

SOCIETY

By RUTH LENOIRE FISHER

To meet Mrs. Ella Grant Wilson of Cleveland, O., who was a visitor in Salem yesterday, a group of friends, and lovers of flowers assembled at the Hotel Marlon for a luncheon. A basket of pink sweet peas and Cecil Brunner roses combined with a quantity of fern graced the center of the table. Those who sat around the board were Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. W. P. Lord, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Zadoc Riggs, Mrs. William Hamilton, Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. William Everett Anderson, Homer Smith and C. B. Clancy.

During the afternoon Mrs. Wilson was motored over the city and to the state institutions. Mrs. Wilson, who writes special articles for magazines about flowers, was in Salem yesterday to gather material for a special article for an eastern magazine about the flowers of Salem.

Testout roses were used artistically. Music was enjoyed and during the evening Miss Constance Kantner gave a group of readings from Riley. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Kantner's hospitality were Mrs. George Burnett, Mrs. L. Lamb, Mrs. Ida M. Babcock, Mrs. A. Farrar, Mrs. C. Talkington, Mrs. W. P. Fowle, Miss Julia Iverson, Miss Theresa Fowle, Miss Cora Talkington, Miss Aline High, Miss Laverne Kantner and Miss Constance Kantner. At the luncheon hour Mrs. Kantner was assisted by her two daughters.

The annual picnic which is given on the lawn of the E. A. Millard home at 1500 South High street by the members of the First Congregational church will be held this afternoon. A basket supper will be enjoyed at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. W. C. Kanter was a hostess Monday evening at her home when she entertained with a farewell to Mrs. Sarah D. Farmer who leaves today for a two months' visit in Detroit, Mich. The living room was attractively graced with a profusion of dainty syringa and lupin, and in the dining room where a luncheon completed the evening. Carolyn

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Ercheberger and children of Waitsburg, Wash., are guests at the G. W. Laflar home on South Liberty street for the week, motoring down from Portland after visiting friends there.

The women and friends of the Jason Lee Memorial church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. R. A. Harris, 624 North Capitol street, this afternoon. Mrs. E. F. Frazier and Mrs. E. W. McWilliams will be the assisting hostesses.

SHAKE INTO YOUR SHOES
Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes and sprinkled in the foot-bath. The Plattenburg Camp Manual advises men in training to use Foot-Ease in their shoes each morning. It prevents blisters and sore spots and relieves painful, swollen, smarting feet and takes the sting out of corns and bunions. Always use Allen's Foot-Ease to break in new shoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Chambers, Miss Dorothy Chambers and Joseph W. Chambers, Jr., have returned from Portland, where they visited for a few days with friends. Mr. and Mrs. L. Read Chambers who have also been in Portland have returned home.

Mrs. Ida M. Babcock is home after a few weeks absence from the city while she visited in Astoria and in Portland.

Miss Doris Churchill returned yesterday from Portland after spending the wee-end at the home of her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Barfield have returned from Portland where they were the guests for a visit of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Porch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Giesy and daughter, Miss Madeline Giesy, motored back to Salem yesterday from Portland, where they have been visiting for a few weeks.

Society will be interested to know that the Curtis Crosses are now domiciled in the former T. B. Kay home on North Capitol street, which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams and baby returned yesterday from Portland after visiting a few days with friends.

SCOUTS HAPPY IN MOUNTAINS

Plenty to Eat Snow Fights and Swimming in Warm Water, Is Report

Salem mothers needn't worry about whether their sons at the Boy Scout camp at McCredie Hot springs are getting enough to eat. The Scouts are loud in their praise of mulligan stew and pancakes—three of 'em, with all the syrup you want! Everything is just as good as at home, only an extra fine flavor is lent to camp chow by the scent of the fir grove where it's eaten, and the music of Blue pool's sounding waters near by. Sixty-four scouts line up at mess-call, and after a brief grace file past the mess-table in hand, to get their rations from the camp cooks, who are ably assisted by the "K.P.'s" of the day. The job of K. P. is one much sought after, because it gets the boys near the kitchen and the commissariat.

The camp is in a fir grove on Salt creek, about a quarter of a mile from the McCredie Springs hotel. For 25 cents a week the boys can use the swimming tank at the hotel—and it's pretty fine to go on a hike into the snowline, enjoy an old-fashioned snow fight, and then get back to camp and have a swim in the warm water of the tank.

There is good fishing in the creek, and fresh deer and bobcat tracks were found at the springs last Sunday. A motor party, of which the Statesman representative was a member, met a deer in the road about 15 miles out of Eugene. The party found the road between Oak Ridge and the camp rough but passable.

Around the campfire in the evening the scout's bear reports from the scout master as to which tent receives honors for neatness, and other business matters about camp. Every night the boys from one or two tents furnish entertainment for the rest of the camp, with impromptu vaudeville stunts and magic shows that win cheers. The camp started originally with 108 boys, but a number of those had work for the summer and were able to stay only a part of the time. Those who can stay for the whole four weeks feel themselves very fortunate.

Cherrians May Assist Woodburn in Celebration
At a meeting of the Cherrians to be held tonight a decision will be reached as to whether the Cherrians shall go to Woodburn to participate in the Independence Day celebration July 4. The Cherrians feel very kindly toward the people of Woodburn for the assistance given in the Willamette valley Shriners' excursion and there is a strong possibility that the Woodburn invitation will be accepted.

Proper Thing Now Is to Peel Off Soiled Skin

Those who abhor sticky, greasy, shiny, streaked complexions should religiously avoid creams, powders and rouges during the heated days. There's no need for them, anyway, since the virtues of mercolized wax have become known. No amount of perspiration will produce any evidence that you've been using the wax. As it is applied at bedtime and washed off in the morning, the complexion never looks like a make-up. Mercolized wax gradually takes off a bad complexion, instead of adding anything to make it worse. It has none of the disadvantages of cosmetics and accomplishes much more in keeping the complexion beautifully white, satiny and youthful free from freckles, pimples, blotches and other blemishes. Just get an ounce of it at your druggists and see what a few days' treatment will do. Use like cold cream.
