Fair Interests Portlanders—
Mr. and Mrs. John Kisberth of Portland are in the city visiting the fair, and with their little son, are house guests of Col. and Mrs. Carle Abrams in South Salem. Mrs. Kisberth was formerly Miss Aitha Lee and made her home in Salem for many years, where she attended Willamette university. Her father, J. D. Lee, also visited the fair Wednesday, and is now visiting friends and relatives in Monmouth and Dallas. He will be a member of the next legislature from Multnomah county.

The American Red Cross—
Exhibit at the state fair. An interesting place for a visit is the American Red Cross section in the Educational building, which was shown at the Yakima fair last week, and will be taken October 4 to the Linn County fair. It is in charge of the local officers and Miss Fletcher, a Red Cross nurse, who explains the various charts having to do with the care of the sick, such as bed changing and making, bathing, taking the temperature etc. These are made by Miss Godsey, the

Journal Editor At Fair—
Among the visitors to the state fair yesterday was Hon. E. F. Irvin of Portland, editor of the Oregon Journal. He was accompanied by Mrs. Irvin and his son. This was Mr. Irvin's first visit to the state fair in 14 years. He was particularly impressed by the remarkable showing of automobiles on the grounds, and spoke of the present state of this character when he and a friend would hire a buggy, each get a girl and spend the afternoon driving over the fair grounds seeing the sights.

New Classes—
In all subjects will begin at the Capital Business College on Monday, October 4. A large enrollment is expected. Plans to begin on the opening day. If possible register on Saturday of this week to avoid confusion on Monday.

Samson Does His Work—
John Schiffe who operates a 140-acre farm on the Silverton road three miles out of Salem is now the possessor of a new Samson tractor purchased of Vick Brothers last Wednesday. According to George Vick who made the sale it is only one of many sales which result from a demonstration of what the tractor will do. Mr. Schiffe had no intention of buying a tractor and at the time of the demonstration his son was plowing the field with a sulky plow and three horses which he believed would do the work better than any tractor. After the tractor had plowed three trips around the field Mr. Schiffe told his son to drive the tractor in the barn—and that from now on he would do Samson tractor farming.

SALT'S FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS—
We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the Back hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders. You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; independent makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now, and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Association AGAIN RAPS CONCESSIONS. State Fair Board Called Upon to Exclude Questionable Amusements. BIGGER BARNs NEEDED. Prominent Men on Program of Speakers at Annual Banquet Last Night.

Once again the Oregon Pure Bred Livestock association has gone on record against games of chance and shows that border on the immoral at the state fair, and at a banquet last night adopted resolutions calling upon the state fair board hereafter to exclude them from the grounds. Some of the concessions have been found objectionable in spite of efforts made prior to the fair to bar amusement of this character. To relieve the state fair board of the responsibility of examining into every application for concessions, the resolutions recommend the appointment of a committee of three from the children's welfare bureau to sit with the board as a committee of censors on all applications. The association goes as far as to volunteer to go before the legislature for financial assistance that may be needed as a result of eliminating the concessions. Another recommendation is that more barn room be provided for sheep and hogs on the fair grounds.

At the meeting last night the speakers were N. C. Marris, secretary of the association; C. N. McArthur, representative in congress from the third Oregon district; Robert N. Stanfield, Republican nominee for United States senator; Isaac E. Staples and O. M. Plummer.

The resolutions, which are signed by H. H. Bushnell, Isaac E. Staples and Ed School as a committee, follow:

"Whereas, the Oregon Pure Bred Livestock association believes that the foundation and groundwork of all affairs in agriculture and livestock; that the great object of holding of state fairs is for the education of the present and growing generations; that the first consideration of the management of all fairs should be the morals and character of everything that comes within the fair's influence; that the principal object of our lives should be the moral training of our boys and girls;

"Now therefore, this association as a body unanimously goes on record against all exhibits and concessions that are not educational and that are not morally clean.

"Whereas, this association believes that all gambling devices and games of chance and some of the side shows that are conspicuous on the fair grounds of our fair this year are unwholesome and demoralizing and totally unfit for the association of our young people, upon whose morals and education depends the future of our homes and state;

"Resolved, that this association hereby exercises itself against the permitting of such games and shows upon the fair grounds, and hereby insists that the state fair board and all other fair boards of the North Pacific circuit clean their grounds of all gambling devices and questionable amusements; that we are very desirous of supporting the state fairs in every way possible, but we insist that everything that is of a gambling and immoral nature be excluded from our fairs and fair grounds; that we will use our influence with the state legislature toward securing sufficient financial help so that the permitting of all of the said games of chance and disgusting shows can be eliminated, and to relieve the fair board of the responsibility and the trouble of examining these applications for concessions at our state fair we would suggest that a committee of three be appointed from the Child's Welfare bureau to act with the board as censors on all applications for concessions that expect to exhibit on the fair grounds;

"Resolved, that it is the consensus of opinion of the cattle men and this association in general that more barn room should be provided for hogs and sheep, so that they can be classified in barns according to their breed.

"Resolved, that we express to the Oregon state fair board our sincere thanks for the use of the auditorium in which to hold our annual meeting, and for the many courtesies extended.

"Resolved, that whereas N. C. Marris, our esteemed secretary, and who has been the secretary since the inception of this association 14 years ago, and who has attended to the work of that office diligently and faithfully, has been depreciated by part of the management of this fair for carrying out the wishes of this association, that we endorse him and his acts in every particular, and assure him that we are back of him and others of the committees for a clean and prosperous fair.

"Be it further resolved, that we appreciate the efforts of our governor, Ben Olcott, for his response to our appeal in behalf of clean influences in and about the state fair grounds this year.

"Whereas, an all wise Providence has called from work to reward our esteemed member and co-worker, F. A. Koser, and

"Whereas, F. A. Koser was a most highly esteemed member of our association, and has for years worked and labored in behalf of better livestock and livestock conditions, especially for the betterment of all breeds of hogs and sheep, and gave the best that
