

HARD BATTLE IN STORE FOR FANS

Sherwood Team of Portland to Meet Senators on Local Diamond Sunday

The Salem Senators, according to announcement from the camp of the new manager, Walter Kracke, have a hard battle on their hands in their coming game with the Sherwood team, who are the runners-up in the Portland city league.

The Sherwood team is not only one of the best teams in the Oregon metropolis and are qualified to display a high class article of ball, but they are coming to Salem to accomplish what the other teams have thus failed to do on the home lot—to register a win over the Senators. So far this season visiting teams have come to Salem confident in a victory over the local lads, but when they trotted out on the diamond lot on Oxford street they were convinced by the score board that "it can't be did." The Senator's superiority, invariably, chalked up a victory in their favor.

Kracke announced that Myers, who pitched a couple of rattling good games for the locals, will do the twirling act for the visiting team Sunday afternoon. Myers is a cool twirler, cunningly shooting his twisters over unexpected portions of the platter. In the games that he has performed for the Senators, opposing batters sang the doxology, hoping that they might secure a hit thereby.

Billy Stepp, who is the Portland scout of the Senators, has sent information regarding the activities of the enemy in the Rose City. He states that the club has good hitters and have the requisite strength to be a thorn in the forward march of the local team. It is his opinion that the Salem team will not find things their own way next Sunday.

Kracke is not disturbed by the advance "dope." He places "King" Cole above fear, and believes that with his rest of two weeks, he will be able to "mow 'em" down like timothy. The other members of the Senator team express their confidence for a victory Sunday when the two teams clash on the Oxford park grounds.

Dick Cox, who made history on the local diamond during the Elks convention games, will get play with the Senators Sunday afternoon, he having rejoined his team, the Portland Beavers. Blanchard will return to the Senator fold next Sunday and will play first base.

LAND BOUNDARY CAUSE OF SUIT

Defendants Protest on Ground They Are Legal Owners of Tract

A reply to the plaintiff's complaint was yesterday filed by the defendants against W. E. "Big" and Levina M. M. The case involves a dispute over the location of boundaries of lot 5 in block 1 River Park addition.

The defendants, according to their reply, aver that they have been residents and owners of the lot in question for the past 15 years. They claim that the lot described by the plaintiff is one and identical with the property which they own. All improvements on the lot were made by the defendant.

The dispute is over 12 1/2 feet of lot 5, in block 1 of the River Park addition, and this particular piece of ground, say the plaintiffs, belongs to them; and that the defendants, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mize, have unlawful possession of the premises. Certain improvements were admitted by the plaintiff to be made by them. The reply of the defendant, deny every allegation of the plaintiff. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin R. Perkins state that the 12 1/2 feet of ground in question, as described by the plaintiff, lies in lot 6, and as a matter of fact, is identical and the same, as the description given in lot 5.

DEMAND GROWS

and work on this system is under way. When the appropriation committee of the house of representatives recently visited central Oregon, an inspection was made of the big Ochoco dam which is now nearing completion. At one end, the big dam has reached its maximum height of 125 feet, and requires only a small additional amount of work to complete it throughout its entire length. About 20,000 acre feet of water has been stored in the Ochoco reservoir this season, and a large part of the 22,000 acres within the district has been irrigated this season.

HARDING FIRES FIRST VOLLEY IN CAMPAIGN

issues and still support that candidate, even if they differ on the tenth proposal. "Thus it becomes apparent Senator Walsh was not able to agree with Governor Cox's view on article ten. The only possible inference is that Governor Cox is maintaining the same attitude toward article ten that President Wilson has long maintained. Apparently, the governor has given assurances to the president that if elected he will stand by the president's program. Otherwise, the governor would have been able to give Senator Walsh assurances that would have saved the latter from the uncomfortable necessity of admitting they did not agree about article ten.

Progressivism Issue. "There is further evidence that the Democratic nominee is obligated to stand by the foreign policy of the administration. Mr. White, the new chairman of the Democratic committee, was interviewed in Washington yesterday and said 'progressivism is to be the paramount issue of the campaign. And later he added 'progressivism necessarily carries with it the league of nations' and he indicated very plainly that the Democrats intend to attempt forcing other issues to the front to keep the public mind away from the fact that their candidate has given his pledge to support the Wilson policy toward the treaty and league.

"It is perfectly understandable that the Democratic campaign manager should desire to have the whole sorry business of Democratic foreign policies forgotten. But the country will not forget. The more the Democrats attempt to get away from this question, the more insistent the country will be to know what they intend to do if they are entrusted with the administration. It is as plain that 'accord' could not have been established by the president and the Democratic candidate except on condition that the latter assume all liabilities of the president's program.

Camouflage is Exposed. "No matter how it may be camouflaged, it is more obvious every day that if the Democrats should win, their effort would be to compel ratification of the league covenant without essential modifications. Senator Walsh's statement makes this perfectly plain. He admitted himself in disagreement with Governor Cox immediately after a long talk with the governor. Senator Walsh has heretofore been just as ardently opposed to article ten as any of us. But for the sake of Democratic harmony he is now apparently willing to forget about it, and try to induce the country to forget about it by pushing other issues to the front.

"In connection with Chairman White's statement that 'progressivism is to be the paramount issue of the campaign.' I note that Mr. White announced that the Democratic committee will not restrict itself to $1000 contributions as announced by the Republicans and that he said any such restriction was unbecome. I have misgivings as to whether our country will agree with Mr. White. At any rate, it will be regarded as a queer sort of progressivism, this poking of fun at a sincere effort to limit the amount of campaign contributions.

"The Republican management has undertaken in all good faith to raise a truly popular campaign fund. It is believed this will be accomplished, and if so, it will be a most notable advance in political management. It is true that with the number of voters substantially doubled by reason of woman suffrage, and with the great increase in expense of campaigning, a good deal of money will be required to carry an effective appeal to the people. Nevertheless, the Republicans have undertaken to raise the money in small amounts by popular subscription. They hope to succeed.

Reform is Promised. "The Democrats flout any such suggestion and at the very outset of the campaign proclaim that they have no intention of attempting such a reform. They will discover before election day that the country is not prepared to approve their program of unlimited campaign funds. Undoubtedly it is quite true that certain powerful international interests deeply concerned in carrying out the administration's foreign policy are prepared to contribute most liberally to the Democratic funds. Undoubtedly it is true, too, that without such contributions the Democrats would find it difficult to raise the funds they need. Popular campaign funds are not easily raised for unpopular causes, and the effort for hitch America to the present administration's program constitutes anything but a popular cause."

COAL TO REPLACE OIL

ASHLAND, Or., July 30.—Coal is to replace oil as fuel for heating the Ashland high school this winter. The local school board was unable to secure oil and decided to have coal furnaces installed.

CAMP FORSAKEN BY CAMPERS

Quiet Last Night Because Many Attend Concert in Willson Park

The Salem automobile camping grounds was deserted last night. The exodus of campers took place about 8 o'clock in the evening for Willson park to attend the band concert rendered by the Salem band, and to see the illuminated fountain at play. The camp last night was quiet soon after the band music was heard in the park, having left soon after T. G. Albert, superintendent of the grounds, had informed them of Salem's band.

Mrs. G. W. P. Thompson returned yesterday from Washington, Kansas, where she had gone about four weeks ago. Mr. Thompson, several weeks ago, purchased the Horner farm on the Jefferson road after investigating several communities in Oregon with a view to purchasing a farm. Mrs. Thompson returned to Washington, Kan., soon after the Horner farm had been purchased, and upon her return informed Mr. Albert that Salem felt more like home to her upon her return. According to Mr. Albert, she would rather live in Salem than Kansas.

Fifty-five camps were pitched at the grounds last night and among those registered are: Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Giles, Myrtle Point, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Jellison, Hollywood, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Edmonson, Medford; O. P. Durnby and Frank Roh, Hanford, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Daggett, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Winchell, Twin Falls, Ida.; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Conklin, Mankato, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Smith, Springfield, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Becker, Weisner, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Less, Norfolk, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Christ, Everett, Wash.; Spangler Bros., Bakerfield, Cal.; L. E. Chas, Portland; A. L. Magrick, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Fox, Benedict, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tuttle, San Pedro, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Clark, Seattle; E. P. Harris, Portland.

MOTHER UNABLE TO KEEP CHILD

County Judge Honors Request for Guardian—Parent III and Without Funds

Inability to care for her two weeks old son, Patrick Scott, because of feeble health, Mrs. Hubert Scott yesterday petitioned the county court to appoint a guardian for her minor son. In her petition she suggested the name of Mrs. John Lutsivick as a suitable person to serve in that capacity. The court honored her petition. Judge W. M. Pashey signed the order making Mrs. Lutsivick guardian of the two-weeks-old Patrick Scott.

Mrs. Hubert Scott stated in her petition that her husband Hubert Scott abandoned her and the baby, and despite her infirmity of health, he has refused to provide for her, or for the two-weeks-old baby boy.
