

LA PANZA IS EASY VICTOR

Animal Owned by Sacramento Sportsman Takes Main Event at Fair

La Panza, owned by W. Tryon of Sacramento, easily won all three heats in the 2:25 trot, main event on the racing program, at Long Oak track yesterday.

In the 2:25 pace, Jessie Kidwell, owned by H. H. Helman of Salinas, Cal., took the first two heats and surrendered the third to Little Alexis, owned by Fred Johnson of Calgary. The latter was last of a field of nine in the first heat and took second place in the second heat. After the first heat his owner protested track tactics, but the decision of the judges stood. Little Alexis had many favorites.

The four-furlong running event was won by Gertrude B. owned by Ruth Parton of Yakima.

NEW CITIZENS BEING SOUGHT

Fair Board Anxious to Locate All Naturalized Since January 1

An effort is being made by the state fair board to locate every foreign-born man and woman in the state who has become naturalized since January 1, and to accomplish this county clerks all over the state have been requested to send a list of these newly-made citizens residing in their counties.

Many of them have failed to comply with this appeal, however, and so that no one may be overlooked, all persons eligible are invited to register their names at a booth just outside of the fairgrounds on All-American day, October 1, and they with their families will be issued official passes into the grounds for that one day.

W. H. Galvani, of Portland, will be the speaker of the day, and numerous features of an entertainment and educational nature will make the day distinctive.

A booth, properly labeled, will be stationed near the fairgrounds

All-American Day Plans Are Developed by Board

Plans are well in hand for All-American day Friday, at the state fair.

Wherever possible invitations have been issued to foreign-born citizens, who have been naturalized within the last year, by the state fair board, and these people with their families will be issued free passes on that day. Some countries, however, have not been heard from, and so that no one qualifying will be overlooked the management will erect a booth at the entrance Friday, and all who have not received official invitations will be issued admission tickets.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (CALIFORNIA)

Buffalo, N. Y. —on a Saturday!

When it's your good luck to butt into Buffalo, go to that store on Ellcott Square where the dark haired clerk slips out Camels with both hands—plus a tank of talk on the side!

The thing that tickled me most was his sureness that I was after Camels! As soon as I had my coin on the counter and before I could say a word, he flashed me a package of Camels! When I asked him how he knew I wanted Camels, he took a pull on his laugh stock and soaked me with this—"Can't tell you, old mayonnaise—I'm dressing!"

After he had waited on several other men who drew their Camels like I did, this salesman said—"For a fact, most men here smoke Camels. They hit the popular taste! Camels have the right body and the right mildness and the right flavor! They're ALL right!"

And, Pete—he added this without a stutter: The more I see of the world and the more I learn about cigarettes, the more respect I have for Camels and Camels quality! I don't believe a better cigarette could be made at any price! And Pete—oh, Pete—listen to this gem:—"And it's an odds on bet I'm a good judge. I've tried 'em all—and my taste is the jury box!"

If that isn't a swell line of Camel talk, I'll sell my shoes! But, Peter, that salesman is right! It's my belief that no cigarette in the world can be favorably compared with Camels—they're so smooth and mellow and delightful!

I'm herewith slipping between the sheets, old book. So, you tell 'em the rest—you're so full of knowledge!

Sincerely

Shorty.

VETERANS SUSPENDED FROM NATIONAL GAME

the series before they found this out. Maharg asserted, as Atwell kept postponing the day of settlement, saying he needed the money to bet.

Players Are Veterans.

The eight players named in the true bills had been with the White Sox for periods ranging from four to nine years. Cicotte was purchased from Boston in 1912 or the waiver price. Joe Jackson was bought from Cleveland in 1915 or a large sum in cash and some players in trade. Felsch was purchased from Milwaukee of the American association, in 1914; McMullin from Los Angeles in 1916; Risberg from Vernon of the Pacific coast league in 1918; Williams from Salt Lake City in 1916 and Weaver from York, Penn., in 1911. The purchase price of the eight, paid by Comiskey, represents a tidy fortune.

The investigation by the grand jury will continue until all phases of baseball gambling have been bared. It was said by officials. The investigation started two weeks ago, following reports that a game played here August 31 by the Cubs and Philadelphia Nationals was "fixed," and the inquiry into last year's world series came up only as an incident to the other inquiry.

Assistant State's Attorney Replogle, in charge of the case, said tonight that indictments to be drawn up tomorrow on today's true bills may contain several counts. The true bills themselves specified but one alleged offense, "conspiracy to commit an illegal act." The penalty provided upon conviction on this count would be one to five years in the penitentiary and a fine of not more than $10,000.

Indictments to Follow.

"This is just the beginning," Mr. Replogle said tonight. "We will have more indictments within a few days and before we get through we will have purged organized baseball of everything that is crooked and dishonest."

"We are going after the gamblers now. There will be indictments within a few days against men in Philadelphia, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Des Moines, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and other cities. More baseball players also will be indicted. We've got the goods on these men and we are going the limit."

Harry Grabner, secretary of the White Sox, announced that the club would play out the schedule to the end if it had to "employ Chinamen" to fill the vacancies in the team.

Mr. Comiskey tonight made this statement to the Associated Press: "The consideration which the grand jury gave to this case should be greatly appreciated by the general public. The Hon. Charles A. McDonald, chief justice, and the foreman of the grand jury, Harry Brigham, and his associates who so diligently strived to save and make America's great game the clean sport which it is, are to be commended in no uncertain terms by all sport followers, in spite of what happened today. And, thank God, it did happen. Forty-four years of baseball endeavor have convinced me more than ever that it is a wonderful game and a game worth keeping clean."

Game to Be Kept Clean.

"I would rather close my ball park than send nine men on the field with one of them holding a dishonest thought toward clean baseball—the game which John McGraw and I went around the world with to show to the people on the other side."

"We are far from through yet. We have the nucleus of another championship team with the remainder of the old world's championship team."

He named the veterans, Eddie and John Collins, Ray Schalk, Urban Fisher, Dick Kerr, Eddie Murphy, Nemo Leibold and Amos

Strunk and declared that, with the addition of Hodge, Falk, Jordan and McClellan, "I guess we can go along and win the championship yet."

"We're going to win the pennant and then the world's series in spite of this," Manager William Gleason of the White Sox said tonight.

"The thing has come to a head and I'm glad of it, he said. "I've been working on this affair with Mr. Comiskey for a long time and it has kept me under a tremendous strain. This evidence we were able to give the jury today evidently was sufficient, and I'm mighty happy that it's all cleared up."

"The men on my team now are real men and real ball players, and we're going to win the pennant and then the world's series in spite of this scandal."

It was inevitable that improvements would be made in the art of tone reproduction. Many have been made since the first phonograph was placed on the market. But it remained for The Cheney to set a new standard with a series of inventions so revolutionary that they place The Cheney in a class apart.

The violin has loaned its purity of tone, the pipe organ its mellowness and richness. Cheney reproductions are wonderfully beautiful. And they cannot be imitated.

We are glad to bring this instrument to the music-loving public of this city. You will appreciate it.
