W. C. T. U. Appoints Superintendents

PORTLAND, Oct. 1.—Invitations to hold their next convention at Corvallis, Milton and Oregon City were extending to the Oregon State Woman's Christian Temperance union at its closing session today. Final decision was left to the executive board.

Department superintendents were appointed as follows: Americanization, Mrs. Lee Davicourt; anti-narcotics and scientific citizenship, Mrs. G. L. Buland; circulation of official paper, Mrs. Hattie Wilson; fairs and exhibits, Mrs. Ella G. Haines; institute, Mrs. Madge J. Mears; peace and arbitration, Mrs. Shepherd; prison reform, Mrs. C. C. Taylor; systematic giving, Mrs. Charles Hoy; purity in art and literature, Mrs. Margaret Martin; work among colored people, Mrs.

Nettie Wallace; temperance and labor, Dr. Myra Brown; Tynan; temperance and missions, Mrs. Georgia Trimble; medical temperance, Mrs. Willis Pettibone.

Mrs. Knicker—Won't your husband run for office? Mrs. Boeker—Impossible; the cook wants the front porch.—New York Sun.

States I shall continue to endorse all the laws regardless of what interest may be affected. "Recognizing the courtesy between publishers, I invite the Oregonian to publish this statement in full."

CHEVROLET

Model 490, $993.60 f. o. b. Salem

Notice!

We have just received the following wire from the Chevrolet Factory:

"You are hereby authorized to give to the purchaser of every Chevrolet car this written agreement":

"We will refund to the purchaser of any new Chevrolet automobile, between this date and May 1st, 1921, the difference between the present price and any reduction in price that may be made up to that date."

This agreement absolutely protects the purchaser of every Chevrolet car as to any decline in price.

When you take into consideration that the Chevrolet only advanced 19% over pre-war prices as compared with an advance of 44% on some of the other leading lines, the present flurry in reduction of some lines is misleading.
