LADD & BUSH, BANKERS

Established 1868

General Banking Business

Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

FROM SMALL BEGINNINGS BIG BANK BALANCES GROW

DON'T get the mistaken idea that a banking connection is only practical if you can deposit a million dollars, more or less. In reality many Savings Accounts are opened at the United States National Bank with as little as ONE dollar.

And we can point with pride to the rapid and continuous growth many of those seemingly insignificant accounts have made.

We welcome accounts of all sizes

AND NEXT— Chautauqua

The days for the coming of the big brown tent are almost here. It is time to think about that season ticket—the "open sesame" to a week of splendid lectures, music and entertainment.

Twenty-one Events

Just one good thing after another—all Ellison-White quality—brought to you from all parts of the world to instruct, to entertain, to inspire.

Same Old Price

And still at the old price level—$2.50—one of the few things on this old earth of ours that hasn't skyrocketed.

Watch for Programs

The big programs will soon be distributed. Watch for yours. They are newspaper size—eight pages brimfull of interesting news about the most worth while week of events ever scheduled for Salem.

Italians Get Original Manuscripts By Treaty

VIENNA, July 3.—The original manuscript of Tasso's "Jerusalem Delivered" is among a vast quantity of art objects and other treasures just turned over to the Italians under the treaty terms. It is said to have been plundered of early wars.

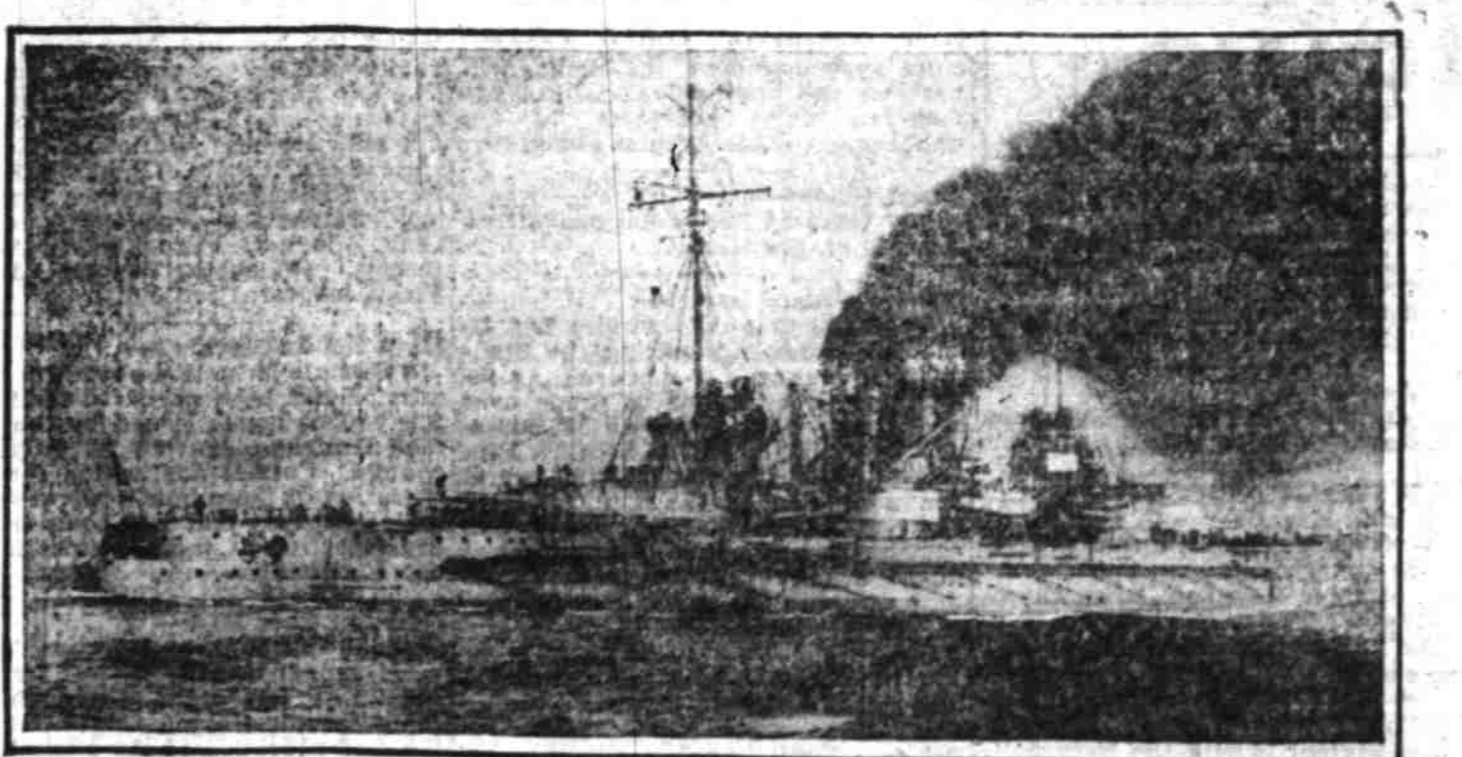

Torquato Tasso, author of "Jerusalem Delivered," was a celebrated Italian poet of the latter part of the 16th century and a protégé of Cardinal Luigi d'Este. The poem was published first at Venice and subsequently at Palma. It was translated into many languages.

Tasso became insane and for many years was kept in more or less seclusion but partly recovering was summoned by Pope Clement to Rome to be crowned as poet laureate but he died in that city in 1595 before the ceremony was performed.

AMERICAN NAVY TO RECEIVE GERMAN WAR CRAFT

Dreadnought Ost Friesland
Cruiser Frankfurt
Destroyer of V Class

As a sincere acknowledgement of the paramount value of the American navy's part in the World war and its signal performance in "guarding the road to France," the allied peace council allotted to our sea forces eleven German fighting craft ranging from dreadnaughts to submarines. With the American flag at the peak and according to customs of war, flying high above the conquered German naval ensign, these surrendered ships will soon enter New York harbor. American crews have already been dispatched abroad to bring home these great trophies.

These are the first real prizes of war that have been won by the navy in our times. In the Spanish-American war the Spanish armored cruiser Marie Teresa surrendered at the battle of Santiago but was lost at sea and other than a few small gun boats captured at Manila bay and in Cuban waters, the navy had no real big prizes from the war with Spain.

The treaty of peace ended once for all the German navy. Only the treachery of the German admiral robbed the allied navies of the best of the surrendered ships, for so well had the Germans done their work that the new battle cruiser, Hindenburg, could not be salvaged. Among the ships beached and saved was the new scout cruiser Frankfurt, which has since been allotted to the American navy and is now under our flag. Damaged by the grounding at the Orkneys, the turbine machinery of this ship is not in working order and the transport Hancock will tow the German vessel across the Atlantic. But the big prize of our spoils of war will be the dreadnaught Ost Friesland, a handsome comparatively modern battleship of 22,000 tons, armed with 12 12-inch guns and a powerful secondary battery. Both the Frankfurt and the Ost Friesland bore the brunt of battle and were in at the melee at Jutland. The big ship was struck by a British torpedo but due to the clever way the Germans have employed in subdividing their hulls, the vessel managed to limp into port. The Frankfurt

EXPEDITION OUT AFTER BONES

Scientists to Search for Remains of Great Prehistoric Reptiles in Canada

EDMONTON, Alta., July 3.—An other expedition to look for the bones of great prehistoric reptiles in the Red River valley of Alberta is on its way here. This time it is under the direction of Dr. W. A. Parks of the University of Toronto, and the Royal Ontario museum. For a number of years these expeditions have been an annual summer journey for three months. Two years ago the almost perfect specimen of the kritosaurus incurvibanus, which has just been finally chipped free from the rock and presented to the museum, was found, making a distinct addition to the records of science, and giving to Toronto the only specimen of this species yet discovered. Three incomplete skeletons of the kritosaurus and a great horned head of a protosaurus, four feet six inches in length, were found by the

U. S. ICE CREAM INVADES PARIS

Sodas Demanded by American Tourists Who Flock to Battle Fields

PARIS, July 2.—The ice cream soda has invaded Paris. With the arrival of the first of the American tourists have sprung up numerous shops which boast that within may be obtained "real American ice cream sodas." Prices for this American drink range from three to six francs according to the character of the shop.

Paris has always had places where poor imitations of the great American drink could be obtained but not until this spring when the tourists trade revived, did the real thing make its appearance. An amusing feature of the French premier of the soda has been the popularity it has attained with the Parisians.

At first quite skeptical, the French later tried the drink and liked it. One large cafe on one of the famous boulevards serves more French peo-

Queen Refuses to Pay Prevailing High Prices

BUCHAREST, July 3.—Queen Mary served notice on all Rumanian merchants today that she was not a war profiteer and would refuse to pay the prevailing prices for food and clothing. The queen made known her attitude when she returned to a local establishment an afternoon dress which she had selected and for which they demanded the equivalent of about $60.

Writing the store proprietor a protest in her own hand, she declared she was not one of those whom the war had enriched and she desired all Rumanian shopkeepers to know that she would refuse to pay the present extravagant prices. The shopkeeper then offered to cut the price in half but the queen declined to accept the dress at any price.

Iron Puddlers Refuse to Accept Strike Settlement

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 1.—Five hundred and fifty iron puddlers failed to report for work at the mills of the A. M. Byers company and the Brown Incorporated company here today, strike leaders announced today. They will remain out pending a settlement of the wage controversy at Columbus.

McAdoo Refuses Reporters Audience at Huntington

HUNTINGTON, N. Y., July 1.—Maintaining his sphynx-like silence, William G. McAdoo at his country home here today declined to be approached by newspapermen to make any comment on the activities of the Democratic convention at San Francisco where his name has been placed in nomination for the presidency.

KING ALBERT IN ACCIDENT.

BRUSSELS, July 2.—King Albert while driving his automobile home from Switzerland, collided with a cart near the Franco-Belgian frontier. The automobile was damaged but King Albert was uninjured. He continued his journey in a hired car.

Rather Startling.

She was a professor's wife and she was awfully proud of her hubby. One day when the Smiths were called she told them all about him. "He's wonder, is my husband," she said. "Just at this minute he is in the laboratory conducting some experiment. The professor expects to go down to posterity."

B-r-r! Crash! Rattle! Another B-r-r from the direction of the laboratory.

"I hope he hasn't gone," said one of the visitors anxiously.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.
