PLANE DAMAGED IN FALL.
EUGENE, Ore., July 15.—One of the army forest patrol airplanes upon returning to the local base from its regular flight to the southern part of the state late this afternoon fell to the ground as Cadet Endert, the pilot, was about to make the landing, and turned turtle. Observer Don Davis suffered a broken nose but Cadet Endert was uninjured. The plane was damaged to such an extent that it will be taken to Mather Field, Sacramento, for repairs.

TOO MUCH FOR HIM.
There is a story going the rounds at the expense of a certain professor at U. S. C. You may know him, for he has a young son.
Seems the lad had been playing soldier and had for the doventh time demolished the Hun army. At a table nearby, the professor was busy with some calculations.
Suddenly, glancing up, Jimmy spied something. "Father," he cried, "there's a big black spider on the ceiling."
