By RUTH LENORE FISHER

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Drager were hosts for a delightful lawn party at their home on Fir street, Friday evening. Japanese lanterns, Japanese umbrellas, and baskets of flowers in many colors made the lawn a festive scene. Cards and dancing were the diversions of the evening. Miss Marion Drager and Miss Cynthia Delano served punch during the hours and also assisted with the refreshments which were served at the close. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames E. Bowen, L. Michler, Roy Campbell, E. A. McElvain, O. L. Martin, F. G. Delano, Ralph White, E.

bring to the presidential nominee first hand information of the convention.

It is generally expected that Judge Ansberry will play an important role in the campaign management, as he is a close personal friend of Governor Cox, being a former resident of Ohio, and one of the chief lieutenants of E. H. Moore, the governor's pre-convention manager.

Monday the governor will have his first meeting with Franklin D. Roosevelt, the vice presidential nominee, at the executive office in Columbus.

Governor Cox has issued no statement of his position on the league of nations since his nomination, and it was said he probably would make none prior to his speech of acceptance. It was stated by those in close touch with him, however, that he is in perfect accord with the Democratic platform declaration.

The governor stated today that he considered the Democratic platform a promissory note to the people and that it was up to him to redeem it.

At the proposed conference between the president and the presidential candidate at Washington it is expected the league of nations will be one of the subjects discussed.

It requires almost as much time to wind up the affairs of Europe as if it were a Waterbury watch.

If this thing keeps on it will be necessary to call it the United States of Ohio.
