"Homes and Haunts— Of Humankind" is the title of a series of beautifully colored pictures to be shown at the First Congregational church this evening. You will want to see them.

Collide at Corner— Ernest N. Branson, 1195 South Twelfth street, while driving an automobile west on Court street, at the intersection of Liberty, collided with another machine, the driver of which did not stop. The Branson car sustained a broken wheel and a bent fender, but apparently the other machine was not seriously damaged.

Rigdon and Son— Reliable funeral directors.

Attention R. P. O. E.— Full election returns will be received at Elks club Tuesday evening. Western Union direct wire and operator at club, and will remain until full returns are in.

For Attorney General, Vote for— X—L. H. Van Kinkle. (Pd. ad.)

Dog Killed— A dog had its back broken yesterday as a result of being run over at Cottage and Union streets. Chief of Police Welsh responded to the call sent in, and put the dog out of its misery by shooting it. The incident apparently served as the "last straw" to residents in the vicinity, as complaints were registered regarding the delivery wagons speeding in that district, and it was asserted they made it dangerous for anything to appear on the streets.

For Attorney General, Vote for— X—L. H. Van Kinkle. (Pd. ad.)

Officers Will Meet— Wednesday afternoon in the Commercial club the officials of the Marion County Children's bureau will meet for an important business session; the principal issue being to solve the problem of securing and paying a nurse to take charge of the follow-up work of the organization. This effort has grown to considerable proportions, more than can be attended to by the county nurse, and as the fee charged at the clinics for registration is so very small, not enough money can be realized in this way to meet the demand. Any one who is interested in the welfare of Marion county's babies is invited to assist in the undertaking, either with funds or suggestions.
