FRAUD CHARGED IN LOCAL COURT

F. O. Harold Would Recover Equity in Property Valued at About $20,000

Charging fraud and wilful intent to deprive him of his rights to his property consisting of 80 acres, was the basis of a complaint filed yesterday by F. O. Harold against Christina M. Harold, Alex Harold, Anna Harold and Cornelia T. Weiler. The 80-acre farm is valued at $20,000 by the plaintiff in the suit.

The complaint states that on April 16, 1892, John Harold and his wife Mary Harold deeded the property to the plaintiff, F. O. Harold, and that he has been the sole owner of that property since that date.

Mr. Harold stated in his complaint that sometime before August 1893, he became ill which incapacitated him from further work on his farm. He therefore, for three years permitted Christina Harold and Alex Harold to have full charge of his business affairs while in his debilitated condition. The property was taken care of by the defendants for a period of three years, or until 1896.

In 1896, the plaintiff, F. O. Harold was committed to the Oregon state hospital, as admitted by him in his complaint. He stated that he was in the Oregon state hospital until 1905 when he was discharged, but he alleges in his complaint that he was recommitted again at the instance of the defendants until 1909. When he was discharged from the hospital in 1909, the plaintiff, F. O. Harold, avers, he secured his freedom on a parole for a year, at the expiration of which time he was permanently discharged and that he has been out of the hospital since 1910 working on his farm.

Mr. Harold stated in his complaint that in August, 1893, the defendant, Christina Harold, caused him to execute an instrument for "bargain, sale and quit-claim" deed when he was mentally deficient, caused by his ailment. He claims that the deed was executed for no consideration whatsoever when he was not in his right mind. He charges that the deed was executed as a fraud upon his rights.

The plaintiff alleges in his plea, filed at the county clerk's office that the defendants did not notify him of the deed which he had executed while in his mental infirmity until in April 1820 when he discovered the fact after examining an abstract of his property. Mr. Harold states the fraudulent deed is the only cloud marring the title to his property.

Mr. Harold charges the defendants with studiously avoiding to make claim to the ownership of the 80-acre farm while in his presence. He also charges further concealance by stating that 40 acres of the farm was deeded to Alex Harold, and that subsequently Alex Harold instituted a suit to clear title to the half which he had received from Christina, Harold, and that suit was instituted property cleared, and to regain title to the 40-acre tract which was, he claims, unlawfully deeded to Alex Harold by Christina Harold, and also the sum of $4000 for the 40-acre tract owned by Alex Harold. The case will be heard during the fall term of court.

More Hood River Apples Sold Abroad Than Here

HOOD RIVER, Or., July 29.—More Hood River apples will be exported than sold in the domestic market this year, in the opinion of the Hood River agent of a London fruit company. The Hood River apple crop, he says, is only about 25 per cent of normal, which condition will force the export market to high levels.
