

ORIENTAL RELATIONS ARE IMPROVED

certainly some mutually satisfactory agreement can be reached which will prevent entrance of any Japanese."

Small Made Chairman.

Congressman Small was made chairman of the party for the tour through Japan and China, he said, after friction had arisen over unescorted women traveling with the party. Of Japanese and their descendants being forbidden to buy property, the congressman said:

"As to the Japanese who are already lawfully in the United States, a different issue is presented. I learn that a proposition has recently been initiated in California and will soon be submitted to a referendum which will prohibit these Japanese from acquiring land by lease or otherwise and likewise limit the right of their American-born children, who are American citizens, to acquire or hold land. This will be a discrimination against Japanese nationals and will not apply to other aliens. This does not appeal to my sense of justice nor am I convinced of the necessity of such drastic action. The movement appears to have reference to farm land for the purpose of eliminating Japanese farmers.

Not Favors, But Justice.

"I am not suggesting the extension of any favors to the Japanese. I am only presenting a fundamental of right and justice. "But this is not wholly a matter for the consideration of California. Where an affront to a friendly nation is threatened where the issue of peace or possibly war is involved, it is a matter of supreme interest to all the people of the United States."

Y. M. C. A. HAS BUSY PERIOD

Boys Work to be Emphasized—Several Important Meetings Scheduled

Taking everything into consideration, the program of the Y. M. C. A. for the year commencing October 11, promises to be an unusually full one. The boys are receiving their share of attention, and the program as outlined for their special benefit will gladden the heart of every boy.

A new secretary has been secured for them, Lyman Pickett, who was formerly the associate secretary of the Seattle Y. M. C. A. He will have the boys divided into three departments, the senior, intermediate and juniors.

Each department will have a room of its own, equipped with its game tables. The room which has been in use as a serving room is being renovated and will be converted into a dining room. It is expected that the improvements will be completed by October 11, the opening week for all fall activities. Next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the Y. M. C. A. all mothers and women interested in the boys are asked to be present to organize a Mothers' club to assist the boys' department. They will study the needs and habits of boys, try to improve the conditions which surround their lives and endeavor to inculcate a better understanding of home relations. The values of such an organization will not be overlooked.

The physical director for the new year will be F. L. Osborne, who comes from Berkeley high school, where he has been in charge of the physical education work for the past five years. Mr. Osborne will direct all gymnasium and swimming classes.

The final business meeting for the fiscal year will be held next Tuesday noon at the Y. M. C. A., and the annual gathering and dinner for the adult membership will be on Friday evening at 6:15 when the reports on work done on work during the year will be given and the election of officers take place. President W. I. Staley will preside.

The young men of Salem over 14 years old will have the opportunity to hear Tracy Strong, city boys work secretary of Seattle association speak and Jim Palmer, associate general secretary of

The financial campaign for the work of the year will be inaugurated on Tuesday, Oct. 12, and continue throughout the week. Solicitors will meet every noon at 12:15 at the Y. M. C. A.

Helpful Health Hints

They never seek in vain who consult a qualified osteopath.

If there is anything worse than drunkenness it is gluttony.

The worst ignorance is where a man is ignorant of his own ignorance.

I never count a patient's years unless she has nothing else to count.

Surgeons are always anxious to lead the man who is "blind to his own interests."

Rheumatism and happiness both grow bigger if you keep telling folks about them.

If people would doubt less and investigate more, the osteopath would have more than he could do.

The wish to be healthy is reasonable in direct ratio to its largeness—or in other words, the more you desire health, the wiser you are.

The doctors who demand laws to protect the people are trouble makers, for they are invariably dealers; their professed motives are no more real than a drug store complexion—there is something entirely different underneath.

Telegram Received By Local Dort Dealer

Fred W. Vogler, Portland, Or.
Northern Auto Co.

Flint, Mich., Sept. 29, 1920.

The price of the Dort car is reasonable and fair. The total net advance in list within period of two years having been but seventeen percent against advances of nineteen to forty-five in list on other leading makes of motor cars, therefore there will be no price reduction made by this company.

There has been as yet no break in material or labor costs that would warrant any price reduction on Dort cars; but on the contrary materials have been purchased by us and by all motor car manufacturers for nineteen hundred and twenty-one production at a very considerable advance as a whole, over nineteen hundred and twenty. Therefore unless those purchase contracts are treated by purchasers as scraps of paper or the seller voluntarily revises contract prices downward there is no justification for any motor car manufacturer reducing prices unless he has been profiteering which means that he has been receiving an excessive profit on his product. If there be any such manufacturers this is a most opportune time for them to properly adjust their prices to the sound values of their products. Please wire the above to each one of your dealers at once; also give publicity to all your newspapers. This is an announcement by the president of this company as to where we stand on the present situation.
