

FLARES AND FLICKERS

One of the most interesting characters in "The Courage of Marge O'Doona," James Oliver Curwood's stirring story of the great Canadian northwest, which has been made into a picture play as a special production by Vitaphone and which will be shown at Ye Liberty theater on Sunday next, is Haree, an outlawed dog, vicious and one-quarter wolf.

"The Orphan" is the significant title of a new and stirring William Fox production in which William Farnum is to be presented at the Oregon theater beginning next Sunday for a run of three days.

Simms and Warfield, two natural born comedians, dancers and writers of hit songs, with original lyrics and talking melodies. "If the World is Round, It's Crooked," "Brown Skin," "I Ain't Got Nobody" and a long string of others serve them nicely during the action of their fun skit, "A Minute's Rehearsal." At the Bligh today.

It is seldom that a five-reel picture offers a more exciting role for a star than does "Away Goes Prudence," Billie Burke's new Paramount Aircraft picture which is to be the attraction at the Oregon theater soon.

When nineteenth century ideas clash with twentieth century ideals, there is sure to be dramatic action. That's what happens in "Erstwhile Susan," the Reart picture adapted from Mrs. Fiske's recent stage success of the same name, and Helen R. Martin's novel, "Barnabette," on which the play was founded. Constance Binney makes her stellar debut in pictures in this story of dramatic suspense laid in the quaint Pennsylvania-Dutch town of Reinhardt. "Erstwhile Susan" will be the feature attraction at Ye Liberty today.

New thrills, deeds of daring that are different, stunts that are more hazardous than any yet screened, will be offered to the patrons of the Oregon theater on Friday next, when Tom Mix, Fox Film Corporation's famous cowboy star, will make his debut in this city as an author and director in "The Daredevil," his latest photoplay of the west.

Bob Cook and Dot Oatman, delineators, from songland in their revelry of mirth and harmony, are a pair of clever entertainers, who have spent most of their time in musical comedy. Everything they have to offer is new, popular and laughable, employing restricted and popular song numbers, and a brilliant line of chatter that is clean and refreshing. At the Bligh today.

No motion picture star has enjoyed such a meteoric rise into popularity as Thomas H. Ince's youthful co-starring team, Douglas Maclean and Doris May. The two established themselves firmly in the film firmament as the result of their very first picture, "Twenty Three and a Half Hours' Leave." Their latest vehicle "Let's Be Fashionable," will be shown at the Oregon theater today.

"A Night in Honolulu," a big musical show at the Bligh, one night only, next Wednesday.

The big racing melodrama, "The Whip," will be shown at the Bligh Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Howard and Scott, a prettily dressed character dancing duo, depict a series of roles, bettlingly attired, while presenting dances of various types in an original and unique manner. "A Story in Dances" might be an appropriate caption for their offering. At the Bligh today.

"Jiggs in Society" is the big feature comedy at Ye Liberty today.

"The Midnight Bride," with Gladys Leslie, at the Bligh today.

SALEM JAUNT LIKED BY SHRINE VISITORS

Just in time to clean up and eat before the evening festivities. Twenty-five hundred boosters for the beauties of the Willamette valley and the hospitality of its people was the net result. As long as the crowd stayed together, and later as little groups met in Seattle and other cities, some one was always present to tell the others about the splendid hospitality of the Willamette valley.

The Chandler Dispatch Car Has First Preference

The automobile industry has produced no distinctive model more popular than the Chandler Dispatch, a car reflecting in its lithe lines the character of its service. It is the first preference among those who want a four-passenger close-coupled open car. Its comfort, its beauty of line and finish, and its dependability are typical of the established Chandler quality.

The popularity of the Dispatch, which reaches to every corner of the world, is based not only on the grace of its trim design and its beautiful Rainbow Blue finish, but is due quite as much to the standard Chandler chassis upon which it is mounted. It seats four persons with utmost comfort. The driver's position is restful. The cushions are deep, well tilted and trimmed in the best of genuine hand-buffed leather.

With its wonderful flexibility of power, its ease of driving and real comfort, characteristic of all Chandler models, everybody likes the Dispatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langdon (born MacLean and May) desire your presence at a gladsome expose of their first formal invasion of society.

They also desire to deny all gossip that "kindred soul" and "affinity" complications on that occasion may lead to divorce—yet.

They do confess to laughable "complications," but at ultra-fashionable country clubs and teas one must be nice even to flirty matrons and gay millionaires. N'est-ce pas?

M. and Mrs. Langdon promise a joyous entertainment and refer, just for fun, to happy memories of "23 1/2 Hours' Leave," "What's Your Husband Doing?" and "Mary's Ankle."
