O. P. Hoff, state treasurer, yeserday received a letter from the Union Oil company of California. through V. H. Kelley of Portland, district sales manager, urging that he proceed with the investigation into the increased cost of gasoline which Mr. Hoff said some time ago would be made.

The letter refers to the confer ence which took place recently between the trasurr and representatives of the Oregon Automobile Dealers association, in which the dealers discouraged an investigation, and since which Mr. Hoff appears to have been in doubt as to whether he would probe into the question.

elative to Mr. Hoff's statement some time ago that he would make an investigation the letter rereceived from the Union Oil company says: We wish to endorse your intention in this matter as the causes for the recent advance should be made plain to the public, and the communities which we serve are entitled to equal consideration with ourselves in understanding the necessity for the advanced nrice. The neople who are naying the bills have a right to ask through their official representatives for an official explanation of the advances that are made in the costs of essentials, and it is our request that the public be informed of the result of your investigation."
