Handcuffs Found—The sheriff's office yesterday investigated a report that reached here to the effect that a strange man in handcuffs stopped at a farmhouse near Turner Friday night and had his manacles filed off. The information was telephoned to the state penitentiary. There had been no escape from the prison, however, and the information was turned over to the sheriff. If the report is true the officers are inclined to believe the man had escaped from an officer on a train.

Girls Wanted—At The Spa.

Wallace for a marriage license yesterday have no fears of the ill luck that is said by some people to brood over 13, and especially on Fridays that fall on the 13th day of the month. Those who dared to launch the matrimonial craft were James G. Kane, Capital hotel, Salem, and Lora Geer, Salem, and Meryl William Smith of Mill City and Ruth Marion Jones of Salem.
