Cancellation Sought—

Alleging that his signature was affixed to a mortgage obtained through false and fraudulent misrepresentation, D. W. Bushnell has filed suit against J. W. McFarlane. Mr. Bushnell alleges that the defendant obtained the mortgage to his property on July 20, consisting of lots 5 and 6 in block 10 of Capitol Park addition, in the sum of $1200. He claims that Mr. McFarlane induced him to consent to the mortgage when he intimated to him that he would be sent to an insane asylum by his relatives if he did not give the mortgage. The plaintiff prays for cancellation of the mortgage, and costs and disbursements incurred in the suit.

Internal Irrigation—

One firm of grocers in Salem, J. L. Busick & Sons, sold 55,000 pounds of watermelons from Thursday afternoon to Saturday evening of the past week. That means about three pounds of melon for every man, woman and child in the city and the record is from only one of the several big grocery stores, so it can be seen that the heat wave that visited here during those days served as a strong stimulant to one line of business at least.

Band Member Lost—

Richard Riley, a member of the Salem band was lost for several hours Sunday in the woods near Mehama. He started on a fishing excursion early Sunday morning with Charles Pabst and Ike Southwick and lost his way after becoming separated from them. He was found by a searching party.

REOPENING OF HOSPITAL

Is Delayed One Week

Contrary to a previous announcement, the Salem hospital will not be ready to resume operations until Monday, August 23. It had been planned to begin work yesterday.

Miss Gladys W. Steele, the new superintendent, has taken charge of the McKinley school building where the hospital is to be located for another year and is re-arranging the building for hospital purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Edwards have returned from a motor trip to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Robertson of Lawton, Okla., left Sunday night for Seattle after spending several days with Mr. Robertson's uncle, J. P. Robertson and with his cousin, Mrs. Mildred Robertson Brooks.

A. C. Graham of Iowa has purchased a home in Salem. He was motoring through this section when he became enamored of Salem.

Mrs. Dr. Iley D. Hanson is here from Medford to visit her son, R. D. Hanson at the Marion hotel.

W. C. Franklin and son Lockwood left Sunday for Oakland, Cal., to attend the funeral of a brother of Mr. Franklin.

Miss Bernice Craig returned Monday from Medford where she visited Miss Helen Houghton.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Lewis, 1525 State street, are enjoying a visit from their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Lewis of Seattle.

Mrs. O. Monson of Newberg visited her daughter, Miss Olga Monson, Sunday.

Phil Edminster, a traveling salesman, was a guest of William Gahlsdorf at the Commercial club luncheon yesterday.

Frank Kirby of St. Joseph, Mo., and M. L. Wilborn, an attorney of Chicago, were guests of A. C. Bohmstedt at the Commercial club luncheon yesterday.

Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, has returned from a vacation trip to the coast.

James Ward, elevator operator at the supreme court building, is back at his post after a vacation of two weeks.

State Senator J. C. Smith of Grants Pass, his daughter, Miss Josephine Smith, her friend, Miss Yvonne Smith, were in Salem yesterday. The senator visited his brother, Dr. J. N. Smith. The party is motoring through the valley.

Attorney and Mrs. Ronald C. Glover, left Sunday for a two weeks vacation at Cascadia.

Moffitt Lectures Boys and Makes Them Go Home

Verden Moffitt lectures Sunday. Aside from curbing youth-bred Oldfields, who race at 35 miles per on State street, between Nineteenth and Twenty-fifth streets, Moffitt finds time to lecture on Sundays, according to a report filed at police headquarters.

Mrs. C. M. Pickens, 1663 North Fourth street, reported to the police Sunday that her three children were fighting with her neighbor's children. She wanted an officer.

Whereupon the desk sergeant dispatched Moffitt to investigate the combat between the youngsters in the neighborhood of Mrs. Pickens. Upon the arrival of the officer on the scene of the battle he discovered the youngsters wrangling and hurling epithets at one another. According to the report on file at the station, Moffitt lectured to the youngsters, restored order and sent them home.
