Boy Shoulders Blame—Junior Beley, 320 South Fourteenth street, assumed all responsibility for his narrow escape yesterday noon, when his bicycle was demolished in a collision with a car driven by Paul Marnach in front of 540 State street. Mr. Marnach had left the curb preparatory to a drive on West State street, when young Beley emerged from the rear of a truck and ran headlong into the car driven by him. Mr. Marnach says he stopped before the boy crossed his path, preventing a more serious accident. Young Beley informed Mr. Marnach that he was responsible for the accident as he was not observing his course. The front wheel of the bicycle was smashed when run over by the car.

A Twilight Baby—The big four-part comedy at Ye Liberty today.

Mrs. Schroeder Sues—Mrs. Hermina Schroeder charges desertion as her cause for asking a divorce from Charles T. Schroeder, according to a complaint filed by her yesterday afternoon. She claims that her husband deserted her on April 23, 1919, without provocation or justifiable cause. Mrs. Schroeder claims her husband is able to earn $100 a month, and prays for $50 a month alimony, $50 as temporary suit money while the litigation is pending, $100 for suit money and a like sum for attorney's fees. The case is set for the fall term of court.
