

SOCIETY

PROBABLY no visitor in the Capital City this week was more interesting nor interested than Mrs. Maria Campbell Smith of Portland, whose part in the Jason Lee exercises in the house of representatives Tuesday afternoon, was really the feature of the afternoon.

And her birthplace was Salem, her arrival marking the advent of the first white child in the future capital of Oregon. Her parents were Hamilton and Harriet Campbell, who sailed from New York on the Lausanne, October 9, 1839, under the leadership of Jason Lee, arriving at Ft. Vancouver, June 1, 1840.

When I look back upon all the primitive conditions in this fair valley, I am reminded of the great contrast between the past and the present. Then preachers traveled on foot from station to station or rode upon a "cayuse chitans," weary, hungry and frequently water-soaked.

A charming background of Halloween decorative material surrounded a large group of young folk who were added to the W. C. Young home on North Capitol street last night, when Miss Florence Young and Miss Jeanette Vandervort were joint hostesses for one of the prettiest, merriest parties of the season.

Autumn leaves, rose tips and flowers in all their rich colorings in jardiniere and hanging baskets, and Jack-o'-lanterns, and Halloween novelties converted the lower floors into an Elfland bower. The big attic where witch-hobgoblins and other strange and fearsome folk held forth, was decked with most attractive offerings of forest and field.

big basement, where the party was held, into an out-door bower. There were Halloween novelties, pumpkins, garlands in yellow and black, feathery asparagus and autumn foliage in brilliant colorings.

Pastimes appropriate to the date were participated in, and the supper, which was served at two long tables, featured a menu of doughnuts, apples, nuts and pumpkin pie.

Dr. Don Byrd of Portland is spending the week end with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd, coming over by way of Corvallis where he went to attend the O. A. C.-U. of C. football game.

Miss Grace Lilly and Miss Arletta Kraus of Portland came up yesterday to be the week-end guests of Mrs. R. J. Hendricks.

Mrs. Francis Gray of Cottage Grove was a guest at the home of her son, Clare Gray, on North Capitol street, this week.

The reception for Rev. and Mrs. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, newly appointed pastor of the First Methodist church, and his wife, was one of many delightful affairs of the past week's record.

An elaborate and striking decorative scheme was worked out, with feathery asparagus and rosettes much in evidence, the scarlet berries of both material forming bright punctuations of color.

Mrs. J. A. Mills was in charge of general plans, members of the various circles of the Ladies' Aid societies of the church working under heads to perfect every detail for the big affair.

At the door were J. H. Baker, Ralph Barnes, Mrs. I. L. McAdams, and Mrs. E. V. Ryder. Assisting about the room were Mrs. E. E. Upmeyer, Mrs. Walter Winslow, Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, Mrs. J. B. Littler, Mrs. J. H. Baker and Mrs. Ralph Glover.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown and their children, are visiting relatives and friends in Portland, to remain over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown returned from Portland where they spent the past three weeks with relatives and friends and are passing a few days with their son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr.

Friends here of Miss Margaret Putnam are rejoicing in the news of her proposed return to Salem. She is expected to return during the mid-week from Pendleton where she has been for the past four years, during the time that she has been identified with a big business house.

At the Monday night Sunday School Thinner's Training class Miss Bess Shinn will tell Bible stories in the children's division, the hour to be 8:15 o'clock.

A group of merry young girls enjoyed a delightful Halloween party Friday night at the Frank Jaskoski home, 1051 Chemeketa street, given by Miss Pearl Kappaban, Miss Pauline Marnach and Miss Josephine Jaskoski.

MUSIC lovers are happily anticipating the first number on the Salem Lyceum course which will be Liourance's Little Symphony, and which will be presented at the Armory next Tuesday night.

This symphony, organized and coached by Mr. Liourance, comes as the result of a widespread craving for the best in music. It is an all-string combination which plays sketches from a representative number of symphonies, together with a wide repertoire of the best compositions. It is a company of artists who love only the best in music.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith were others who motored to Corvallis for the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers were among Salem folk visiting in Portland during the week.

A "Society Circus," to be given November 16th was the chief topic discussed at the last regular meeting of the Daughters of Isabella, held this week.

Another committee had the promise of Senor Perdono Hermano to exhibit his sixteen-year-old three headed daughter.

There will be at least a dozen or more sideshows that will make one forget all trials, troubles and tribulations; brighten one's eyes, enliven one's step and lift twenty years off one's age.

After many details for the "circus" had been discussed the members numbering thirty-five repaired to the peacock room at the Gray Belle where a delicious repast was served.

The reason for all this gaiety is: First and most important, sociability; second, to start a fund to purchase the necessary equipment that enables one to enjoy the good dinners the ladies of St. Joseph's church serve.

By this time next year the parish of St. Joseph's Catholic church will have completed a parish hall and school on the corner of Chemeketa and Winter streets.

The members of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's church will be entertained by Mrs. Homer Smith next Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith, who recently disposed of their home here, left Friday for Newport where they will spend the winter.

New arrivals who will be extended a most cordial welcome by Salem folk, will be Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gould Duncan and Andrew Norwood Duncan of New York City, who are expected to reach Portland today.

They plan to locate permanently in the Capital City, for the present being the guests of the former's son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich Moir, and another daughter, Miss Jean Norwood, who have resided here about a year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown left for Newport during the mid-week, expecting to remain there for the winter, in the hope that the change of climate will be beneficial to Mr. Brown's health.

Fully one hundred girls, all members of the Girls' Reserve of the Young Woman's Christian Association, participated in one of the gayest Halloween parties of the week last night in the Association rooms.

Each of the several corps of the Reserve were responsible for different details of the entertainment, some centering their efforts around the decorations, others the refreshments and others the programme.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop were dinner hosts last night, entertaining in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Lord, and Mrs. Bessie Bailey, both of Long Beach, Cal., who have been passing the summer in Salem and who are leaving for their home this week.

Mrs. Pauline Josse returned home the last of the week from Portland where she spent ten days with her daughter, Mrs. George Haack, and son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Josse.

Miss Gertrude Hartman is expected to return Monday from Portland where she has been entertained by friends for a week or more.

Hunt and Miss He'len Hunt in compliment to the employees of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank at Stayton and Stanley Stewart, deputy state bank examiner.

A big pumpkin bowl centered the board filled with marigolds, favors and additional appointments suggesting the Halloween.

Lovers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ringo, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, Edward Bell, Mr. Stewart and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith were others who motored to Corvallis for the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers were among Salem folk visiting in Portland during the week.

A "Society Circus," to be given November 16th was the chief topic discussed at the last regular meeting of the Daughters of Isabella, held this week.

Another committee had the promise of Senor Perdono Hermano to exhibit his sixteen-year-old three headed daughter.

There will be at least a dozen or more sideshows that will make one forget all trials, troubles and tribulations; brighten one's eyes, enliven one's step and lift twenty years off one's age.

After many details for the "circus" had been discussed the members numbering thirty-five repaired to the peacock room at the Gray Belle where a delicious repast was served.

The reason for all this gaiety is: First and most important, sociability; second, to start a fund to purchase the necessary equipment that enables one to enjoy the good dinners the ladies of St. Joseph's church serve.

By this time next year the parish of St. Joseph's Catholic church will have completed a parish hall and school on the corner of Chemeketa and Winter streets.

The members of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's church will be entertained by Mrs. Homer Smith next Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith, who recently disposed of their home here, left Friday for Newport where they will spend the winter.

New arrivals who will be extended a most cordial welcome by Salem folk, will be Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gould Duncan and Andrew Norwood Duncan of New York City, who are expected to reach Portland today.

They plan to locate permanently in the Capital City, for the present being the guests of the former's son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich Moir, and another daughter, Miss Jean Norwood, who have resided here about a year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown left for Newport during the mid-week, expecting to remain there for the winter, in the hope that the change of climate will be beneficial to Mr. Brown's health.

Fully one hundred girls, all members of the Girls' Reserve of the Young Woman's Christian Association, participated in one of the gayest Halloween parties of the week last night in the Association rooms.

Each of the several corps of the Reserve were responsible for different details of the entertainment, some centering their efforts around the decorations, others the refreshments and others the programme.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop were dinner hosts last night, entertaining in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Lord, and Mrs. Bessie Bailey, both of Long Beach, Cal., who have been passing the summer in Salem and who are leaving for their home this week.

Mrs. Pauline Josse returned home the last of the week from Portland where she spent ten days with her daughter, Mrs. George Haack, and son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Josse.

Miss Gertrude Hartman is expected to return Monday from Portland where she has been entertained by friends for a week or more.

only an added attraction to the city of Salem, but a meeting place where all may mingle, with the purpose of giving to each other an incentive to a higher and better community life.

Lovers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ringo, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, Edward Bell, Mr. Stewart and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith were others who motored to Corvallis for the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers were among Salem folk visiting in Portland during the week.

A "Society Circus," to be given November 16th was the chief topic discussed at the last regular meeting of the Daughters of Isabella, held this week.

Another committee had the promise of Senor Perdono Hermano to exhibit his sixteen-year-old three headed daughter.

There will be at least a dozen or more sideshows that will make one forget all trials, troubles and tribulations; brighten one's eyes, enliven one's step and lift twenty years off one's age.

After many details for the "circus" had been discussed the members numbering thirty-five repaired to the peacock room at the Gray Belle where a delicious repast was served.

The reason for all this gaiety is: First and most important, sociability; second, to start a fund to purchase the necessary equipment that enables one to enjoy the good dinners the ladies of St. Joseph's church serve.

By this time next year the parish of St. Joseph's Catholic church will have completed a parish hall and school on the corner of Chemeketa and Winter streets.

The members of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's church will be entertained by Mrs. Homer Smith next Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith, who recently disposed of their home here, left Friday for Newport where they will spend the winter.

New arrivals who will be extended a most cordial welcome by Salem folk, will be Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gould Duncan and Andrew Norwood Duncan of New York City, who are expected to reach Portland today.

They plan to locate permanently in the Capital City, for the present being the guests of the former's son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich Moir, and another daughter, Miss Jean Norwood, who have resided here about a year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown left for Newport during the mid-week, expecting to remain there for the winter, in the hope that the change of climate will be beneficial to Mr. Brown's health.

Fully one hundred girls, all members of the Girls' Reserve of the Young Woman's Christian Association, participated in one of the gayest Halloween parties of the week last night in the Association rooms.

Each of the several corps of the Reserve were responsible for different details of the entertainment, some centering their efforts around the decorations, others the refreshments and others the programme.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop were dinner hosts last night, entertaining in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Lord, and Mrs. Bessie Bailey, both of Long Beach, Cal., who have been passing the summer in Salem and who are leaving for their home this week.

Mrs. Pauline Josse returned home the last of the week from Portland where she spent ten days with her daughter, Mrs. George Haack, and son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Josse.

Miss Gertrude Hartman is expected to return Monday from Portland where she has been entertained by friends for a week or more.

the past officials into a friendly conciate, who, in this way serve as a more substantial support to the chapter.

With Benno Moiseiwitsch, the Russian piano-star, as soloist, said Friday's Oregonian, the Portland Symphony orchestra, Carl Denton, conductor, appeared Wednesday night in the Hellig theater in its first concert of the 1920-21 season and gave such a satisfying concert that all good friends of the orchestra—and they are many—rejoiced.

The audience was a responsive one and made up of all sections of the music community, even out of town visitors being present. It was also a large audience, every seat being occupied. Both soloist and orchestra were liberally applauded. It is gratifying to note that the Portland Symphony orchestra is playing with greater and better finished ensemble than formerly. This is perhaps due to three or more causes: the musicians have played so long together and so harmoniously that constant association makes the spirit of "one for all"; the fact that these musical enthusiasts are at last under a permanent conductor for the season, instead of a different conductor at each concert; and the great happiness they felt in being associated in the creation of the same programme with such an accomplished artist as Mr. Moiseiwitsch.

Mr. Denton conducted with consummate ability, and with so much success that he was publicly complimented by Mr. Moiseiwitsch.

The next concert of the symphony series takes place December 8, with Josef Lhevinne as piano star.

Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denton, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Mrs. W. Everett Anderson, Miss Dorothy Pearce and Miss Elma Weller.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holman and daughter, Grace Elizabeth returned yesterday from their three month's visit to England and the Continent. On their return they came by way of Kentucky, Tennessee and California, making sojourns in each place.

Past Worthy Matrons of Chadwick Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star were entertained informally in the lodge room in Masonic Temple Friday night by Mrs. W. Carlton Smith. General business matters of interest to the organization were discussed, the principal reason for these affairs, which are annual, being to bring

Mrs. Ruth Brown, Mrs. Louisa Frank, Mrs. Lillian Cherrington, Mrs. Alice Coolidge, Mrs. Cordelia Capper, Mrs. Marion Derry, Mrs. Marie Flint, Mrs. Eugenia Godfrey, Mrs. Ida Godfrey, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Josie La Meyers, Miss

Minnie Mosher, Mrs. Elizabeth Road, Mrs. Elizabeth Shafer, Mrs. Estella Smith, Mrs. Lotta Smith, Mrs. Josephine Vasa, Mrs. Margaret Witchock and Mrs. Faye Wright.

If ever a tire received a real welcome from American car owners, the Republic Grande Cord is that tire.

That it is more than living up to Republic reputation for longer life is a source of satisfaction to us.

A Republic Grande Cord on your car will show how far cord tire construction has advanced.

SALEM AUTOMOBILE CO.

F. G. Delano A. I. Eoff Salem-Dallas

REPUBLIC GRANDE CORD TIRES

WM. FARNUM In "IF I WERE KING" Starts Tues. at The Oregon

Vote for A Two Platoon System 500 YES

IT GIVES 100% EFFICIENCY AND 100% RESERVE FORCE AT ALL TIMES

ENDORSED BY

CITY COUNCIL, COMMERCIAL CLUB, LABOR COUNCIL, BUSINESS MEN'S LEAGUE

IT GIVES A FIREMAN A 12 HOUR DAY INSTEAD OF 24

It Does Not Double The Amount of Men

(Paid Adv. Salem Firemen)