

SOCIETY

ALL Oregonians have heard of Antony Euwer, the poet of Hood River, who has helped to bring the state before the universe, and there are others who know the man personally, including among Salem folk (or rather former Salem folk) Miss Elizabeth Schultz, now of New York city, who will be greatly interested to know that he is about to be married. They will be doubly interested to know that the famous and delightful poet and artist is to claim as his bride a gifted girl who has made a name for herself as a dramatic reader. Mr. Euwer and Miss Ruby Pate Ferguson are announcing their engagement and the bride-elect has set October 27 as the date for the wedding.

Miss Ferguson is a reader well known throughout the United States. In fact, she is one of the foremost in her special art and for some months has been on a tour under the direction of the Ellison-White bureau and even now is planning a tour of New Zealand, but that's to be about Christmas time. She is a graduate of the University of Iowa and of the Emerson school of oratory. For three years she was instructor of dramatic art in the Woman's college of Alabama at Montgomery.

Mr. Euwer not only writes, but sketches delightfully and is one of the celebrities of which the northwest likes to boast. During the war he was in the army and he is now preparing a book in which he will use some of his army life as material. His most recent poem was "The Builders of Highways," read at the highway celebration at Hood River last month. Other western gems are found in a book of the Oregon country, "The Blood in the Apple," "The Ghosts of Multnomah," "The Soul of the Average Man" and "On Some Tomorrow."

Mrs. Percy Young of Albany was a mid-week visitor. During her brief stay she was the guest of Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills made up a party during the week motoring down to Portland.

Miss Lucille Ross and Harold Eakin will go to Portland next Wednesday to attend the wedding of a former school mate, Kenneth C. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Martin, now of Portland, and Miss Aagot Lassen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Lassen, which will be an evening event.

The ceremony will take place in the Central Presbyterian church, Miss Karen Lassen, a sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Lois Martin, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Agnes Torgler. Mr. Eakin will be best man, and Miss Ross will play the wedding march.

Mr. Martin is in business in Salt Lake City, in which place the young folk will reside.

Mrs. E. B. Millard is entertaining with a charming little breakfast party this morning, in celebration of her daughter, Miss Lola Millard's seventeenth birthday. The color scheme for the table one interested may form sewing or needlework clubs, their aid being solicited, and appreciated.

MRS. H. J. EBERLY (Marybelle Reinhart) a charming bride of the year, who with her husband, has returned to Salem to spend the winter after summing in Medford.

In one city the Junior Auxiliary of one of the churches assembled after school hours, working up a doll booth, for a similar bazaar, in which could be found every requisite for a doll wardrobe. Members of social and needlework clubs also came forward with assistance, supplementing the regular session with activities for the bazaar.

There are innumerable ways that women of the city can aid in the splendid bazaar, when it is held, and it is expected that before the months swing past, that a number of clubs will take up the work.

The local chapter is making a concerted effort to keep alive the spirit that prompted such worthwhile activities during war time, for it is realized that without activity, any organization must lose its individuality, and become a useless thing, and that the War Mothers are determined shall not happen.

Mrs. James McGilchrist arrived home this week from Glasgow, Scotland, where she had been visiting for the past five months with her parents. She was met in Portland by her husband and Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., who motored down.

Mrs. George Tackman and her children, Bunny and Billy, of Roberts, Oregon, are being entertained at the house guests of Mrs. G. F. Evans on South Cottage street. Before returning to her home in eastern Oregon Mrs. Tackman plans on visiting numerous friends and relatives in the Willamette valley.

Mrs. Amos Strong has as her guest over the week-end Miss Mildred Barton, who accompanied the former home from her visit in Portland.

Mrs. Henry Cornoyer, and daughter Josephine left for Seattle the last of the week, expecting to be away for several weeks, visiting relatives and friends.

Salem friends of the Waters family are much interested in the marriage of Frank Northrup Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waters, former Salem residents, now of Los Angeles. The bride was before her marriage, Miss May Ersche, of Escondido, Calif., daughter of prominent residents, the wedding being an event of Monday, October 18. The young folk were expected to arrive in Salem today to pass a few days with Mr. Waters' grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Waters, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Waters.

Later they will return to O. A. C. where both are students, Mr. Waters being a senior, and his bride a student in the music department.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert are week-end motorists to Eugene going up to be with their daughter Miss Mary Jane Albert.

A gay little affair of last night was the supper party, presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills at their residence, following a bit of dancing at Dreamland rink. Guests circled a table aglow with the seasons loveliest blossoms in shades of warmest red.

Those participating were, besides the hosts: Dr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Hates, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, and Dr. and Mrs. Grover Bellinger.

Mr. Charles Strickland was a visitor in Portland this week, accompanying her husband that far on his way to eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Carrier returned Thursday night from Mt. Hood, which place they motored the latter part of last week. They were accompanied by Miss Nellie Hollenbeck and Miss May Case, who remained over for a longer stay. The party was entertained by J. D. Smullin, who owns one of the largest apple ranches in the Hood River country.

The Elk's dances, which were so popular last winter, will in all probability begin this coming week. The program committee, composed of Karl E. Hinges, chairman; John Brophy and Budd

Which, are making plans for the events, which will be given twice each month.

Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Acheson (Miss Mary Cone), whose marriage was an event of the summer, were expected to arrive home today from a several weeks' honeymoon trip to Ireland.

Mrs. J. G. Fontaine of Jefferson is the week-end guest of Mrs. W. T. Rigdon.

Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. Grace Eoff, Axel Eoff, Milton Steiner, and Paul Staley, motored to Portland yesterday to spend the week-end.

decorations is yellow—marigold, place cards, candles and shades bearing out this effect.

The hours are between eight and ten o'clock, the guest list including Miss Florence Young, Miss Jeannette Vandevort, Miss Fay Spaulding, Miss Lucille Moore, Miss Frances Hodge, Miss Mildred Hansen, Miss Ruth Wechter, Miss Mabel Marcus, and Miss Beryl Holt.

Mrs. J. J. Kingle, of Gladstone, Ore., was a visitor in Salem the first of the week, passing the time while here with Mrs. V. W. Davies. The latter accompanied Mrs. Kingle to Airlie Thursday, where they were the guests of friends.

Mrs. J. J. Murphy, of Portland, who arrived last week to make an extended visit with Mrs. William P. Lord, is being welcomed with many delightful little, informal courtesies, the week to come to record others of the same nature, and several affairs of a larger and more formal tone.

Mrs. Murphy is a charming woman, whose visits are happily anticipated by her friends who are legion in Salem. About a dozen of her longest-time acquaintances were hidden to the home of Mrs. John A. Carson, Friday, for an informal afternoon, Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Miss Elizabeth Lord, and Miss Catherine Carson, assisting during the time.

Dr. and Mrs. William H. Lytle were hosts for an informal pheasant dinner last night, laying covers for ten close friends.

Today Dr. and Mrs. Lytle will be joined by Mrs. Ida E. Perringer of Pendleton, who will remain for a day or two.

The first birthday of Betty Byrd, the small daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Prince Byrd, was celebrated Friday afternoon, with a pretty little party, to which were invited a group of children and their mothers. A birthday cake, with its single gleaming candle, was a detail of greatest interest to the small guests.

Mrs. Byrd was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Byrd and Mrs. E. C. Cross. Those hidden were: Mrs. Raymond Walsh and daughter Priscilla, Mrs. Donald Upjohn and daughters Roena and Margaret, Mrs. R. D. Byrd and daughter Virginia, Mrs. J. C. Evans and daughters Barbara and Margaret, Mrs. R. F. Dillon and daughter Dorothy, Mrs. Chester Downs and children Flavia and Bobby, and Mrs. Curtis Cross and daughter Virginia.

The F. A. Legg home, was the scene of a lovely dinner party Thursday evening, when Miss Margaret Legg, Miss Leisia Ruby, Miss Martha Ferguson, and Miss Pauline Remington, entertained a group of incoming University girls.

Decorative details were very attractive. A large art basket, filled with Caroline Testout roses and fern, centered the board, place cards and candle shades in pink further accentuating the color motif.

Covers were laid for Miss Helen Lovell, Miss Hulda Hagman, Miss Edna Donnelly, Miss Ethelyn Yerex, Miss Elaine Obert, Alma Wells, Miss Phyllis Palmer, and Miss Carol Cheeny.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Ray Pemberton are entertaining over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King, and their children of Portland, and Miss Jennie MacGregor, who is on her way to Shanghai, China.

During the week the Pemberton's had as their house guests, Mrs. Pemberton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker of Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parker and son Kenneth, and Mrs. Molly Parker, all of Danville, Ind.

Mrs. Lowell L. Tweedale sponsored a happy little party which her daughter, Dorothy Tweedale, gave Saturday afternoon to a group of small friends, in celebration of her eleventh birthday.

The children formed a line party at the Oregon for the matinee, later circling small tables at the Spa, for the birthday luncheon, which featured a pretty birthday cake.

Guests for the afternoon were: Pauline Johnson, Caroline Lambirth, Rosalie Buren, Josephine Albert, Dorothy Bell, Lois Leedy, Dorothy Nash, Maxine Meyers, and Maxine Glover.

Miss Ruth Mallow, who is making her home during the winter with Mrs. Lowell L. Tweedale, while she is attending Willamette University, is a week-end visitor in Woodburn, the guest of her brother.

Women of the South Salem auxiliary of the local chapter of National War Mothers, are earning a distinctive place for themselves in local auxiliary activities by their untiring efforts in behalf of the forthcoming bazaar, which the organization will sponsor, at the Armory, around Thanksgiving time, the money raised through it to be used in endowing a three-bed ward for soldiers in the Salem hospital.

Members of the main chapter, and those of the North Salem Auxiliary have also been working systematically for the bazaar, and it is expected that the additional auxiliaries of West Salem and East Salem will soon be actively engaged.

Assistance is not limited to members only. All wives and sisters of soldiers, as well as any-

USED CARS

WE HAVE several Used Cars for sale which we believe are priced less than their actual worth.

Buick Roadster.....	$200
Ford Bug.....	$300
1917 Maxwell, repainted and in good shape.....	$550
1915 Studebaker.....	$450
1918 Studebaker.....	$750

The remainder of our cars are priced right and we invite you to come and look them over.

Open Day and Night

Marion Automobile Company

Phone 362 235 South Commercial St. Salem, Or.

DODGE BROTHERS 4 DOOR SEDAN

It is good-looking; it is comfortable; it is quickly adaptable to any weather change. It is easy to drive; it costs little to run. The gasoline consumption is unusually low. The tire mileage is unusually high.

Bonesteel Motor Co.

Marion and Polk County Distributor Ferry and Commercial Streets Salem, Oregon formal afternoon, Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Miss Elizabeth Lord, and Miss Catherine Carson, assisting during the time.

Dr. and Mrs. William H. Lytle were hosts for an informal pheasant dinner last night, laying covers for ten close friends.

Today Dr. and Mrs. Lytle will be joined by Mrs. Ida E. Perringer of Pendleton, who will remain for a day or two.

The first birthday of Betty Byrd, the small daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Prince Byrd, was celebrated Friday afternoon, with a pretty little party, to which were invited a group of children and their mothers. A birthday cake, with its single gleaming candle, was a detail of greatest interest to the small guests.

Mrs. Byrd was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Byrd and Mrs. E. C. Cross. Those hidden were: Mrs. Raymond Walsh and daughter Priscilla, Mrs. Donald Upjohn and daughters Roena and Margaret, Mrs. R. D. Byrd and daughter Virginia, Mrs. J. C. Evans and daughters Barbara and Margaret, Mrs. R. F. Dillon and daughter Dorothy, Mrs. Chester Downs and children Flavia and Bobby, and Mrs. Curtis Cross and daughter Virginia.

The F. A. Legg home, was the scene of a lovely dinner party Thursday evening, when Miss Margaret Legg, Miss Leisia Ruby, Miss Martha Ferguson, and Miss Pauline Remington, entertained a group of incoming University girls.

Decorative details were very attractive. A large art basket, filled with Caroline Testout roses and fern, centered the board, place cards and candle shades in pink further accentuating the color motif.

Covers were laid for Miss Helen Lovell, Miss Hulda Hagman, Miss Edna Donnelly, Miss Ethelyn Yerex, Miss Elaine Obert, Alma Wells, Miss Phyllis Palmer, and Miss Carol Cheeny.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Ray Pemberton are entertaining over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King, and their children of Portland, and Miss Jennie MacGregor, who is on her way to Shanghai, China.

During the week the Pemberton's had as their house guests, Mrs. Pemberton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker of Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parker and son Kenneth, and Mrs. Molly Parker, all of Danville, Ind.

Mrs. Lowell L. Tweedale sponsored a happy little party which her daughter, Dorothy Tweedale, gave Saturday afternoon to a group of small friends, in celebration of her eleventh birthday.

The children formed a line party at the Oregon for the matinee, later circling small tables at the Spa, for the birthday luncheon, which featured a pretty birthday cake.

Guests for the afternoon were: Pauline Johnson, Caroline Lambirth, Rosalie Buren, Josephine Albert, Dorothy Bell, Lois Leedy, Dorothy Nash, Maxine Meyers, and Maxine Glover.

Miss Ruth Mallow, who is making her home during the winter with Mrs. Lowell L. Tweedale, while she is attending Willamette University, is a week-end visitor in Woodburn, the guest of her brother.

Women of the South Salem auxiliary of the local chapter of National War Mothers, are earning a distinctive place for themselves in local auxiliary activities by their untiring efforts in behalf of the forthcoming bazaar, which the organization will sponsor, at the Armory, around Thanksgiving time, the money raised through it to be used in endowing a three-bed ward for soldiers in the Salem hospital.

Members of the main chapter, and those of the North Salem Auxiliary have also been working systematically for the bazaar, and it is expected that the additional auxiliaries of West Salem and East Salem will soon be actively engaged.

Assistance is not limited to members only. All wives and sisters of soldiers, as well as any-

Fall generally brings out the weaknesses of old Batteries (and some new ones). If yours isn't acting right, come to us and secure a correct, honest diagnosis.

Whether it needs only a boosting charge or a thorough rebuilding, you can rest assured that we will do the work right and at Least Cost.

R. D. BARTON
171 South Commercial Street
Phone 1107
SALEM, OREGON

Outside—the strength and toughness of Prodiun Rubber, insuring longer life. Inside—the last word in rugged, resistant, cord tire construction. This tells, in the net, why Republic Grande Cord Tires have won instant acceptance wherever the good name of Republic Tires is known.

SALEM AUTOMOBILE CO.
F. D. DELANO A. I. EOFF
SALEM—DALLAS

REPUBLIC GRANDE CORD TIRES