Cannot Praise this Remedy too Highly

THE WAY ONE LADY FEELS AFTER SUFFERING TWO YEARS

Judging from her letter, the misery and wretchedness endured by Mrs. Charlie Taylor, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 144, Dillon, S. C., must have been terrible. My weight now is one hundred and fifty. I cannot praise PE-RU-NA too highly, for it was a Godsend to me. I got relief from the first half bottle and twelve bottles cured me. I advise all sufferers to take PE-RU-NA."

As an emergency remedy in the home, there is nothing quite the equal of this reliable, time-tried medicine, PE-RU-NA. Thousands place their sole dependence on it for coughs, colds, stomach and bowel trouble, constipation, rheumatism, pains in the back, side and loins and to prevent the grip and Spanish Flu. To keep the blood pure and maintain bodily strength and robustness, take PE-RU-NA. You can buy PE-RU-NA anywhere in either tablet or liquid

PROSPECT GOOD FOR FOOTBALL AT WILLAMETTE

Coch Mathews Sends Word Ahead That Practice Will Begin Early

VETERANS RETURNING Second String Men Available and New Material Recruited for Squad

With the advent of brisk autumn days, football gossip begins, and with each day the babble becomes more audible in regard to the prospects of various gridiron teams for the coming season.

Willamette university claims to have prospects for one of the best teams in its history. Willamette's claim for a good team for the coming season is based on the certain return of most of last year's squad, assurances of enrollment of good new material and of the return of Coach R. L. Mathews for his sixth season as mentor of the Bearcats.

Coach Mathews, according to present indications, will have a veteran team for the coming fall. He has lost only four players of last year's team and second string men are available to fill the gaps left by the men who are not to return this fall.

Mathews Sends Word.

Coach Mathews gave out the information recently that he would arrive in Salem on September 10, and on that date he says rudimentary training will commence for the aspiring Bearcats. He is at present engaged in construction work in Walla Walla.

There is a wealth of material for backfield positions on the Bearcat grid machine. During the last three seasons there has been a dearth of backfield material which placed the Willamette eleven under considerable handicap, but apparently this season the Methodist institution will have the best of backfields.

Zeller, "Russ" Rarey, "Tuffy" Irvine, Ganzans, Paul Sherwood, Ralph Barnes, Kenneth Powers, Wapato and Rein Jackson compose the list who will contest for positions on the Bearcat backfield. "Phat" Zeller easily proved himself a star, backfield man and open field runner last season. He scored a majority of the touchdowns made by the local grid eleven through sensational squirming long runs. Against the heavy and experienced Multnomah Athletic club team last fall he scored a touchdown after a 60-yard run and shaking loose several tacklers. His other touchdowns were obtained in similar manner. Much is expected of Zeller this fall.

Jackson Has Speed.

"Russ" Rarey, captain-elect, and Wapato are four year men on the Bearcat squad. Rein Jackson, although he has not played a full season for Coach Mathews, is expected to crowd the other aspirants to the last notch. He lacks experience, but his speed may serve him in good stead. Sherwood, Barnes, Ganzans and Powers composed the second string backfields of last year, and are expected to be good material for this year's team.

Harold Tobey of Greenacres, Wash., is the only lineman who will not return this fall, according to the information. He played left tackle, and it is likely that Bill Lawson, who is better known among Willamette students as the "Terrible Swede" from Blanchard, Wash., will play in Tobey's position. Last year was his first year with the Bearcats, and his experience of last season promises to make him one of Mathews's best bets among the linemen for a tackle position. He is a rare weights 180 pounds. The other linemen, it is said, will return this fall. Among them are Loren Basler, veteran center; Lester Day, guard; Ramsey, guard; Jacob Nickel, guard; David Lawson, guard; Rodney Alden, guard; Ray Schmale, end; Oscar Payne, end; Howard George, tackle; Vernol Zeller, end, and Caton, tackle.

Ticket Plan Announced.
