

IRON WORKS NOT ABLE TO BEAT LOCALS

Salem Senators Win Sunday's Game From Portland Team by Score of 4 to 2

VANCOUVER THIS WEEK

Bishop Announces Repertoir of Games for Elks' Convention Days

As the sphinx of the deserts of Egypt is admired for weathering the hurts of so many ages, so do the Salem baseball fans admire the Salem Senators for weathering the attacks of so many Portland invading teams who have come to the capitol city to take home the scalps of the local lads. Sunday the local ball tossers sent the Iron Works team back to the Rose city defeated by the score of 4 to 2.

Although the game was featureless, both teams put up gilt-edged playing, with a slight advantage in favor of the Senators. The opposing pitcher, Neumschwanker, was hit safely only three times by the local team, but the hits came at times when his meant runs.

Four hits were landed in safe territory off the delivery of "King" Cole. Inability of the iron works men to connect with the ball with men perching on the third base sent them home on the short end of the score. Cole was stingy in the pinches, frequently striking out the batter when in a hole. In Sunday's game Cole whiffed 12 men, while his opponent struck out only 5 Senators.

Neat Catch Spoils Hit.

Stewart, the lanky third sacker of the locals, met one of his liking in the fifth inning and sent the ball over the left field fence for a circuit drive. He drove Kracke in ahead of him for a marker. Stewart was robbed of a hit by a phenomenal catch by Brost, the Rose city centerfielder, in the third inning when he gathered in Stewart's long hit to deep center by making a good run for the ball. Had the ball eluded the fielder it would have been a good three-base hit.

The Senators executed a clever double play in the seventh inning when they retired two men and the side. Second base was occupied by a runner when the batter hit a grounder to Miller at shortstop. Mike fielded the ball cleanly and retired the runner at the initial bag. Blanchard throwing to third where the third out was made when Stewart retired the man.

Acting Chief of Police Harry Rowe is scouting the city for Billy Stepp. The Senator, centerfielder stole three bases last Sunday. He would have stolen home had not Cole connected with the ball while Stepp was in the act of stealing the goal piece. The pitcher, seeing that Stepp was headed for home, tossed the ball to the catcher and Cole connected with it for a long single to left field fence.

Umpire Rankin, who conducted the game in an efficient manner, announced at Sunday's game that the Vancouver team is to play against the local team during the Elks' convention. Vancouver is coming with new phenoms from the bushes.

The Senators are prepared to meet the worst. "Dick" Cox, who has been playing in the outfield for the Portland Coast league and is somewhat of a hitter, will play with the local team. Cox, together with Kracke, Jack Hayes, Biddy Bishop and Stewart will provide some tough sledding for the opposing pitcher, no matter what his "bush" reputation may be. The sluggers of the Senators have demonstrated in games this summer against supposedly good teams that they can hit.

New Players Rumored.

It is also rumored that some other new faces may be seen in local suits but the names were not divulged. It may be possible that a new twirler may be on the mound to assist "King" Cole during the three-game series.

It is announced by Bishop that no stone will be left unturned to give local fans the best games possible. They are to receive their money's worth from the games at Oxford park. Particular attention will be given to securing efficient arbiters for the games during the Elks convention.

An Evening in the South Seas

Chautauqua Presents Native Maori Singers and New Zealand Lecturer

Ellison-White present on the closing evening of Chautauqua a big double program, "An Evening in the South Seas," an attraction entirely unique on the American platform.

Five Maori singers have been brought directly from New Zealand, and they will present for the first time in this country the bewitching native music of their New Zealand home. Headed by N. H. Papakura, famed throughout New Zealand as the leading tenor of the islands, and coming from a race that is essentially musical, they present a most interesting program.

Leslie M. Blomfield, New Zealand writer and traveler, will present an officially illustrated lecture of her home country. The New Zealand government has given Miss Blomfield a collection of curios and native costumes in addition to the views.

The appointment shall be made by an electoral board consisting of the American ambassador at the time of the election, who shall have a casting vote, the chancellor of the university, an elector nominated by the university, and Lord Rothemere and each succeeding holder of the viscounty.

Lord Rothemere has endowed two other professorships at English universities. In 1910 he gave £20,000 to Cambridge university for the foundation of the King Edward VII chair of English literature; and in 1918 he gave a similar sum to Cambridge as an endowment fund for the Vere Harmsworth professorship of naval history, in memory of his second son, who was killed in the battle of the Amere.
