

ALL IS READY FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Program is Announced of Music, Lectures and Entertainment.

All is in readiness for the opening of Salem's Chautauqua season in the big "brown tent" on Sweetland field Sunday night. The season tickets for which Salem people are obligated have not all been taken up, and every one of them should be claimed today. Hartman Brothers' jewelry store is season ticket headquarters. They are also on sale at the Spa, the Gray-Belle, Patton's book store, Will's Music store and at Perry's drug store.

F. E. Lukens, director who will be in charge of the Chautauqua in Salem, is in the city and today will arrange all final details for the opening tomorrow night.

The daily schedule will be as follows: Children's hour, 9 o'clock a. m.; morning lecture, 10; afternoon concert, 2:30; afternoon lecture, 3; evening concert, 7:30; evening lecture, 8.

The complete program for the week follows:

Sunday
Evening: Opening exercises and announcements; lecture entertainment, "The Oriental Pageant"; Julius Caesar Naylor and assistants.

Monday
Morning: Junior Chautauqua. Afternoon: Prelude, The Alaska Duo; lecture, "Tomorrow"; Carlton Chamberlayne. Evening: Prelude, The Alaska Duo; lecture, "The Cure for Industrial Unrest"; E. B. Fish.

Tuesday
Morning: Junior Chautauqua. Afternoon: Concert prelude, Raul Pereira and his string quintet; lecture to

IRON WORKERS COMING SUNDAY

Another Portland Team to Meet Senators—Batting Averages Announced.

The Salem Senators are scheduled to meet the Portland Iron Works team on the diamond at Oxford park next Sunday afternoon. Every team that has been sent to Salem from the Rose City has met defeat at the hands of the local ball tossers. The Portland Iron Works team is reputed to be one of the best independent clubs of the metropolis and is determined to avenge the defeats of the other Portland teams.

To return to the Rose City with the scalp of the Senators would be a triumph for them, as they would have the distinction of being the first Portland team to gain victory over the local lads.

Yesterday Biddy Bishop, manager of the local team, received word from Portland that the iron works team is borrowing, renting or conscripting the strongest members of the Kirkpatrick team who played a strong game against the local team during the Fourth of July series. When Biddy was asked what he thought of the Portland team, he said:

"I am glad they are strengthening their team by obtaining the best players in Portland. I believe in the philosophy of the bigger they are the harder they fall. All teams sent out from Portland look alike to us."

So far this season "King" Cole, whom rumor has signed for the 1921 Beaver roster, has been able to win more than his share of the honors. Every appearance on the diamond finds him invincible. Last Sunday when pitching against a former McCredie man, and against a strong club, he pitched one of the best games of the season.

The Senators are also hitting the ball more consistently as the season nears its end. Batting against the benders of Harstad, the former Beaver twirler, they had little trouble in straightening his twisters for safe base knocks.

The line-up of the teams as announced by the local management is: Portland Iron Works—Meyers, c. Miller and Nooks p. Botana 1b, Ward 2b, St. Marie 3b, Hornsby ss, McKenna rf, Groat cf, Leskin lf.

Salem: Cole p, Kracke c, Blanchard 1b, Proctor 2b, Bishop 3b, Miller ss, Hayes rf, Stepp cf, Stewart lf.

Miller is leading the hitting of the Senators at the phenomenal .410 clip. Not including the game with Woodburn last Sunday the Senators are batting as rated below:

Player	Games	AB	H	Av
Miller	12	49	20	.410
Hayes	12	48	18	.375
Bishop	12	46	14	.304
Stepp	9	32	9	.281
Blanchard	5	22	5	.227
Kracke	12	43	11	.256
Cole	3	8	2	.250
Proctor	12	51	12	.235
Holmes	11	44	7	.159

be announced later; evening: grand concert, Raul Pereira and his string quintet; Return engagement of Mary Adel Hays, American soprano.

Wednesday
Morning: Junior Chautauqua; afternoon, popular concert, Royal Welsh lady singers; popular lecture "The Needs of the Hour" Judge George D. Alden.

Thursday
Morning: Junior Chautauqua; afternoon: rest afternoon, get ready for the big night program; evening, play "Kindling" The Maurice Brown players.

Friday
Morning: Junior Chautauqua; afternoon, prelude, The Parnells; travel lecture "Through Five Republics on Horseback" Dr. G. Whitfield Ray, F. R. G. S. Evening: prelude, The Parnells; lecture, "The Fourth Line of Defense," Judge Fred G. Hale.

Saturday
Afternoon: Prelude, Native Maori singers; popular lecture, Chautauqua director; public play hour, Junior Chautauqua on exhibition. Evening: "An Evening in the South Seas," native Maori singers of New Zealand; illustrated lecture, "New Zealand, the South Sea Utopia" Lella M. Blomfield.

MERCER HOME IS ENTERED

Bare-foot Burglar Makes Away with Money, Trousers and Other Things.

Late last night Mrs. L. K. Page, 432 North Cottage street, reported that she had found a pair of bid gray trousers, a bunch of keys, a pocket knife and a pair of old, worn-out woolen socks. She said that the articles were discovered in her back yard behind a woodpile. Dr. Mercer identified the keys and the knife, but did not claim the old pair of pants, or the socks. The thief apparently made a change in attire near the Page home.

Dr. W. L. Mercer of 435 North Summer street was early yesterday morning the victim of a clever thief. From the meagre clues left behind, the conclusion is drawn that he is a prowler of experience.

When Dr. Mercer arose yesterday morning he discovered a loss of a leather wallet containing $5, a small alligator purse containing a $2.50 gold piece, four silver dollars and about $1.50 in small change. Some keys and a pair of trousers were also missing.

Upon investigation it was discovered that the burglar gained entrance through his bath room window by prying it open. Bare foot-prints were found on the ground near the window.

The theft was reported to the police station at 6:10 yesterday morning by Dr. Mercer.

A man attempted to enter the home of S. S. East, 1320 Court street, about 12:30 a. m. Mrs. East heard the intruder at the parlor win-down, but he was frightened away when she raised a bedroom window directly above him. The prowler lost his hat in the yard as he fled.

NO REPLY FROM SOVIET.

MRS. GIESY IS LAID TO REST

Simple, Impressive Services Held at Aurora Church and Cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Barbara Giesy, who passed from this life in Salem on Monday, July 12, 1920, was held at the Presbyterian church in Aurora on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the services being in charge of Rev. R. N. Avison, pastor of the First Methodist church of Salem. The interment was in the Aurora cemetery, by the side of her husband, John Giesy, who died December 12, 1886. The pallbearers were grandsons of Grandmother Giesy. They were Arthur Kraus, W. G. Hendricks, Karl G. Becke, John R. Kraus, Binger Giesy and Paul R. Hendricks. The ceremony at the graveside was impressive and simple, as at the church.

Mrs. Giesy was born in Berne, Switzerland, in 1831, and was therefore 89 years of age. Her parents came to America when Mrs. Giesy was only a year old and settled at Newmarket, Mo., where she was married to John Giesy in 1851. In 1854 with her husband she came west by way of the Isthmus of Panama, and went to the "Shoalwater" Bay country, where they lived until 1862, when they sold their property in Washington and joined the colony at Aurora, where the 11 children born to them grew to manhood and womanhood.

Mrs. Giesy was always the soul of courtesy, kindness and hospitality. She had a good word for everyone, and she loved all the members of her numerous family and household and was loved by them in turn, and she lived a very long and useful life, and her works do follow her. She was deeply religious.

She is survived by the following children: Mrs. George Kraus and Mrs. Charles Becke of Aurora, Mrs. Ernest A. Greenwood of Salt Lake, Mrs. Robert J. Hendricks of Salem, A. W. Giesy of Portland and John B. Giesy of Salem, besides 20 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, and numerous relatives and friends who mourn her loss.
