

SOCIETY

By La Von Coppock

THE month of August as usual marks the influx of people to the beaches, but this week the resulting monotony was relieved by the formal dance given by Theta Delta and Theta Mu of Delta Delta Delta last night at the O'Connell hall. To entertain the members of the younger set who are to leave soon to enter the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college.

Wild flowers in shades of yellow, blue and white to carry out the colors of the fraternity, which are silver, gold and blue, were arranged in hanging baskets and tall wicker floor baskets for decorations.

The guest list included Misses Maud McCoy, Miriam Schwartz, Amelia Babcock, Edna Ackerman, Letha Driscoll, Lucille Jones, Dorothy Patterson, Martha Powell, Helen Rose, Catherine Slade, Jennette Meredith, Letha Wilson, Gretchen Brown, Mildred Gill, Alice McClellan, Margaret Griffith and Messrs George Weller, Dr. Grife, Claude Steustoff, William McKay, Paul Farrington, Wallace Carson, Frank Chapman, Hugh Latham, Mark Latham, George

Geonnard, Lyle Bartholomew, Elvin Lantz, Archie Holt, Frederick Deckebach, Frank Deckebach, Theron Hoover, Leon Culbertson, Breyman Boise, Eugene Gill, Amory Gill, Armin Berger, Frank Rosebraugh, Lester Wellington, George Croisan, George King, Stanley Lalson, John Holden of Portland, Dewey Rand of Portland, Leo Spitzbart and Fred Mansis.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Neill, Dr. and Mrs. Chester A. Downs and Mr. and Mrs. Millard McGilchrist were patrons and patronesses. The members of Theta Delta and Theta Mu who are entertaining are Misses Helen King, Doris Churchill, Tora Anne Mortenson, Lucy Leonard, Hazel Downing, Mary Elizabeth Payne, Esther Bush, Ethel McGilchrist, Hazel McGilchrist, Dorothy Graham, of Port-Murial Bater of Portland, and Mrs. John Crews of Columbia, S. C.

Marigolds artistically arranged in a low Indian grass basket made a truly unique and pleasing centerpiece at a small luncheon given Thursday by Mrs. Perry Brown for her niece, Miss Amy Brown, who is her guest for a brief visit. Following the luncheon, five hundred was enjoyed by the guests who numbered 12.

To spend the week-end and attend the formal dance given by the U. of O. and O. A. C. chapters of Delta Delta Delta, Miss Tora Anne Mortenson of Portland, Miss Irene Barrett of Albany and Mrs. John Crews of Columbia, S. C., are guests at the J. A. Churchill residence.

"Carlton McFadden, a former student of the University of Oregon, from Junction City, Or., who left school two years ago to accept an appointment to the United States military academy at West Point, has received a commission in the regular army as second lieutenant and is now awaiting a call to duty."

Lieutenant McFadden, referred to in the above news item, is visiting Salem, a guest at the home of his aunt, Mrs. J. P. Frizzell. Lieutenant McFadden is a son of J. A. McFadden of Junction City.

Guests at the P. J. Chapman home are Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Maras of Alameda, Cal., who are spending the week-end in Salem while en route by motor to Yellowstone and Glacier national parks.

The Woman's Republican Study club will meet in the matron's room of the city hall Monday afternoon at 2:30. The club is taking up the proposed amendments to the state constitution. This meeting will be of unusual interest because of a well known woman who will discuss a question of considerable importance. Her name is not yet ready for announcement.

Mrs. Mildred Wagness and daughters, Miss Mildred and Miss Dorothy, will leave tomorrow for a sojourn at Newport. They expect to return about September 12. Miss Mildred will attend St. Mary's academy in Portland this winter.

Miss Eleanor Davis returned the first of the week from a vacation spent with relatives in the east.

In honor of the seventh birthday of little Miss Marjorie Webb, the following children enjoyed a fine party at the theater and refreshments later at the Spa Saturday afternoon: Katherine Sheldon, Maxine Meyers, Marjorie Webb, Eleanor Rauche, Mary Todd, Marguerite Todd and Master Wayne Sheldon.

Chauncey Bishop and son Robert of Pendleton, who have been touring Yellowstone and Glacier national parks, are spending the week-end with Mr. Bishop's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop of this city. Clarence Bishop of Portland will also be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bishop.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Goodwin have as their guests for the week end Mrs. Goodwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. C. Connor of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Kimball of this city will leave Tuesday for an extended visit throughout the eastern states, including their old home in Ohio.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Ellis returned yesterday from a week at Cascadea.

Prof. Della Crowder-Miller, whose work as instructor in Willamette university needs no comment, has gone to Chicago to take up lyceum work. Professor Miller resigned her position at the university early in the spring, her son, Orville Crowder-Miller being elected her successor.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Graber and two children returned Saturday from Pacific City.

Misses Olga Gray, Marie Breitenstein, Clara Breitenstein and Irene Curtis left yesterday to enjoy a fortnight's vacation at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Webb with their children will leave today for a fortnight's outing at Seaside.

Miss Myrtle Whitney is spending the week-end with friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Smith returned from a fortnight's outing at Newport yesterday. On their way home they stopped at Lebanon to attend the wedding of Mrs. Smith's brother, Ralph H. Reeves, to Miss Katherine Kirkpatrick. Both Mr. and Mrs. Reeves have many friends in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kohler and daughters Margaret and Katherine of Boulder, Cal., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Marr at the latter's home on West Miller street.

Miss Esther Garbe of Harrisburg, who has been attending summer school at Monmouth and who will be a student of Monmouth normal school during the winter, is in the city for the week end as the guest of friends.

Miss Margaret Stolz was hostess for a line party at the theater followed by a luncheon at her home Friday when she entertained in honor of Miss Marie Schuderman, who is to leave soon for Portland, and Miss Pauline Dick, who is visiting here.

Golden rods was used to decorate the rooms Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. E. C. Cross and Mrs. Frank Spears entertained at the latter's home in honor of their house guests, Miss Dorothy and Miss Pauline Dick. About 15 girls who were friends of the Misses Dick when they lived in Salem, were present.

A group of Salem high school alumni enjoyed a picnic Friday at the country home of Miss Henrietta Wolfer, near Hubbard. Those present were Misses Letha Waters, Henrietta Wolfer, Lulu Thompkins, Katie Mize, Anna Miles, Ella Book, Gladys Jory, Gerty Capps, Ruth Weaver, Lois Fins of Hubbard, and Laura Garnjost.

Miss Margaret Goodin was hostess for an informal evening of music and dancing early in the week when she entertained in honor of Miss Eleanor Coleman of Eugene. Those who enjoyed the evening were Misses Eleanor Coleman, Jeanette Meredith, Frieda Campbell, Margaret Griffith, Jessie Thompson, Cleo Thompson, Helen Rose, Edna Magers, Eva Randall, Helen Lovell, Mildred Gill, Valeria Briggs, Marie Briggs, Ila Gilbert, Margaret Legg, Ruth Spoor, Miriam Schwartz and Margaret Goodin.

To spend the week-end and attend the formal dance given by the U. of O. and O. A. C. chapters of Delta Delta Delta, Miss Murial Bater, Miss Dorothy Graham and Mildred Whitney of Portland are guests of Miss Lacy Leonard at the C. A. Johns residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Muller and children of Kenewick, Wash., who have been house guests for the past week of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lillelund and daughter Matilda Lillelund, left for their home yesterday. Mr. Muller is an undertaker at Kenewick.

Following an informal dinner at the J. E. Hayes home Thursday, a party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Adams, Miss Nellie James, Claude Adams and Ernest Paulson motored to Spong's landing for a moonlight swim, returning to the Littman home later for dancing and a midnight supper.

W. L. Batchelor, or Billy, as he is familiarly known, left for his home in New York city Wednesday.

Mr. Batchelor, who is a brother of Mrs. C. M. Inman, has been visiting friends and relatives in the city for a few weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Crothers and son Gene, returned Friday from Newport. They motored over about ten days ago.

"Oreminwa," the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Reuf, was the scene of a supper party Thursday evening when a group of out-of-town people were entertained. Soft hued ruanias decorated the rooms, and yellow French marigolds centered the table, about which were seated Mr. and Mrs. Chester Whitney and small daughter Marian, of Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weldon and son Kenneth, of Portland, and the host and hostess, Mr. Whitney, who is a brother of Mrs. Weldon, a frequent visitor in Salem, is on an extensive tour of the west with his family. From Salem the Whitneys expect to go to Lake Hansa, a famous resort in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Drager, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McElvain, Miss Marian Drager and Glenn Drager motored to Neskowin Friday to join the camping party of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mishler, with whom they will return to Salem.

Miss Margaret Cosper is the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Boise at Ellendale.

Miss Susan Forde of Salt Lake City has arrived in Salem until the University of Oregon opens as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lucas have as their guests Mr. Lucas' sister, Mrs. E. Chapman and her daughter, of Lewiston, Idaho. They will remain about a week.

About 20 young people, including the J. W. Dent's, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barnaby and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Heming motored to Spong's landing Friday to enjoy an evening swim and a corn roast.

Miss Evelyn Payne and her brother, Copperly Payne of Portland, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barnaby. Monday Messrs. Payne, Barnaby, G. P. Randolph, George Crandall, E. C. Heming and J. W. Dent will motor up the McKenzie to fish.

Mrs. D. G. Verrick entertained in honor of her sister-in-law, Miss Eleanor Verrick of Prineville Friday at her home on North Twelfth street. Garden flowers were arranged about the rooms where about two dozen girls called to meet Miss Verrick, who will leave Monday to motor to Seaview, stopping over a few days to visit with her sister, Mrs. E. N. Blaine of Portland.

Mrs. H. G. Pilkington and her little son Billy, have returned from Boise, Idaho, where they were the guests of Mrs. Pilkington's sister, Mrs. G. T. Sweetland. On their return trip they stopped off a few days in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Teeters of Red Bluff, Cal., were yesterday at the T. E. Thompsons' Mr. and Mrs. Teeters are motoring through Oregon and Washington, their destination being Spokane. They expect to visit Yellowstone park before returning to their home.

James Young, accompanied by his guest, Rev. Dr. Hall of Danville, Ky., left recently for Alaska for a brief sojourn.

Floyd J. Johnson of Centralia, Wash., is a guest at the S. T. Kennedy home. The Kennedys and their guest leave the first of the week for a fortnight at Cannon beach.

Perry H. Keith, the small son of Clyde Keith of Seattle, is spending a few days in Salem as the guest of little Frederick Larkins, at the Frederick Larkins home on High street.

Miss Doris Sikes of Springfield, University of Oregon student, visited friends in Salem Friday and Saturday. Prior to coming to Salem she was a guest of Miss Lucile Saunders of Portland, a member of the Oregonian staff. Miss Sikes formerly attended Willamette university and for a time was a member of The Statesman news staff. She is now taking a course in the department of journalism at the state university. Miss Sikes is among the best women journalists of the state.

Miss Jessie U. Cox, who has been enjoying a brief vacation with her mother, Mrs. A. W. Cox, will leave for Seattle today to resume her work with the American Red Cross. Miss Cox, who was formerly a popular instructor in the Salem high school, will stop in Portland for a brief visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hurst and their small daughters, Maud and Louise, and son Frederick, are enjoying a fortnight's outing at Neskowin.

Mrs. J. A. Blackwood of 166 North Twenty-first street will leave this afternoon for St. Paul and Duluth, Minn., on a month's visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Welch and their daughter Pauline, accompanied by Mrs. Welch's mother, Mrs. H. M. Wintermute of Newport, left yesterday to enjoy a motor trip into Canada.

Frank K. DeWitte recently returned from a fortnight's vacation in Seattle and Victoria. B. C. While in Seattle he was guest at the home of his uncle, Dr. Elmer D. Lyon.

Mrs. R. Dickinson of Los Angeles, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Miles for several days, will leave for Chicago the latter part of the week to visit her son, Raymond Dickinson. Before she goes, however, she will go to Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Miles to be the guest of the latter's daughter, Mrs. William Knight. While there they will motor up the Columbia. Mrs.

Miles and Mrs. Dickinson are old friends.

Prof. and Mrs. J. J. Kraps have gone to Long Beach, Cal., to visit their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Kraps, expecting to return to Salem about the middle of September.

Mrs. T. D. Coe and Miss Madeline Plome, who have been the guests of Mrs. H. S. Poisal, left for Chicago Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Miles and their guest, Miss Laura Grant, have returned from a fortnight's outing at Newport.

Miss Lucille De Witte, who has been enjoying a vacation at her home on Oak street, returned to Portland yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Looney are spending the week-end in Portland. They motored down, stopping for a few hours in Salem en route.

Wednesday evening a party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. William Knight, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Miles and their houseguest, Mrs. R. Dickinson, motored to Spong's landing for a picnic, after which Mr. and Mrs. Knight returned to their home in Portland.

Mrs. Charles Ohling (Margaret Poisal) is in Salem for a short time with her two children, Margaret Lucille and Robert, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Poisal.

For an afternoon of social chat and needlework, Mrs. Theodore Safaer asked a score of matrons to her Capitol street home Friday afternoon. The rooms were a symphony in gold and blue, marigolds and delphinium predominating. Late in the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Perry Brown, served a dainty tea.

For a week's sojourn in the cool recesses of the mountains, a party composed of Mr. and Mrs. James Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pettit, Miss Sylvia Pettit and Warren Day left late yesterday to motor to Cascadea. They will be joined on Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Danison, Miss Mabel Davidson and Jack Adams.

Miss Margaret Evans left Thursday for an extended visit in the east. Miss Evans will spend a few weeks with friends in Boise, her former home, and will stop at Billings and Great Falls, Mont., while en route to Rochester, N. Y., where she has accepted a position as stenographer with the law firm of Millarn, Millarn & Brookes.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Albert Loughridge at her home on Court street. Dr. and Mrs. Loughridge brought home from India many things illustrating the life of the Hindoos, their dress, food, religion and customs. These were exhibited and explained and at the close of the afternoon riot and carry were served.

(Continued on Page 2.)

THE NU BONE CORSET
company uses the Only woven wire in existence. We do not use paper covered galvanized tin for boning. Don't pay the profiteers' exorbitant prices for cheap goods. Silk and fibre hosiery for this week only, $1.75; were $2.25 to $2.50—Black, white, brown. We carry "Tonsito" the perfect hair remover.

A. E. LYONS
Nu Bone Corset Parlor
429 Court St. Phone 958

New Stamped Goods
for Holiday Embroideries. New Novelties for the children

Needlecraft Shop
C. E. Warner
429 Court Street Phone 958

SALEM CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC
1237 Court Street Phone 626

Voice, Piano, Pipe Organ, Harmony, Conducting, Violin, Viola, Cello, String-Bass, Wood, Wind and Brass Instruments, Mandolin, Guitar, Banjo, Saxophone. Complete Course for Grand Opera. Free Sight-Reading Class for all enrolled students. Six most efficient teachers.

DIPLOMAS GRANTED
Phone or write for information to JOHN R. SITES, Director.

Wear Rolaset Corsets
and experience real physical comfort and improved figure lines in these perfected front lace corsets! There is a "right" model for every type of figure

RENSKA L. SWART
CORSET SPECIALIST
115 Liberty St.

Advance Fall Styles in Coats and Suits
Ready for your inspection

It is our constant aim to make the ready-to-wear section of this store one of real service, where price is consistent with quality and where your dollars will do full duty. You must be satisfied or we are not. This is the policy of our store.

Suits

Velour, tricotine, peach bloom, chiffon, broadcloth, oxford grey and gold tip. Prices arranged from

$39.50 to $125

Ladies' Store
466-74 State St.

Coats

Velour and Broadcloth from $25.00 to $75.00
Plush.....$42.00 and up

Men's Store
416 State St.

Kasowy Bros
THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE

Popular Priced MILLINERY

The downward tendency of millinery prices has enabled us to embody in our stock a line of popular priced hats without sacrificing either style or quality of material.

These hats range in price from $5.00 up. Many of the models are products of our own workrooms and are duplicates of models costing much more.

We also have the exclusive agency for the "Me a d o w b r o o k" and "Biltmore" lines, also the Knox and Rawak. See our Display Window

THE FRENCH SHOP
M. Buffe Morrison
115 North High Street
Masonic Temple

New Fall Styles

Never have the Fall styles in feminine apparel been as charming and universally becoming as they are this season. Dresses are youthfully short and full coats are stunning in line and shade; blouses are new in line and finishing; underlings are daintily sheer and lacy. In fact the full styles were created to add to feminine beauty and attractiveness and you will find the most advanced models at this store. And just a word about the prices. In spite of summer and spring predictions, we have been most fortunate in buying our fall stocks. Aided by our new plan of "Pay As You Go" we have been able to hold down our prices and we invite you to an inspection of our fall fashions assuring you that you will find the prices we ask to be most reasonable.

H. G. Shipley Co.
Outfit yourself for fall by our Pay As You Go Plan