Writer is Married—
Miss Muriel Olevia Grant has written many accounts of weddings for this newspaper, but as Mrs. Jack C. Ponsler, she has declined to write this one, says the Polk County Observer. It all happened this way: Miss Grant and Mr. Ponsler were in Portland with a number of friends. They talked over the matter and concluded that they might as well solve the matter over then as later. Accordingly they hopped into a Ford coupe in which they had been making the trip drove to Vancouver, Wash., and there secured the necessary legal document appertaining to such affairs. Having gotten thus far along the matrimonial road they drove to the Vancouver court house and Rev. C. C. Curtis, formerly a Dallas minister, duly united them in Marriage at 6:40 p. m. Monday afternoon. They returned to Portland, and created somewhat of a sensation by informing their friends of the wedding.

We Still Have—
Two Hupmobiles for immediate delivery. Oscar B. Gingrich, 371 Court street.

Residence is Burned—
The residence of Peter Berg, the grocer, at the east end of Ash street, was shortly after noon, says the Polk County Observer. The blaze is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. The roof of the building was almost entirely burned, and the structure otherwise damaged by water. When the alarm was turned in the roof of the structure was ablaze and before the firemen could turn on the water the entire roof was more or less on fire. Once the water got at the fire it was soon quenched. Most of the furniture had been removed. The loss on the building is estimated at $500 and on the furniture at $250.

Wanted At Once—
Women and girls to stem cherries. Apply Oregon Packing Co. or phone 226.

Gasoline Supply Short—
Dallas dealers in gasoline are being told that the supply of this commodity is really short, and that a famine is possible, says the Polk County Observer. To all appearances this warning is founded upon fact, and it behooves us all to conserve the supply of gasoline. Since the recent shortage cars have been getting practically all they wanted. The local dealers went into the market and brought in the gas. But they are being warned that they cannot much longer expect to secure an extra supply. This means another shortage, and one that may last for some time.

Mary Meade Dies—
Mary E. Meade died at the family residence, six miles west of Salem at 4 o'clock p. m. Saturday at the age of 72 years. She leaves besides her husband, John Meade, sons, Frank A. Meade, Redlands, Cal., Alvin W. Meade, Polk county, and H. M. Meade, Hawaiian Islands. She was a member of the Christian church. The family came to Polk county two years ago from Redlands, Cal. The funeral will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. from Rigdon's chapel, Rev. Nichols officiating.

Hon. W. C. Hawley—
Will fill the pulpit at the First Congregational church this morning. His many friends in Salem will be glad to hear him and welcome him back to his home.

Goodin in Portland—
R. B. Goodin, secretary of the state board of control, was in Portland yesterday inspecting the several institutions receiving financial aid from the state. Mr. Goodin said the institutions apparently were in first class condition.

At the First Congregational church this morning.

Secretary Plays Golf—
Sam A. Koser, secretary of state, and George G. Brown, clerk of the state land board, went to Gearhart yesterday where they participated in a golf tournament staged at that place.

G. O. P. Women To Meet—
The Women's Study Republican club will meet 2:30 Monday in matron's room of city hall. All ladies interested in a study of the issues of the day are invited to come.

Water Permits Sought—
C. E. Moyer of Roseburg, has filed with the state engineer, application for the appropriation of water from the South Umpqua river for irrigation of a small tract of land in Douglas county. W. W. Hiser of Newberg, would appropriate water from an unnamed spring for use in steam boilers. John Grossen of Baker, seeks to appropriate water from an unnamed stream for a domestic supply. H. H. Buell of Elgin, would take water from an unnamed stream for irrigation and domestic use in Union county.

American Legion Dance—

Real Estate Moving—
There is a big call for all kinds of property, both to rent and to buy according to Barber & Pearson local real estate dealers. During the past week they have sold two houses in Salem and a 40-acre prairie tract in the Cloverdale district, 10 miles south of town. This was sold to a Rosedale prairie grower for $14,000. Another tract of 17 acres of prairie orchard was recently sold for $6,000 per acre. Not only are there a number of outside buyers in the field but local men are realizing better than ever that the country surrounding Salem affords the best buys.

Extra Pay Lacking—
A county treasurer, who, by virtue of his office is treasurer of irrigation districts included within his county, is not entitled to receive additional compensation because of his added duties, according to a legal opinion given by Attorney General Brown. Request for the opinion was received from several county treasurers of Eastern and Southern Oregon.

Counties Get Penalties—
The counties, and not irrigation districts are entitled to receive penalties accumulating from delinquent taxes on lands included within such irrigation districts, according to Attorney General Brown. The attorney general made this plain in a legal opinion given on request of several irrigation districts in various parts of the state.

Drs. White and Marshall—
Osteopathic physicians, U. S. Bk.

Mrs. Carrie Chappel to Wenatchee—
Mrs. Carrie Chappel will leave Monday for Wenatchee, Wash., to take the position, during her summer vacation, of secretary of the home service department of the Red Cross in that city. Mrs. Chappel is assistant to Mrs. Alice H. Dodd at the home service department in this city. She is a very prominent instructor in the public schools of the city where she has taught for many years, and she also is very active in the work of the Christian church.
