RS. C. P. Bishop, a local member of the Republican state executive committee, will go to Portland today to attend an important session of the central committee which will be held at the Hotel Imperial this afternoon, members from all over the state to be in attendance. Both men and women are included, the meeting being for the purpose of planning the forthcoming campaign. Thomas Tongue, chairman of the state central committee at Hillsboro, will preside. Mrs. Bishop was unable to attend the luncheon given by the Woman's Republican club of Portland, at the Hazelwood, to which she was invited Friday, but she will in all probability go down to the city held next week. Permanent headquarters of Republicans in Salem have been established on the second floor of the Oregon building, room 229. Someone will be there during the day and evening, and anyone interested will be welcome.

The first formal meeting of the Salem Arts league will be held in the auditorium of the Salem Public Library this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Frank S. Barton, president of the league presiding. Anyone interested, as well as members, are invited to attend. A musical program including both instrumental and vocal numbers will be featured, including several character songs by Miss Lucille Barton and Frank Barton, and readings by O. K. Paulus. The various departments will be organized for the winter and heads of the association chosen. Other business matters pertaining to the coming year's work will also be discharged.

Officials and members are anticipating a year of unusual interest and activity, numerous persons signifying their intention of joining the organization during the summer.

The splendid art exhibit, emphasizing the work of artists of the northwest, last season, as well as the excellent program of lectures, did much to arouse new interest in the league, and it will be of moment to those concerned with the cultural growth of the city to know that the coming year will be notable in the same way.

Gatherea around Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jones Sunday at their country place "Lalish Meadows," in celebration of their fortieth wedding anniversary, were their children, grandchildren, relatives and friends, numbering nearly 70. The day was passed in a delightfully informal manner, the catered luncheon at noon being a pleasing feature. Mrs. Sara Clark, a sister of the honorees, and Mrs. George V. Hovenden, sister-in-law both of Portland, presided at either end of the table.

Motoring up from Portland to participate in Sunday's celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, M. Cannon and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Moores, Mrs. Sara Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, Mrs. Carrie Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. George V. Hovenden, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Patterson and children and Mrs. Alice Hoog and children of Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones have occupied a distinctive place in the history and development of the Willamette valley for many years, owning one of the most beautiful farms in this vicinity. Both are members of the Oregon Pioneer society, and since their marriage have lived in and near Brooks. Both have always taken the keenest interest in the welfare of the state, Mr. Jones at one time serving as a member of the legislature.

A get-together meeting of the mothers of boys, and women interested in boys was called Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, by L. A. Pickett, secretary of the boys' department of the organization.

A Mothers' club was formed, with Mrs. J. B. Littler, elected president; Mrs. F. J. Purvine, vice president; Mrs. F. L. Waters, secretary; Mrs. J. W. Harbison, treasurer. An interesting talk was given by Mr. Pickett, explaining the work of the newly formed club.

About 40 women were present to enroll as charter members. All women interested in boys are cordially invited to join this club, which will meet on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month, at the Y. M. C. A. building.

The society columns of Saturdays Portland Telegram had the following to say of a recent Salem visitor:

"Mrs. Harold Miner (Janet Noble) who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Noble, at their home on Flanders street, plans to return today to her home in Seattle, Mrs. Miner having the inspiration for several informal affairs during her visit.

Salem will extend a gracious welcome to Mrs. E. D. Edmunds and children of Grand Rapids, Mich., who are expected to arrive in Salem sometime this week. They plan to locate permanently here, until their securing of a home, to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown were in Harrisburg over the week-end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shisler.

Mrs. Henry J. Talbot returned Saturday evening from Portland, where she spent 10 days with her mother, Mrs. L. F. Stiles. Mr. Talbot was also in Portland during that period, returning home earlier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Savage of Portland, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton.

Mrs. W. Al Jones returned from Portland Friday, where she had passed the week. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Mabel Creighton, who will remain with her this week, at her country place near Salem. Mrs. Jones will leave shortly for Eastern Oregon, where she will spend about a month adjusting business affairs, following which she will return to Portland where she will make her home during the winter, going down to be near her children, Rosalie, who is attending St. Helen's hall and Creighton, a student at Hill Military academy.

Mrs. L. K. Page had as her recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jackman, J. K. Skelley, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Ketcham, and son Delaney, Mr. and Mrs. L. Barum, and Grant Bonnell, all of The Dalles. It will interest a large number of Salem folk to learn that the Bonnell's have recently moved to Hood River, where Mr. Bonnell has been appointed head of the manual training department of The Dalles high school, a similar position being held by him in Salem several years ago.

Mrs. Ray Pomroy was the guest of friends in Portland over the week-end.

Miss Beulah Cobb spent the week-end with Mrs. R. H. Scott of Pleasant Valley. Miss Cobb is instructor at the Grant school in the physical culture and domestic science departments, coming here for the first time this year, from Tulare, Cal. She is making her home with Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh.

Mrs. John H. Lewis returned from Portland Friday where she spent the week the guest of her daughter Mrs. Ethel McCoy. Mrs. McCoy came up with her to be the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Klein.

The Mother's class of the First Methodist church, of which Mrs. J. B. Littler is head, took action Sunday morning to aid the Mother's class of the Highland school, in furnishing hot soup for the children who are compelled to carry their lunches. The Highland school is the only one in the city instituting such a system, but it is understood that others will follow its lead, providing sufficient financial backing can be secured.

Mrs. Charles A. Park's regular Tuesday afternoon Bible class, which has been scheduled to meet in the parlors of the Y. W. C. A. during the winter, will be held at the home of Mrs. Park, 1445 Cheimeta street, this afternoon, at the regular hour.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Loren R. White, 544 North-Eighth street, was the scene of a merry party Saturday evening, when a few close relatives surprised the former, the occasion being in celebration of his 28th birthday.

The hours were passed with cards and music. The honoree was presented with several attractive gifts, for which he responded with a brief expression of appreciation. A collation followed late in the evening after which the guests departed for their homes, wishing Mr. White many happy returns of the day.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ramsden, Mr. and Mrs. Bartice, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. White, Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Beckman, Miss Helen Ramsden, Miss Beulah Bartice, Harold T. White, Robert Ramsden, Mr. and Mrs. White and little daughter, Eileen.

Mr. White is cashier in the State Industrial Accident Commission office, and is also a promising law student.

Frank Rosebraugh spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh, returning to his studies at Oregon Agricultural college, Sunday night. Saturday evening he officiated as best man at an army chum's wedding in Portland. The couple was Miss Rose Uptegrove of Portland, and Kent Logue Moody of Oregon City, the wedding taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Uptegrove, on East Everett street. Miss Freda Glover was bridesmaid.

Following a trip to Seattle and other points Mr. and Mrs. Moody will return to Oregon City where they will reside.

Mr. Rosebraugh and Mr. Moody were with headquarters troop, the army of occupation in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deekobach, their daughter, Miss Helen Deekobach, and son Donald leave today for an extensive eastern trip, that will cover a period of a month or more. Their objective will be Cincinnati, O., and points in Kentucky, where they will be the guests of relatives. Chicago and numerous places of interest will also be visited before their return to Salem.

A Delegation of local folk left for Marshfield Sunday night to attend the state convention of the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters, which opened there yesterday morning. Delegates and attendants from the lodges of the Capital City are Mrs. A. B. Gardner, Mrs. Charles L. Parmenter, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Shellberg and Frank T. Wrightman.

Members of the Three Links club of the Rebecca lodge will entertain with a party in their lodge rooms, the unmarried members of the organization entertaining the married members. The committee in charge is composed of Miss Leah Nichols, Miss Eugenia Siegmund, and Mrs. Ida McDaniel.

Members of the Philodorian and Philodorian literary societies of Willamette University, numbering thirty, made up a line party at the Grand theatre Saturday night, participating in a merry supper party at the home of Miss Mildred Clark afterwards.

How We Care For Your Meat Cars

When you see a Swift Refrigerator Car going by in a train, it seems a simple thing that it should be carrying fresh meat up and down the country.

Like most of the packer activities which contribute to your welfare, you are so used to having this going on uninterruptedly, day in, day out, throughout the year, that you are likely to take it as a matter of course.

But it is not a matter of course. Every car you see going by means long hours of minute, scientific, painstaking care in preparation for what it is doing.

Every time a car comes in it is washed out thoroughly with scalding water. If any taint, any foreign matter, were present, this would get rid of it. Even the meat hooks are taken down from the racks and scalded with water and live steam.

When the car is thoroughly cleansed we put in 5,000 pounds of ice. But that is only preliminary. It only cools the car to the proper temperature. By the time the car is moved over to receive its load, this first ice is melted. More is then put in to keep the car cool.

Then the meat is hung on the sterilized hooks and the load of food is ready for its journey. It arrives as it leaves, clean, fresh, wholesome, appetizing; and your meat supply goes on unaffected by seasons or weather.

This is only a part of the service which Swift & Company furnishes, at a profit to itself so small—averaging a fraction of a cent per pound on all products over a period of years—that if the profit were handed on to the consumer, it would make a difference of less than a nickel a week in the meat bill of the average American family.

The Common Fault With Most Cooks is to Use Too Much Shortening

ONE of the most embarrassing things for a housewife is to have her cake turn out "heavy"—or her pie crust "soggy." Not only unsatisfactory to the palate but the cause of many people saying: "Pies give me indigestion"—or "I can't eat pastry."

Yet this is a condition easily avoided. Don't use too much shortening. You use 1/2 to 1/4 less Mazola than you need of either butter or lard—with better results.

If it's pie, Mazola will make the finest, most delicate and easily digested crust you ever tasted.

Or if it's cake—both lightness and richness will result from using Mazola.

And being an oil it is always ready for instant use—no tiresome "creaming-in."

This is because Mazola is an absolutely pure vegetable fat from an edible source. It is 100% fat—contains no moisture as is contained in butter and lard.

Once you try Mazola you will prefer it to lard and other shortenings.

Superfluous Hair Now Removed Roots and All!

New and Instantaneous Home Method

A boon to women troubled with superfluous hair is the new electrolytic process. It is totally unlike the depilatory, electrical and other methods heretofore employed for the removal of hairy growths. It is the only thing that enables one to remove the hair completely—roots and all in an instant, without the assistance of an expert. The result cannot be doubted, for the user sees the hair-roots with her own eyes.

A stick of electrolytic, with easy directions, can be had at any drugstore. It is entirely harmless (a child could safely eat it), odorless and non-irritating. It is an instantaneous method, and so thorough that the skin is left perfectly smooth and hairless, leaving out the least evidence of its former disfigurement.
