PRICE, FIVE CENTS

ROOSEVELT IS SELECTED BY ACCLAMATION

Tammany Organization Only Opposition and Finally Accepts Him as Running Mate for Cox.

NOMINATED BY FARMER DELEGATE FROM OHIO

One by One Other Vice Presidential Candidates Withdrew Names.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, was nominated for vice president today by the Democratic national convention and became the running mate of Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, the Democratic choice for the presidential nomination.

The first cries of "Cox and Roosevelt" rang through the convention hall and were mixed with the shouts of the vote of acclamation by which Roosevelt was nominated without a ballot.

Despite the disinclination of the Tammany organization to accept him, Roosevelt's name went over with a bandwagon movement during which all other candidates were withdrawn.

James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois was withdrawn early by former Governor Dunne; Governor Stewart of Montana announced his own withdrawal; Edward L. Doheny of California and former Governor Hawley of Idaho were withdrawn and Major General L. D. Tyson of Tennessee announced that he would not be a contender, as did David R. Francis of Missouri. Nomination of W. T. Vaughn of Oregon, who had received state primary endorsement, was changed into a second for the successful nominee.

Hainbridge Colby, secretary of state, who was considered as a candidate and refused to allow his name to be used, finally was urged to consent if he should be "drafted." As it fell out, the Tammany crowd decided to accept Roosevelt, and no more was taken up, there was never any doubt about it and never at any time was there any opposition.

The seconding of his nomination by Governor Smith of New York from the Tammany delegation clinched it. Senator Robinson of Arkansas, permanent chairman of the convention, was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Governor Cox of his nomination, and Chairman Homer S. Cummings of the Democratic national committee, was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Mr. Roosevelt.

After its tumultuous session of 44 ballots, the convention re-assembled at noon to finish its work. There was at first a delay utilized by the Cox managers to hear from the governor about his wishes on the vice presidential nomination. E. H. Moore of Youngstown, Ohio, who managed the governor's fight, let it be known that Cox was willing to leave the selection of his running mate to the convention. With the forces easily and quickly coalesced and after Roosevelt's nomination, applauded an appreciation of him by his chief, Secretary Josephus S. Daniels.

During the closing moments of the convention the usual formal resolutions affecting the national committee and the convention organization were adopted with a resolution expressing the thanks and appreciation of the convention to the city of San Francisco.

Chairman Homer Cummings of the Democratic national committee, said:

"The convention reached its result in a truly Democratic manner. The forces, purposes and opinions, represented by the delegates, had full play and reached an uncontrolled result. It was a long, hard contest, but it leaves no scars and the candidates will have the united support of the party."

"San Francisco redeemed every promise that was made in her behalf and in many respects far exceeded our expectations. There were some who doubted the wisdom of holding a national convention on the Pacific coast. Actual experience, however, has removed all doubt."

Elated as a boy over his nomination by acclamation today as vice presidential candidate of the Democratic party, Franklin D. Roosevelt's first act on hearing the news from the convention hall was to

VILLA SIGNS ARMISTICE AND WILL SURRENDER

AGREES TO CRASH ATTACKS ON TRAINS, GARRISONS, TOWNS.

Armistice Negotiated by Elias L.
Torres and Terms Will Be Approved by President.

EL PASO, Tex., July 6.—A dispatch to the El Paso Times from its correspondent in Torreon, Mexico, says Francisco Villa has signed an armistice and agreed to cease attacks on trains, garrisons or towns.

Villa has also agreed to surrender under certain conditions to be approved by Provisional President de la Huerta. The armistice was negotiated by Elias L. Torres, who left El Paso two weeks ago for Villa's camp in the mountains near Saucillo.

Torres, who is in Torreon, en route to Mexico City, authorized the announcement that an agreement had been entered into whereby Villa suspends all operations until July 1, and further agreement that Villa will surrender when his terms and conditions are approved in writing by provisional President de la Huerta and General Elias Calles.

Alvaro Obregon and Benjamin Hill, Torres, who represents the provisional government carries a letter from Villa and says the latter informed him that he had no personal political ambitions and that he recognizes Huerta as provisional president.

The conference, according to Torres, was attended by all the principal Villa lieutenants, and the agreement was reached after an open discussion of the terms. The signing of the armistice, Torres says, was the signal for cheers for Obregon and de la Huerta.

COX ISSUES STATEMENT

Ready to Make Intensive Speaking Campaign in Every State.

DAYTON, Ohio, July 6.—In a telegram to the Democratic national convention accepting the presidential nomination and thanking the delegates for their support, Governor James M. Cox today intimated he is ready to make an intensive speaking campaign in every state.

His friends said he will urge his political advisers against a "front porch" campaign, such as Senator Harding, Republican presidential nominee, expects to make in Marion.

The governor said, however, that no plans have been formulated and the campaign will not be discussed officially until Democratic national committee members and other party leaders return from San Francisco.

He indicated he had no intention of resigning as governor of Ohio in order to devote all of his time to the campaign. He pointed out that Senator Harding had announced he would not resign from the senate.

Governor Cox spent the day receiving old friends at his home, Trails End, near Dayton, and in his office at the newspaper, the Dayton News. Tonight he motored 25 miles to Middletown, Ohio, to make a brief address to friends and neighbors of his youthful days, when he was a newsboy, printer, devil, school teacher and reporter.

Army Planes to Undertake Alaska Trip—8,690 Miles

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Four army airplanes will undertake a flight from New York July 15 to Nome, Alaska and return, 8,690 miles, it was announced today at the war department. The purpose will be to demonstrate the practicability of commercial airlines to Alaska.

Delivered planes will be used. War department officials expect that the voyage will result in airplane mail routes to Alaska and provide photographs of hitherto inaccessible portions of Alaska for engineering purposes.

The planes will cross the northern states until North Dakota is reached when they will proceed northwest across Canada.

The personnel in the four planes will be Captain St. Clair Street, commanding; Lieutenants Clifford C. Nutt, Eric H. Nelson, C. H. Crumrine and Ross C. Kirkpatrick; Sergeant Edmund Henriques and Albert T. Virra and Master Engineer Joseph E. English.

Republicans Begin Work of Mapping out Campaign

CHICAGO, July 6.—Republican chieftains who gathered here today to formulate plans for the coming presidential election appeared undisturbed by the democratic choice of a nominee from the home state of their candidate.

After arrival of Chairman Will Hays, work was begun on mapping out the campaign. A series of conferences is being arranged.

Chairman Hays refused to discuss the nomination of Governor Cox. Instead, he confined himself to laudation of the personal qualities of Senator Harding.

The first decision announced was that Senator Harding would remain in Ohio during most of the campaign. The Ohio "front porch" plan will be emphasized more than ever, it was said, while an endeavor will be made to satisfy local pride of other sections by spreading the word that the senator will "listen to reason."

CREATION OF THIRD PARTY IS ASSURED

Cox a Colorless Candidate of Conventional Type Selected by Worn-out Delegates at Eleventh Hour.

NO CHOICE BETWEEN TWO OLD LINE PARTIES

Real Issues of Concern to People Disregarded by Democrats.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Third party proponents to see in the results of the Democratic national convention the certainty of a new political party, according to a statement issued here tonight by Howard Williams, national vice chairman of the committee of 48, which has called a convention in Chicago July 10 to 11 for organization of a new party and selection of candidates for president and vice president of the United States.

The statement tonight said: "The Republican convention adopted a reactionary platform and selected a typical old guard candidate. The people expected relief from the Democratic convention and again their hopes are shattered."

"False issues were created. Real issues, those of concern to average people, were disregarded intentionally."

"A colorless candidate of the conventional type was selected finally by worn-out delegates in the small hours of Tuesday morning."

"In the Democratic convention as in the Republican, everything that savored of liberalism was stifled. There is nothing to choose between either party. Both are bankrupt of democratic purposes."

"The people of the United States now demand a genuine opposition party. They demand a new party, which will regard sincerely the interests of the voters, a party which offers a constructive program and which assures relief from the tyranny of the 'two-party system.' Such a party will be organized, now is the time."

The statement also bore the signatures of Amos Pinchot, George L. Record and J. A. H. Hopkins.

Ladd, Non-Partisan, Leads for G. O. P. Nomination

FARGO, N. D., July 6.—Dr. E. F. Ladd, of Fargo, tonight still had a slight lead over United States Senator A. J. Gronna for the republican nomination for United States senator. Returns from 1,737 precincts out of 2,064 in the state from last Wednesday's primary gave Ladd, non-partisan league candidate 46,339 and Gronna 45,717.

The missing precincts are in territory claimed by the league and league officials declare Dr. Ladd will have a majority of 3,000 when all votes are counted.

With less than 100 precincts in the state missing, Governor Lynn J. Frazier, league candidate, is 5,000 votes ahead of William Langer, independent republican, for the republican gubernatorial nomination. Frazier's election was conceded several days ago by his opponent.

League candidates were defeated in two of the state's three congressional districts. In the first district Representative John W. Baer, league man, lost to O. B. Burnett of Grand Forks. Representative G. M. Young won out over Thomas Pendergast, league candidate, in the second district, while Representative James H. Sinclair, league man, captured the third district, republican nomination.

Astoria Port Commission Adopts New Grain Tariff

ASTORIA, Ore., July 6.—The Astoria port commission has adopted a new grain tariff. The new rates are: unloading bulk grain from cars, with 20 days free storage, 50 cents per ton.

Cutting sacked grain into bulk elevator, including wharfage and 20 days free storage, 65 cents per ton.

Unloading sacked grain from cars with wharfage and 20 days free storage, 75 cents per ton.

Storage after the expiration of the 20 days—bulk grain, one half cent per ton a day; sacked grain, three-quarters cents per ton a day.

Loading vessels: Sacked grain, 35 cents per ton; bulk grain, 15 cents per ton.

THE WILD-WOOLEY EAST

SPARTANBURG, S. C., July 6.—In a pistol duel here tonight William P. Cooper, a blacksmith and Oscar Godfrey, a horse trader, killed each other. Each man emptied the six chambers of his weapon and when the police arrived Cooper was dead and Godfrey, though dying, was still snapping his empty gun at the body of the dead man.

ELK DESTROY FIELDS OF RYE AND WHEAT

MEYERS BROTHERS COMPLAIN TO GOVERNOR OLCOCK.

Animals, Liberated on North Fork of Santiam River, Target of Large Ranch Owners.

A. B. and S. G. Meyers, who reside on the north fork of the Santiam river, about 50 miles from Salem, were here yesterday on their way to Portland where they will confer with the state game warden regarding a band of elk which were liberated recently in that section of the state.

The Meyer brothers informed Governor Olcott that the elk were as gentle as cattle and that all efforts to keep them off their land had been fruitless. As a result the elk are said to have destroyed a field of rye valued at several hundred dollars and are now grazing in the wheat fields of that vicinity.

At the last session of the legislature a law was passed making it a penitentiary offense to kill elk in the state of Oregon, and they can be slaughtered only with the consent of the game warden.

PASTOR TO FIND HOME FOR YOUTH

Frank Brown, 11 Years of Age, Willing to Work if Treated Kindly.

Because he was unable to work as fast and accomplish as much as his father wanted him to, Frank Brown, 11 years of age, was the object and the recipient of much abuse from his father which he resented in his childish way, was the motive for leaving home about a month ago from Dee, Or., and going to Portland.

Frank Brown ran away from a motherless home for his mother died two weeks after his birth, and from his father a month ago to avoid uncalled-for beatings, and went to Portland where he sold papers for a time to earn money for his sustenance, and sold wooden boxes to spectators on the curb during parades at the Shriners' conclave. In this manner he was able to have something to eat and to purchase some necessary clothes, for he frankly says, "I only had a pair of overalls, a shirt, a cap and an old pair of shoes when I left home. I did not have any stockings or a coat."

Last summer he spent several weeks near Salem working and he left Portland last Friday and walked in the direction of this city. He says that he walked most of the way, gaining a ride only when nearing Salem and the party that gave him the ride reported him to the authorities. He was taken into custody by the local police authorities Monday night.

"I didn't do anything to get into jail," he told the police the next morning. No crime is charged against him. The authorities turned him over to the juvenile court because he had no home, motherless and an irresponsible father. The juvenile court has only two alternatives either to send the innocent youngster to the state industrial school, or parole him to some private institution. It is to be deprecated that our social life is such that no home is available for unfortunate youngsters like 11-year-old Frank Brown.

To send him to the reform school and to force upon him the association with boys of delinquent and evil careers is to smother the spark of manhood within his breast, for he knows in his own precocious mind that he has committed no crime. Whatever that was good within him would wither under the influence of further association with adverse characters. Incidents, like Frank Brown, that come to the public eye is an eloquent reminder of the need for institutions that will care and provide for cases of similar nature.

Frank Brown is only 11 years of age, but he has the mind of a 16-year-old boy. He is a precocious lad, bright and loquacious. His manner is frank, has nothing to conceal and is able to relate coherently his past experiences. He admitted that he has had very little "schooling," because, he says, "I had to go to work." He also stated that his father had very little interest in his education, in his training and in providing proper clothes.

If the old adage, "slovenly nature has slovenly clothes" will serve as an indicator of young Frank Brown's character, one does not need to fear that he will soon go wrong.

The juvenile court paroled the homeless lad to the Rev. Horace N. Aldrich, pastor of Leslie Methodist church on South Commercial street. Judge W. M. Bushey, knowing the fact that Rev. Aldrich is interested in young men and boys, he requested him to find a home for young Brown. The lad will be at his home until proper disposition of the case can be effected.

When approaching Rev. Aldrich, the lad spoke of his clothes in this manner:

"Too bad that I have no clean clothes; I'm awful dirty, ain't I?"

The Rev. H. N. Aldrich took the lad to the Y. M. C. A. where he received a good shower bath and a plunge in the swimming pool. The boy says that he is willing to work for anybody providing he is treated justly. He will be at the Aldrich home for a time.

BUSY SEASON IS REPORTED BY Y. M. C. A.

More Than 2500 Persons Visit Quarters During Month of June—Physical Director Is Elected by Board.

ELVIN WILL ATTEND SCHOOL AT SEABECK

Fifty-six Swimming Classes
Are Held During Month—Expenses Are Told.

An important meeting of the board of directors of the Salem Y. M. C. A. was held yesterday. There are now 18 members of the board, as follows: Messrs. W. I. Staley, president, and R. J. Hendricks, Jos. H. Albert, Curtis Cross, Paul B. Wallace, T. A. Livesley, Dr. F. E. Brown, T. H. Kay, W. T. Jenks, Dr. H. E. Epley, A. A. Lee, J. H. Farrar, Dr. B. L. Steeves, Mayor George E. Halvorsen, Carle Abrams, Warden L. H. Compton, Dr. M. C. Findley, Manager T. E. McCroskey.

An interesting item in the report of the secretary, James Elvin, was that 2500 boys and men, girls and women had visited the building during the month of June. Fifty-six swimming classes were held during the month. The total receipts for nine months were $9,763.47 and the total expenses for nine months, $8,777.58. The board invited C. H. Britton to be physical director for the next year. Mr. Britton has accepted and will begin work September 1. He is at present physical director of the Eugene Y. M. C. A. He comes highly recommended by state Y. M. C. A. officials and by leading people of Eugene. He will have full charge of all high school physical culture classes at the Y. M. C. A.

The board also invited Lyman Pickett, associate boys' secretary of the Seattle Y. M. C. A., to become boys' secretary at Salem. Mr. Pickett has accepted and will begin work September 1. Mr. Pickett comes highly recommended by state Y. officials who are fully acquainted with his record. Mr. Britton and Mr. Pickett are both ex-service men and Mr. Pickett has a fine war record as an active member of the 91st division, with whom he fought in the Argonne. Both men are Masons and Mr. Pickett is an active member of the Seattle lodge of Elks. The board believes that with such a staff of great things may be expected from the Salem Y. M. C. A. during the coming year.

The board also unanimously voted to send the secretary, James Elvin, to the Y. M. C. A. school for employed officers July 9 to 24. This school is held at Seabeck on Puget sound, near Seattle. Mr. Elvin will take the course on "city administration."

Shipping Interests Not Alarmed by Jap Threat

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Charging that Japanese shipping interests were fomenting a propaganda against the recently enacted merchant marine act, Senator Jones, who framed the measure, declared today that Pacific coast ports would not suffer in case embargoes were placed against them by either Japanese or British shipping companies. The shipping board has given assurance, he said, that American ships will immediately be allocated in sufficient numbers to replace foreign ships which are withdrawn and "to insure uninterrupted movement" of Oriental exports and imports.

In a statement, Senator Jones held that it would be to the advantage of American ports to have American ships handle their trade. A foreign ship, he added, spends little in American ports except agency fees and amounts for stevedoring and water. If foreign ships again are permitted to handle the bulk of America's export and import trade, he declared, shipyards will be forced to close down, as only American ships as a rule are repaired in this country.

"The threats of foreign carriers to withdraw their ships have been noted," Senator Jones stated, "but they will not be permitted to divert business from ports through which it now moves. There is full authority in the transportation act of 1910 to absolutely control all import and export shipments in trans-Pacific trades so that the interstate commerce commission may require them to move under permit, thus making effective an absolute embargo which would prevent diversion of such cargo now moving through Puget sound to either Canadian, Atlantic or gulf ports."

Remember when we used to be able to buy a good-sized watermelon for a dime, the dealer plucked it and the sale depended upon it being ripe? They were the happy days.

GREAT DAY IN LIFE OF THE SENIOR COX

DECLARES HE IS PROUDST MAN IN UNITED STATES.

Venerable Parent of Democratic Nominee Is Hale and Hearty at Eighty-Seven.

CAMDEN, O., July 6.—The residents of this little town are bursting with pride tonight. They claim for themselves some of the honor attendant upon the residence here of Gilbert Cox, father of the democratic presidential nominee Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio.

Mr. Cox, who is 87 years old, was sitting on the porch of his modest home this afternoon when a representative of The Associated Press called on him.

"I am the happiest and proudest man in the United States tonight, I hope and know that Jim will be as good a president as he is a son," said Mr. Cox. Word came as the members of the Cox household were at the breakfast table. "I didn't know what to say," confessed the democratic nominee's father. "I only know I am very happy and proud and Jim will be a good president."

Asked if he would go to Washington to witness the inauguration if his son be elected, Mr. Cox said: "I don't know. I'd like to go one better than Dr. Harding who said he would drive his shay in the parade, but I am getting along in years now."

All day a stream of neighbors and visitors poured into the Cox home congratulating the governor's father.

TWO NOMINEES FELICITATE

Cox and Roosevelt Exchange
Congratulations and Approve Nominations.

DAYTON, Ohio, July 6.—Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, tonight expressed his approval of Franklin D. Roosevelt as his running mate in the coming election.

A telegram of congratulation sent by Governor Cox to Mr. Roosevelt late this afternoon said: "Please accept my earnest congratulations over the honor that has come to you. I am very much delighted that we are associated together in the contest."

In discussing Mr. Roosevelt, Governor Cox characterized him as a very vigorous, upstanding, courageous and progressive Democrat.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., July 6.—The little village of Hyde Park, birthplace and summer residence of Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy and Democratic candidate for the vice presidency, received quietly but with elation this evening the news that its favorite political son had been named as running mate to Governor James M. Cox. The Associated Press carried the first news of his nomination to Mr. Roosevelt's residence. Mrs. James Roosevelt, his mother, said she had heard nothing from her son, but expected that he would return to Washington before coming to the family home in Hyde Park, in order to clean up the business which has accumulated at his desk in the navy department.

Mr. Roosevelt first sprang into political prominence in 1910 when he was drafted by the Democrats of the 28th New York state senatorial district in an effort to defeat Senator John F. Schlosser of Beacon, who was a candidate for re-election. Mr. Roosevelt was successful, rolling up a majority of 356 in the Democratic landslide which carried John A. Dix

BARGAIN DAY WILL BE NEXT BIG CELEBRATION

Yes, the Fourth is over, and from now on everyone, both merchants and customers will spend their every effort in preparing for the next big event—Bargain Day—which comes off next Saturday, July 10.

On their part the merchants are not letting a single thing prevent them from making the 1920 Bargain day the biggest of all the other three. They promise some of the most rare bargains, and they are also planning on showing their customers a real good time while in Salem.

Nor are the people going to let anything so by. From the reports of several in different communities, practically everyone is coming to Salem on Saturday, and everyone is coming with the idea of boosting for this annual money-saving event. Nearly all of the leading merchants are in on the movement and boosting with all their might. Special Bargain day windows are in evidence everywhere.

Following is a list of the persons and firms that have already joined in the Bargain day movement and those who are not yet included will probably join the crowd in a day or two:

Price Shoe Co., ladies' and men's shoes.
The Bootery, ladies' and men's shoes.
People's Cash Store, dry goods, clothing, groceries.
Salem Woolen Mills Store, clothing and furnishings.

SERVICE MEN MAKE PLANS FOR SESSION

Salem Post Names Delegates to Attend American Legion Convention to Be Held at Astoria this Month.

MANY WARRIORS ARE PLACED IN POSITIONS

Plans for Special Events During Coming Winter Discussed at Session.

Delegates to the second department convention of the American legion were elected at the regular monthly meeting of Capital post No. 9 at the armory last night. The following were elected to represent the Salem post: Tinkham Gilbert, Millar McGilchrist, Max Page, Leland Brown, Miller Hayden, W. C. Smith and Robert McMurray. The alternates chosen are as follows: Roy Byrd, Mort Pilkington, Carl Hinges, B. F. Pound, Edmond Aldrich, Robin Day, Earl Daise and Carle Abrams.

The second state department convention will be held in Astoria, Clatsop county, beginning July 30 and continuing to August 1, and will be held under the auspices of Clatsop Post, American legion. The purpose of the convention is to elect officers for the ensuing year, to amend the state constitution, and for the transaction of other business of import to the American legionnaires in the state of Oregon.

Delegates Are Named

One of the features of the Astoria convention will be the staging of a sham battle representing the battle of the Argonne. Other features of entertainment are also being planned by the Astoria post. It is expected that much business of vital interest to ex-service men will be transacted and much interest is evinced in the coming convalesce.

Plans for special events during the coming winter were talked over and it is expected that Capital post will stage several legitimate boxing bouts as part of the program. It is also planned to put on several dances during the coming months and the committees having that part of the program in hand is at work making arrangements.

More Interest Urged

It was pointed out at the meeting last night that many ex-service men are missing a great many advantages of securing help from the government by not attending legion meetings and securing the information dug up by legion officers for their benefit. This information includes the latest official bulletins regarding disability payments for all ex-service men who were wounded, gassed or in anyway injured while in the service but who are apparently now hale and sound. Information was also given out concerning free dental work for ex-service men whose mouths have become diseased as a result of their service. Men interested in this phase can see Dr. B. F. Pound, official dentist, and make claim for dental disability.

Employment Is Found

Dr. Pound, who is a member of the employment committee of Capital
