

HENDRICKS TO COACH ELEVEN

Salem Man Assumes Temporary Command of High School Football Team

"Tubby" Hendricks last night assumed temporary command of the Salem high school eleven with the hope of showing Jefferson high of Portland a real game when the two schools clash Saturday, and it is possible that he will coach the team for the remainder of the season.

The announcement by Superintendent King yesterday was hailed with entire satisfaction on the part of the members of the team. Hendricks is popular with everybody who enjoys clean athletics.

He is an experienced football player, and in addition a fine leader of boys. Up until last night it had not been definitely decided whether he would be able to devote the necessary time. In case it is impossible, the proposal will probably be placed before Everett Brandenberg, last year's captain of the U. O. team, and who is unable to continue with the game due to injuries received last year. Brandenberg is noted for his ability as a half.

thus eliminating the troublesome instructed delegation when the old guard leaders assemble at 2:11 a. m. for their quadrennial conference to pick the presidential nominee for the Republican voters of America?

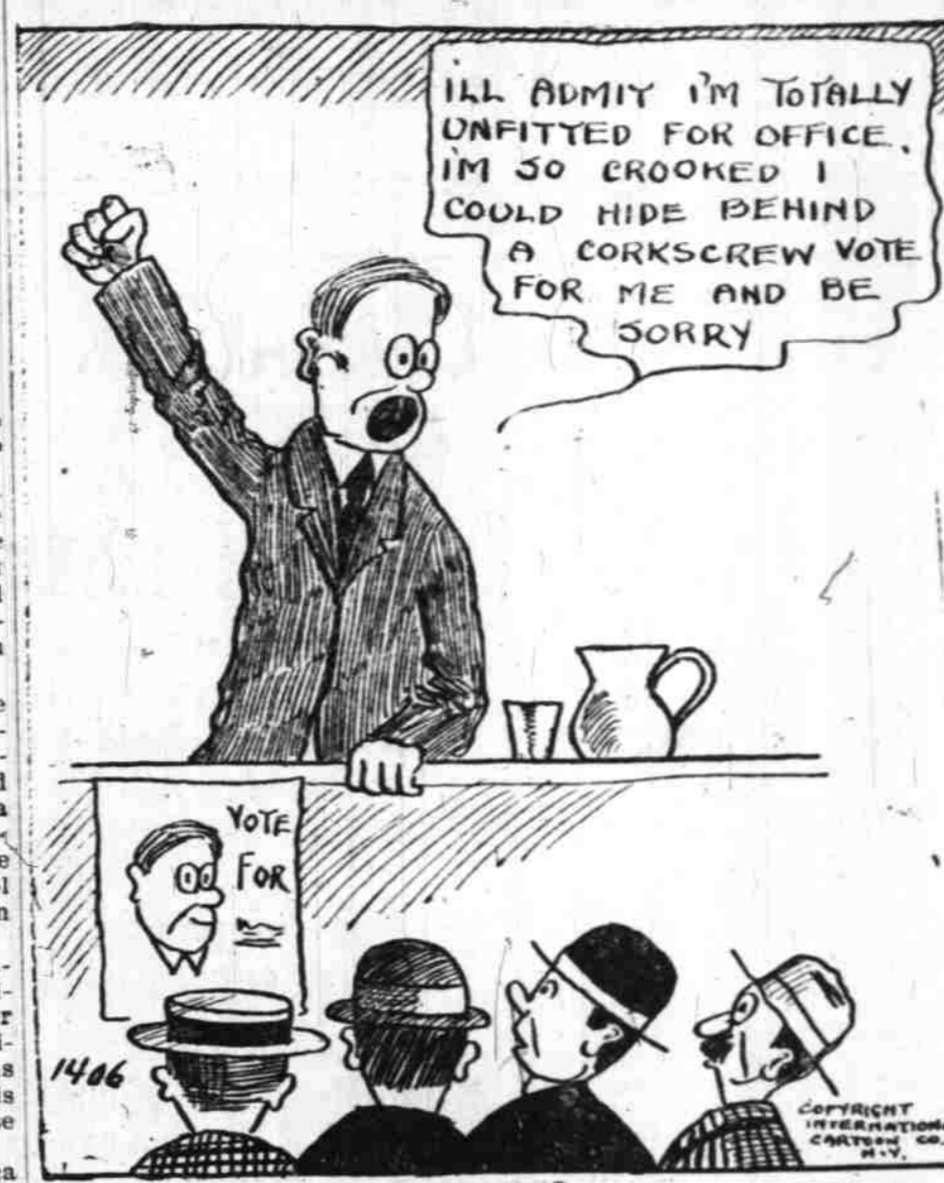

"Do the farmers want a change to a federal administration headed by Senator Harding who declared in 1917 that wheat could be raised at a profit for $1 a bushel?"

"Do the farmers want a change to the type of political control that brought about the agrarian revolt in North Dakota?"

"Do the workmen of America want a change to an administration headed by Senator Harding, who voted for the anti-strike sections of the Cummins bill, although in keeping with his general conduct he would pose now as a friend of labor?"

Colonel Whittlesey Upholds Covenant

SEATTLE, Oct. 28.—Colonel C. W. Whittlesey, who was commander of the famous "lost battalion" in the Argonne offensive, delivered three addresses on the league of nations covenant at the Democratic gatherings here today.

Accompanying Colonel Whittlesey was Herbert Parsons, former member of the Republican executive committee of New York and Mrs. Nancy C. Shoemaker, suffrage worker, "pro-league" speakers.

Logan Brought From State Penitentiary on Charges

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 28.—Robert L. Logan was brought from the state penitentiary today to appear in federal court where he pleaded not guilty to two indictments charging him with perjury in two homestead entry cases. Logan's term will expire November 25 and Assistant United States Attorney Hall Luck asked that his bonds be fixed at $200 to insure his presence at the trial which is dated for December 1.

Baseball War Over New Plan Seems Evident

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—President Byron Baneroff Johnson of the American league and five club owners which have sided with him in all league fights will hold a conference here tomorrow which may decide whether there will be a baseball war over the proposed reorganization of the national game.

Officially the conference is a meeting of the league's board of directors, but unofficially the clubs which Johnson terms the "loyal five", will be present while the three which have opposed the junior circuit president in his administration of league affairs have not been invited.

Meeting with Johnson will be representatives of the Philadelphia, Washington, Cleveland, Detroit and St. Louis clubs. They will take up the proposal made by the eight national league clubs that the National commission be abolished and control of baseball placed in the hands of a "civilian tribunal" of three men financially disinterested in the game.

a control of government by men led by Lodge and Penrose who opposed woman suffrage and every other moral issue and who are just as wrong on all social service problems now as they are on the league of nations? During that portion of the last seven years in which there was a Democratic congress more humanitarian and national welfare legislation was enacted than during the whole history preceding Republican congresses and more of it will be added to the statutes when the women will have rejected the party evasion and misrepresentation.

"Do the small businessmen of the nation want a change in the federal reserve banking system that will prevent a small group of bankers to remain in control of the money power of the country?"

"Do the supporters of fair and honest elections want a change that would mean more power to Senator Watson of Indiana, who engineered the dilatory tactics that prevented action by the senate committee by which Senator Truman Newberry remained a senator for two years after the Michigan election, and after his conviction by a Republican jury in a Republican state for having purchased his seat in the senate?"

"Do the men and women of Irish descent want a change that will mean, according to Senator Harding, that the question of Irish independence shall not be one for the intercession of international America; or do they want a change that will mean the presentation of Ireland's case at the bar of world opinion?"

"Do the men and women of German descent, said to be led by George Sylvester Viereck because of some promise of a separate peace under more favorable terms to Germany want a change from the conditions at Paris where, as everyone knows, Germany would have been cut to pieces like a beefsteak had it not been for the United States; or do they want the influence of the United States in the league of nations to see that questions are settled on the basis of justice, humanity and fair dealing instead of vindictiveness and destruction?"

"Do the former service men want a change that would be nothing more than the repetition of the farce staged by congress when it played horse for over a year with the adjusted compensation question and came to no definite conclusion; or do they want a change to a positive pledge of support for the four-fold plan approved by the American legion at Cleveland?"

"Do the people who regard the supreme court as the greatest bulwark of justice want a change to majority control by reactionary justices selected by a reactionary president?"

"Do the people want a change back to the old conditions that caused Roosevelt to revolt in 1917? Have they forgotten that the men now in control of the Republican party are the same that Roosevelt fought and the people turned out of office? Those men have not changed. It is impossible that the public estimate of them has changed.

"These are the questions," Governor Cox declared, "that have been considered, and to them has come the answer in the acquisition of all the leading progressives and independent Republicans, who in the past few days, have pledged their support through statements in the newspapers."

(From Portland News, Oct. 27, 1920)

The firemen of Salem are asking for the two-plateon. We hope the voters of Salem will not resent advice from us. It is kindly meant and based on our own experience.

Twice the firemen of Portland asked for the two-plateon. The first time it was refused. The voters of Portland experienced the same misgivings that the voters of Salem are experiencing now.

We asked ourselves if it were safe to try the two-plateon, then pretty much of an experiment. Was not the old way the better way?

The question of the two-plateon came up the second time. The firemen won. That was two years ago. We would not go back to the old way. Voters who were the two-plateon's bitter enemies are now its staunchest friends. Because why?

Because the two-plateon has given us increased efficiency, better fire protection and better conditions for the firemen and their families.
