

COX POINTS OUT 8 STANDS MADE BY OPPONENT

Says Senator's League Program Changes Constantly

WANTS FINAL DECISION

Suggests That Harding Referee a Johnson-Taft Debate

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Sept. 8.—A new assault upon the international policies of Senator Harding, Republican presidential candidate, was made here tonight by Governor Cox of Ohio, his Democratic opponent, in the latter's Montana campaign. Governor Cox declared Senator Harding had taken eight different positions.

At a public gathering here tonight, ending a day of rear platform campaigning across northern Montana, the governor demanded a definite statement from Senator Harding and suggested that the Republican candidates referee a league of nations debate between Senator Johnson of California and former President Taft.

"The campaign, even though we are more or less in the preliminaries," said Governor Cox, "has reached a stage when we should take count of the situation. It would seem fitting to direct the nation's thought to these outstanding things: The changing, vacillating, inconsistent attitude on emotional questions of the senatorial candidate for the presidency.

"7—Speech of September 6th the league has now passed beyond the possibility of restoration."

"8—Same speech September 6th amendment or revision or reconstruction of the league covenant is still among the possibilities."

Epicure Scores London Restaurant Cooking

LONDON, Sept. 8.—A reporter for a London newspaper who considers himself an epicure, has just finished an extensive study of London restaurants and arrived at the conclusion that English restaurant cooking has degenerated to an extent almost unbelievable.

He complained that he could not find a good, old-fashioned English steak, that a juicy mutton chop with a piece of kidney attached was difficult to obtain; that the pastry of the meat pies the Englishman loves so well no longer is light and fluffy, and that the omnipresent jellies now lack their old-time taste.

The famous Soho eating places, too, have lost much of their old-time charm. Sober says one writer: "Is that district famous for its league of smells, for its children-sloe-eyed swarthy bambinos, its lithe shawled Madonnas and its little restaurants?" It is the Latin quarter of London.

Wisconsin Leads in Number of Uniform Laws

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Wisconsin leads the states in the number of uniform acts that it has adopted as put forth by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, according to a summary by E. A. Gilmore of Madison, Wis., secretary of the conference.

Of 30 uniform acts submitted by the commissioners, Wisconsin has adopted 21. Massachusetts stands next with 12.

Wisconsin is also the first state to enact all the legislation relative to marriage and divorce, drawn by the commissioners. The uniform law which has been most favored is the negotiable instruments act. This has been adopted in all jurisdictions except Georgia and Porto Rico.

Two proposed uniform acts have not as yet been adopted by any state. They are the table of weights and measures and the insurance policies act.

More legislation dealing with marriage and divorce has been proposed than on any other subject. Action by states on these acts follows: Migratory divorce acts adopted by none; divorce procedure act, adopted by Delaware; marriage license act, by Massachusetts; marriage vision act, by Illinois, Louisiana, Massachusetts; Vermont; annulment of marriage and divorce act, by Delaware and New Jersey.

A uniform family desertion act has been adopted by Alabama, Kansas, North Dakota, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

The flag law submitted by the conference has been enacted in Arizona, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Washington and Wisconsin.

Horse Racing May Be Stopped in Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 8.—President Irigoyen's administration is considering projects of law for the suppression or limitation of horse racing. It is announced. Buenos Aires has one of the finest race courses in the world operated by its famous Jockey club where millions of pesos change hands in a year under the pari-mutuel betting system.

Races are held twice a week, Thursdays and Sundays, and on the frequent holidays. The attendance is from 15,000 to 20,000 persons. The newspapers have commented on the fact that, as a corollary to the mounting cost of living, the betting public has increased its wagers on the races. Where total bets on a Sunday were formerly 800,000 pesos, they now sometimes aggregate 3,000,000 pesos.

Max Reinhardt, Owner of Chain of Shows, Retires

BERLIN, Sept. 8.—The newspapers announce the retirement of Max Reinhardt from the active management of his chain of Berlin theaters.

Reinhardt, who has dominated the German dramatic world for more than 15 years, is said to be disgusted at his inability to induce the authorities to repeal or modify the amusement tax which, he states, is burdening his enterprises to a point where they are no longer profitable. He will retire to his country seat near Salzburg where he will devote himself to agriculture and some more complicated problems of dramatic art.

Gerhart Hauptmann, a dramatist, and Felix Hollaender, who has been Reinhardt's chief assistant, are mentioned as the joint succeeding directors.

Marine Corps Must Be Increased to 27,000 Men

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Recruiting for the marine corps is rapidly increasing and is expected to reach the highest peacetime point for midsummer recruiting this month.

Before the war 500 men a month was considered a fair average for the smallest of the three branches of the service, and the present indications are that the August figures will easily double that number.

The marine corps is now recruited to about 60 per cent of its authorized strength of 27,000 and at the present rate of progress will reach the maximum number within a few months. While the passing of the pay and bonus bills have had a stimulating effect on enlistments, recruiting officers believe that the educational advantages now offered to Marines are leading large numbers to enlist.
