

COOLIDGE WILL GIVE SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE

Nominee Expected to Follow Broadly at Least Party Platform

COOLIDGE HOME CALM

All Arrangements Complete For Notification Ceremonies

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 26.—Republican party leaders who constituted an advance guard of the host expected, had gathered tonight in preparation for the ceremonies to-morrow when Governor Calvin Coolidge will be notified of his nomination for vice president.

of Connecticut, several national committeemen and state leaders at conferences tonight completed arrangements for tomorrow.

To Follow Platform.

Speculation as to the character of Governor Coolidge's address was directed tonight toward the position he would take on the league of nations and the relative importance he would assign to his treatment of party policies to foreign affairs, as compared with domestic issues during reconstruction. It was taken for granted that he would follow, broadly at least, the party platform and Senator Harding's address.

The city, decorated with flags and bunting, with pictures of its candidate under the slogan "Law and Order" prominently displayed gave evidence of its intention to do its full part in its tribute to its citizen.

Air of Excitement Prevails.

The one place which did not reflect the general air of suppressed excitement was the Coolidge home. There the governor and Mrs. Coolidge quietly arranged for notification day, including preparations for a luncheon for the notification committee tomorrow. This afternoon John C. Coolidge, the governor's father, arrived from Plymouth, Vt. The program will open with a meeting of the notification committee at 12:30 o'clock, but the city will begin its celebration several hours earlier.

The notification exercise will be held at Allen Field, on the Smith College grounds at 3 o'clock. President (emeritus) L. Clark Seelye, of Smith college, will preside and the invocation will be delivered by Reverend K. B. Wells, pastor of the Edwards Congregational church which Governor Coolidge attends. Michael K. Fitzgerald, the democratic mayor of Northampton, who has just arisen from a sick bed, will deliver his address of welcome and Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky will deliver the notification address to which Governor Coolidge will reply.

Governor Mows Lawn

Governor Coolidge arose early today after his return last night from a vacation at Plymouth, Vt., and assisted Mrs. Coolidge in placing the lawn, which he rents for thirty-two dollars a month, in readiness for the luncheon. One of his first acts was to go out, coatless and collarless with suspenders over an old fashioned "boiled" shirt, and mow the lawn. Later he assisted Mrs. Coolidge in cooking doughnuts.

of those authorities of the state, county and city whose sworn duty it is to enforce the laws of the state of Oregon and the ordinances of the city of Salem against the lawlessness that has prevailed for several days openly and brazenly in our city, and

"Be it further Resolved, that we demand of such authorities a more faithful and efficient execution of their sworn duty in the future and pledge to them unqualified support in all proper efforts to enforce the laws fully and impartially, and warn them that should drunkenness, licentiousness and debauchery be again permitted within our city to such an extent, we will go to the limit of the law to restore order and protect people who are residents and guests of the city."

Foreclosure Suit Begun by Security State Bank

The Security State Bank of Woodburn has started proceedings for the foreclosure of a mortgage against the Woodburn Farmers' Produce company of the same city, according to a complaint filed at the county clerk's office yesterday afternoon.

The mortgage is for $4000, bearing 8 per cent interest and was issued by the produce company on December 18, 1919, to be repaid at the end of six months.

According to the complaint on file at the county clerk's office, the bank claims that the Woodburn Farmers' Produce company authorized a mortgage, giving several lots with improvements upon it, and security, and that to date the company has failed to pay even the interest that is due on the promissory note issued to the bank. The bank officials claim that the life of the note was for six months, beginning December 18, 1919, and is now past due, and the produce company has failed to pay, despite the requests of the bank.

R. E. Radcliffe and his wife, Verilinda Radcliffe, have stated that they own an interest in the property to the bank officials, and have expressed a desire to have their rights protected.

The complaint of the bank petitions the court to disregard the claims of Mr. Radcliffe, under the contention that the bank's right to settlement under the provisions of the mortgage is superior to any other claims of the property that may subsequently be presented. The complaint also asks for the payment in full of the promissory note for $4000 with interest, $240 for attorney's fees and the costs of the suit.

disgrace upon our fair city will believe this to be their haven of refuge and will return with others of their type during the Oregon state fair, but a few weeks away, and at other times, and repeat their drunken revelries, unless public opinion fearlessly demands a strict enforcement of the statutes in such cases made and provided and a relentless prosecution of all offenders to the full extent of the law.

Joint Hearing Arranged by Service Commissions

The public service commission announced yesterday that a joint meeting of the public service commissions of Oregon, Washington and Idaho will be held in Seattle August 9 on freight rates proposed by carriers on logs and cordwood. A uniformity in rates is desired, and it is said the proposed rate would increase the rate in Oregon.

SENATORS WIN AT McMINNVILLE

Biddy Bishop Pitches Brilliant Game Against Leaguer Harstad

The Salem Senators won their 16th victory Sunday when they defeated the McMinnville baseball team in a game played in that city by a score of 5 to 1. It was their second trip away from the home lot, as on the previous trip, the club returned triumphant.

For the second time this season the Senators hammered the offerings of the ex-leaguer, Pitcher Harstad, to all corners of the lot, and some out of the lot altogether. Several weeks ago, Harstad faced the local lads when in a Woodburn uniform. He was the mysterious "hole card" of the Woodburn Tigers, secured by them in a vain effort to register a win against the Senators. On that occasion, as on last Sunday, the locals fattened their batting averages on his offerings.

Biddy Bishop, the resourceful manager of the Senators, and who has retired from his managerial position, did the twirling act for Salem. He dished up an array of twisters that baffled the ball tossers of McMinnville, easing them down with two safe blows. Friends of the retired manager say that he was somewhat of a slabster while in the woolly wilds of Idaho years ago. He merely enacted a "come-back" stunt last Sunday.

Jack Hayes and Dick Cox were the leading sluggers who reeked the storied feats of Dick Merriwell. Jack poled out a homer, double and single on four trips to the plate, while his famed team-mate, Cox, secured to his credit a couple of doubles and a single.

Walter Kracke announced that a game is pending between the Herr-Griffiths team of Portland and the locals. The game is planned for the local lot. If plans are not blocked by some unforeseen event, it is probable that the Salem fans will be treated to a high class game in the near future. Kracke, it is said, is dickering to have the Portland Beavers stop off in Salem and contest against the local fans.

BROTHER OF TIL TAYLOR IS SHERIFF

derful officer. He was aggressive and one of the state's most popular officers because of his strict attention to duty.

Murray Praises Officer.

J. S. Murray, Bertillon expert at penitentiary: There is no question but that Til Taylor was the best police officer in the state. His ability was widely recognized as evidenced by the fact that whenever there was a vacancy in the wardenship of the penitentiary he was mentioned as a possibility for the place. He was quiet, but what he said counted. Prisoners thought well of him, and whenever he came to Salem always asked to see him for the privilege of saying "hello."

F. W. Snyder, marshal of Woodburn, with a trained man-hunting bloodhound, left last night for Pendleton to assist in the search for the slayers of Sheriff Taylor. This was at the request of Governor Olcott. The governor last night received a telegraphic request from Pendleton to send bloodhounds from the state penitentiary, but no dogs are now owned by the state. Mr. Snyder, who formerly was a state agent in the employ of the governor's office, owns one of the dogs formerly owned by J. F. Keller, when the latter was state parole officer.

Born On Howell Prairie.

PENDLETON, Or., July 26.—The funeral of the late Til Taylor, sheriff of Umatilla county, who was killed yesterday by a shot from an escaped prisoner's gun, will be held here tomorrow at 2 o'clock from the Episcopal church, with the Ekl and Masons in charge of the services.

Mr. Taylor was 54 years of age and was born at Howells Prairie, nine miles from Salem. Two years later he came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor, to Athena, Umatilla county. He attended school in Athena and Walla Walla and later went to business college in Portland.

In 1889 he married Miss Sadie Smith of Athena. He was at this time employed as a bookkeeper in Athena. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were the parents of one son, Sheldon Taylor of this city, 29 years of age. Mrs. Taylor died in 1896, and soon afterwards Mr. Taylor came here and was employed in a hardware store.

In 1898 he became deputy sheriff for William Blakeley and served until 1902, when he was elected sheriff. He has been sheriff continuously since that time. He was married in 1909, his wife being Miss Claire Nossou of Pendleton.

He is survived by his wife, the son by the former marriage, his mother, who is 79 years of age, and a brother, W. R. Taylor of Athena, who has been made sheriff since the death of his brother. There are many distant relatives. His father died a few months ago.

COMMITTEE CONTINUES HEARING ON JAP AFFAIR

He promised to supply the committee with copies of text books used in Japanese schools, Sunday schools and churches, at another hearing.

A feature of tonight's hearing was the testimony of several Japanese students, a number of whom had been born in the United States.

James Nakimota, 17, told the committee he was "proud to be an American" and that he "got along fine" as the only Japanese in his class at a high school here. Dorothea Okamura, 14, who was born in Omaha, Neb., and Mine Sakamoto, a teacher in the Americanization branch of the Young Women's Christian association had similar stories to-tell.

Six Destroyers Seize Oil After Price Contest

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—Six United States destroyers drew up at the loading plant of the Associated Oil company in this city today with orders to commandeer the plant and seize 150,000 gallons of the fuel oil for their own use following a contest over the price of the fuel between the navy and the company. It was reported that the demands of the navy were not resisted and that loading started immediately.

The navy was taking the oil at its own price of $1.72 a barrel, navy authorities announced. The oil company was notified that it may resort to the courts if it wishes to get its own price, which ranges around $2. The commanders of the destroyers were ordered to use all means within the power of the navy to secure the oil, and two of the war vessels which were in the van, berthed at the company's wharf. After a brief parley the company connected the vessels up with its tanks.

A WOMAN SMUGGLER

GENEVA, July 24.—Madame Bel-

la Hartmann, young widow of an Austrian officer has been sentenced at Lindsau to pay a fine of 50,000 marks and serve one month in jail for smuggling. It is said she authorities out of more than $2,000,000 by means of a small army of employes at Lake Constance who used six automobiles, three motorboats and other paraphernalia in their illicit business.
