

FLARES AND FLICKERS

Walter Hiers is the hero in Ethel Clayton's latest starring vehicle, "A City Sparrow," which will be shown at the Oregon theater soon. The leading man is Clyde Fillmore.

Breezy buoyant and filled with situations that provoke laughter, "A Full House," says Manager Kupper of the Oregon is made to order for playgoers who like a comedy drama with plenty of amusing incidents to make them forget the troubles of a strenuous business day. Bryant Washburn is the star while Lois Wilson is his leading woman.

The production of such a great stage success as Israel Zangwill's "Merely Mary Ann" as a motion picture is a screen event of prime importance. Shirley Mason is the star.

Constance Talmadge is some little climber, as you will see in "Two Weeks," taken from Anthony Wharton's play "At the Barn," which will be shown at the Liberty theater starting today.

For those who have enjoyed the pictures adapted from Rex Beach's stories, notable of which have been "The Spoilers," "The Brand," "The Girl From Outside," the booking of "The Silver Horde" for a four days showing at the Liberty theater beginning Wednesday will be an event not to be missed.

Robert W. Chambers' famous story, "The Shining Band" has now been screened under the title of "Even as Eve," by the First National Exhibitors Circuit. It will be seen at the Liberty theater next Sunday.

Admirers of Thomas Meighan, which includes practically every screen fan, will be pleased to learn that he is to appear next Sunday at the Oregon theater in his first Paramount starring vehicle, "Civilian Clothes," adapted from the popular stage play of the same name and produced by Hugh Ford.

Every one who loves a motion picture story of the western ranch type written in masterly style, abundantly stocked with new and perilous stunts, developing a plot of unusual strength and detail, and enacted by a sensational star and a fine company in the midst of superb scenic effects, should see Buck Jones, the Fox star, in "Firebrand Trevison" at the Grand theater next Thursday and Friday.

This play, directed by Thomas N. Heffron, had its first showing here last night. It is a "corker"—to describe it tersely. No one can go wrong by going to the Grand theater during its run.

Is it possible for a crook to reform? Many policemen assert it cannot be accomplished but officers of correctional institutions say it is not an impossibility. But William S. Hart, the famous Paramount star, proves that had men can reform in his latest photoplay production, "The Cradle of Courage" which will be shown at the Oregon theater today.

Walter Gilbert, the flexible comedian, with a clever line of chatter and his grotesque postures, quite a lot of mirth and he is one of the few performers who do this kind of work that do not offend. Comes to the Bligh next Thursday.

The Two Wrens. Hoot mon: A wee bit o' Scotch and Irish. The Two Wrens, a unique couple in a medley of Scotch and Irish ditties interspersed with some real comedy, by a real Scotch comedian. Comes to the Bligh next Thursday.

The Grand string orchestra has made wonderful progress as a picture orchestra since the Grand opened six weeks ago. They appear to be one of the big features of that popular playhouse.

Several feats of under water endurance and a smashing climax in which a steamer speeding in a fog crashes into a derelict and sinks, are features of "Below the Surface," the Hobart Bosworth picture coming to the Grand theater next Saturday.

The sea again furnishes the background for a strongly dramatic story in Hobart Bosworth's latest photoplay, "Below the Surface," which will be seen on the screen at the Grand theater next Saturday and Sunday.

The locale is a fishing village on the rocky coast of Maine and the star has the role of a stern old New England deep-sea diver. His partner is his son, Luther. The two are approached with a fraudulent enterprise to extract treasure from a sunken wreck. The old diver declines, but Luther, attracted by the pretty demi-mondaine who accompanies the proposition, marrying the girl at the same time.

Dramatic events follow, including the wrecking of a steamer, in which Luther's wife and the promoter are drowned. The ending is a happy one.

William Russell, the light comedy star, has been booked to show at the Grand theater for a two-day run in his latest release, "A Live Wire Hick." It will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday only—matinee and evening.

Mitchell Lewis, the true-to-life portrayal of lovable French-Canadian and other verile characterizations is seen in a role that is both different and new at the Bligh Tuesday and Wednesday.

Richard Wally & Company is a combination of two (man and woman) with a unique variety of juggling that is a bit different, eccentric and novel. At the Bligh today.

Capt. R. Muir Allan of the British army, one of the best speakers of the great world's war, will be heard in his great lecture, illustrated with hand colored slides at the Bligh theater Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Royal Hawaiians, six in number, all first class musicians, singers and a dainty native dancer will be the special attraction at the Bligh theater Tuesday and Wednesday.

Faculty Members are Entertained at Dallas

DALLAS, Or., Oct. 16.—(Special to The Statesman)—The faculty of the Dallas high and public schools, and the student body of the high school, were entertained very pleasantly last night by the young peoples societies of the Christian, Presbyterian, Methodist and Evangelical churches. The reception took place in the Woodman hall which was decorated for the occasion. Light refreshments were served at the close of an evening of entertainment.

Boys of Old Company L to Reorganize at Dallas

DALLAS, Or., Oct. 16.—(Special to The Statesman)—A meeting of the old members of Company L of Mexican border and World War fame, has been called for next Tuesday night at the army when the re-organization of the company, which will be a part of the new Oregon Fifth regiment, will be held. A number of the boys about town have already signed up for membership in the new company and it is expected that by Tuesday evening the ranks will be completely filled up.

ACTIVITY IN ATHLETICS ON

Busy Winter Schedule Prepared by Director Osborne at Y. M. C. A.

Initiation of the fall and winter program for the Y. M. C. A. physical department took place yesterday. With a schedule of 20 gymnasium classes it should make the local association a beehive of athletic activity.

S. L. Osborne, the new physical director has been busy developing plans for the department.

The gymnasium has been re-decorated and is in harmony with the many changes that have taken place in the Y. M. C. A. building this year.

Registration is now open for all classes and quite a heavy enrollment is looked for in the young men's class which meets Tuesday and Friday nights at 8 o'clock. Any young man over 21 years old is eligible for the class and quite a vigorous type of work will be given.

It is expected that as usual the Businessmen's class, which meets Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 5:15 to 6:15 will be a large one. There is no age or weight limit to this class.

Handball is played a great deal in the local association and the gym floor is reserved every Tuesday and Thursday at 5:15 for the men who care to play. Tournaments will be organized during the year for all players.

Leagues and tournaments will be enjoyed in the various classes for basketball, indoor baseball and volleyball. It is also expected that swimming will play an important part in the season's activities, especially as the "Y" has some very fine material.

Following is the gymnasium class schedule for the several classes: Beginners, 8 to 10 years old—Saturday at 9:15 a. m. Preps, 10 to 12 years old—Saturday at 10 a. m. Cadets, 12 to 14 years old—Tuesdays and Fridays at 4 p. m. Juniors, 14 to 16 years old—Monday at 4 p. m., Thursday at 4 p. m. and Thursday at 5 p. m. for leaders.

Intermediates, 16 to 18 years old, and Seniors, 18 to 20 years old—Tuesday at 7:15 p. m., Thursday from 6 to 7 p. m. for leaders and Friday at 7:15 p. m. P. m. Young men, 21 years old and over—Monday at 6 p. m. for leaders, Tuesday and Friday at 8 p. m.

Business men—Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 5:15 p. m. Women of the Y. W. C. A.—Wednesday at 10 a. m.

Girls of the Y. W. C. A.—Wednesday at 4 p. m. Young women of the Y. W. C. A.—Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. Game periods are announced as follows:

Young men, Thursday at 8 p. m.; Cadets, Saturday at 2 p. m.; Juniors, Saturday at 3 p. m.; Intermediates and Seniors, Monday at 8 p. m. Last week was open house to the boys of the city and over 250 boys enjoyed the privileges of the large gym and fine swimming pool.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN

When the score stood 14 to 14, the football game on Sweetland field yesterday between the Salem high school and the Estacada

Helpful Health Hints

Some doctors are too polite to be truthful. The "regular" deals in prescriptions—the Osteopaths in genuine remedies.

Health is the figure which placed before the zeros of life gives to them their value. Keep your teeth clean and you cheat the dentist; keep your food tube clean and the doctor is cheated.

Men sink into insignificance quite as often by not making the most of good health when they have it as by lacking good health when it is indispensable.

Habit is everything. A good habit is like oil—it reduces friction. A bad habit is like sand in the bearings—it wears out the machinery, and may end in a catastrophe.

The medical profession goes no farther than probabilities, and in every assertion keeps a doubt in reserve. The Osteopath is positive. He knows the cause of disease and will tell you the why and wherefore of everything he does.
