Small Bets Have Been Placed But No Evidence of Game Throwing

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—Efforts to have four members of last year's Salt Lake club testify before the Los Angeles county grand jury in its investigation of alleged corruption in the 1919 pennant race in the Pacific coast baseball league were announced tonight by Frank W. Stafford, deputy district attorney.

They are Earl Maggett, former outfielder, and William Rumber, former right fielder, both now suspended; E. J. Mulligan, third baseman, and Jean Dale, pitcher, who played last season with the Dallas club in the Texas league.

J. Cal Ewing, owner of the Oakland club, who with Charles Graham, manager and part owner of the San Francisco club, is here to co-operate with the grand jury, announced that Maggett, who has been living in Berkeley, Calif., would arrive early tomorrow.

H. W. Lane, owner of the Salt Lake club, telegraphed today his desire to help in the investigation offering to obtain depositions from any members of his team or if preferred, to send them here to appear before the grand jury.

In response to Mr. Lane's offer Mr. Stafford telegraphed a request that he have Rumber, Mulligan and Dale here next Monday, prepared to go before the grand jury in person.

When informed that Dale had not been a member of the Salt Lake club this season, Mr. Stafford said, "then I suppose Mr. Lane will not be able to send him here."

Mullford is expected to be one of the principal witnesses before the grand jury tomorrow, when it resumes its inquiry. Griffith Jones, attorney for W. Baker (Babe) Borton, former first baseman, whose charges of corruption precipitated the investigation, declared "Maggett's testimony was absolutely essential in the grand jury's probe." Maggett is expected by Jones to corroborate Borton's allegations, it is said.

On behalf of Borton, Jones stated today that his client had not told the grand jury he had received money from "sure thing gamblers" with which to pay players for throwing games, but had received all "pay off" money from members of the Vernon club whom he accused of having formed a pool with which to "purchase" help in winning the 1919 league championship. Borton, in an affidavit several weeks ago, named several players of other coast league clubs as the recipients of his "pay-off" money.

Mr. Stafford said tonight he received a call today from one of five alleged gamblers whose names have been brought into the inquiry.

The man, whose name Mr. Stafford did not make public, told the deputy district attorney that while he had bet small sums on baseball games, he knew of no fund formed by gamblers, with which to effect "game throwing."

An open forum meeting was then held, and various speakers urged the need of better school facilities, and plainly stated that in their opinion nothing would relieve the situation but the reopening of the school, which had been provided for this purpose by the taxpayers of the district.

The motion for arbitration did not meet with the approval of the meeting, and the Rhoten motion was the action taken, and added to this Rev. H. N. Aldrich moved that those present pledge themselves to support the Salem hospital, morally and financially, which was carried by a rising vote. It was also voted to support the school board in the work of reopening McKinley school.

Ring Planned to Fix Another World Series

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The special grand jury investigating the baseball scandal today received evidence indicating that a gambling ring had planned to "fix" another world series besides the 1919 one between Cincinnati and Chicago, but that the plans were never carried out, according to Hartley Replogie, assistant state's attorney.

Mr. Replogie refused to say what world series it was.

The jury today heard further evidence concerning the activities of Hal Chase while in the major leagues, delved into the baseball pools conducted in Chicago, and also interested itself in the proposed reorganization of baseball as outlined at a meeting yesterday.

Ban Johnson, American league president and John Heydler, National league head, were the chief witnesses. Other high baseball officials called were excused.

Johnson was said to have presented new evidence concerning gambling which he had gathered in New York and elsewhere.

Baseball Proposal Has Caused Some Friction

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—If the action of eleven major league baseball club owners last night in going on record as favoring abrogation of the national agreement, which governs professional leagues, results in a baseball war, the responsibility will rest with the five American league clubs which have not yet signified their intention of taking part in the proposed reorganization of control of the game, President John Heydler of the National league said tonight in a statement.

The eight National league clubs and the three American league clubs—Chicago, New York and Boston—did not declare war when they advocated control of baseball

GREETINGS, PETE!

Here I am tonight in Winston-Salem where more tobacco is manufactured than in any other place on the face of the earth!

When I knocked off for the day, I buzzed around like a hungry bee in a buckwheat field—up and down long streets of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories!

As the Reynolds enterprise proved out more and more gigantic and I talked with more men about it, I got the real and true answer as to why Camels are so good and so entirely different from any other cigarette! I'll spin it for you, old top—listen:

Every man I talked with made the one big point that the officials and the more than 350 Reynolds foremen have an inborn knowledge of the tobacco business; that (putting it into a North Carolina expression) they were virtually "born and raised in a tobacco patch"; that they know tobacco; how to grade it, blend it, and how to manufacture and sell it!

And, what's most important of all, Pete, these Reynolds folks sure give men what they want—the best that can be produced! Why—Peter, it took months to perfect Camels Turkish and Domestic blend—and that refreshing flavor—and wonderful mild, mellow body!

Tomorrow, I'm going to meet some of the Reynolds folks. Got to see inside of those factories!

And, you know me!
