some of this spring's losses at next spring's clip."

While leaning the sheep men money to withstand the rag-pickers' competition, the United States government is doing more than any other single agency to swell the rag-pickers' income. In the supplement to "Commerce Reports," issued April 20, 1920, the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, of the department of commerce, reports under the caption, "Army Garments Salvaged":

Shoddy is Purchased
"The number of garments received at Dewsbury (Great Britain) each week is about 200,000 and the estimated total since the depot was established is no less than 150,000-600 weighing about 44,000 tons."

Those that are too delapidated for further wear are classified, blended and sold as woolen rags to shoddy and cloth manufacturers to be pulled into fibre and re-made into cloth, principally for the civilian trade."

asked to stick by him and to whom their support would go after that time.

Neighborly considerations, it is said, are apt to play a part in the course of delegates from Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia when the expected breakup comes. Each state has a candidate in the field. Palmer from Pennsylvania, Cox from Ohio, and John W. Davis from West Virginia. Should the early balloting make it apparent that the necessary two-thirds majority to nominate could not be obtained for Palmer or Cox, Davis supporters claimed today that he would inherit the Pennsylvania and Ohio delegations. They anticipated a general surge toward Davis under the impetus furnished by these powerful blocks of votes.

Special Booklet Issued for Benefit of Shriners

The Salem Commercial club issued a special booklet displaying the beauties of the Willamette valley in pictures for the benefit of the Shrine visitors Wednesday. These books were distributed to each guest before leaving the city.

The book contains 26 pages, each page having a photograph of some building, factory or industry together with a concise explanation. There are pictures of the state capitol, court house and buildings in and about Salem. There are also photographs of berries, hops, poultry and a brief note concerning the industries of the valley.

The club has also secured a practically complete list of Shriners who were on the Salem trip and they will be sent literature from time to time concerning the valley and will be invited most cordially to return at some future date.

Lodgers "Held Up" When They Sleep on Hassalo

A number of Salem citizens were assigned to sleeping quarters on the river boat Hassalo during the Shrine convention and report a charge of $2.50 for a berth on the steamer. This is the only place, according to those who were in the city, where a "hold-up" on visitors was practiced. Ordinarily one can secure a berth to Astoria for less than the price charged at the dock. They also state that a very poor meal was served on board the steamer for which they paid $1, while hotels and restaurants in the city were serving food at their regular prices and using their ordinary menu cards.

Illahee Players Going to Eugene for Match

Golf players of the Illahee Country club will go to Eugene Sunday, June 27, to play a return match with the Eugene Country club players, says an announcement made from the local club yesterday.

The first match was played at the Illahee links last month and was won by the local players.

A large crowd of Illahee club members and other golf fans are planning to go to Eugene to witness the playing.

West Coast Lumbermen Submit Weekly Figures

One hundred and fifteen mills reporting to the West Coast Lumbermen's association for the week ending June 19 show a total production of 84,320,423 feet, which was .77 per cent less than normal.

New business totaled $6,058,787 feet—an average of 400,511 feet per mill.

Shipments totaled 65,210,092 feet, including 5,201,967 feet coastwise cargo and 11,698,999 feet export cargo.

Unshipped transcontinental orders totaled 6,484 cars.

More equipment is not what the lines need, Mr. Dixon said, but more efficient operation of the rolling stock the roads now possess.

localities and commodities, which have been paying rates that already are high. O. W. Tong, of the Northern Potato Traffic association of Minneapolis said. The percentage plan is opposed by his association, he said, although it probably would be given an advantage over many competitors if it were adopted. Any advance, he declared, should be the same in cents per hundred pounds on potatoes and every other class of freight.

O'Dowd and Battling Ortega Fight Draw

PORTLAND, June 24.—Mike O'Dowd, claimant of the middleweight championship of the world, and Battling Ortega of Oakland, Cal., fought a ten-round draw here tonight.

The mill was full of action from start to finish, with O'Dowd landing the harder and more often, but Ortega was persistent, his aggressiveness earning him an even break in the eyes of the referee.

Johnny Noye, St. Paul lightweight and Young Brown of Los Angeles, fought a ten-round draw in the semi-windup. Allie Neck of New York and Frankie Murphy, Denver mid-weight, went to an eight round draw; Danny Edwards, Oakland bantamweight, boxed a six-round draw with Frankie Garcia of Los Angeles and Johnny Fluke of Rock Island.

Ill. beat Ted Hoke of Portland at 130 pounds.
