LEAGUE IS CAMPAIGN'S BIG ISSUE

hatching a plot to defeat the league.

"After tomorrow," continued the governor, "one of the conspirators will be a private citizen residing at Marion, Ohio."

Many in the crowd arose, cheering the governor's prediction.

Governor Cox said that the covenant of the league aims to remove the causes of war. He denied that England would have six votes to one of the United States in the league. Further, he asserted the league would not interfere with Ireland becoming a separate nation, but he contended that Ireland's best chance for freedom was through the league.

Denial was made that America's entrance into the league would permit American soldiers being sent abroad without a declaration of war by congress.

"I cannot tell where Senator Harding stands on the league question for I have not read today's newspapers," said Governor Cox.

"Can anyone tell where he stands?"

After a brief pause, a voice in the crowd answered: "Guess not."

Position Recounted.

The governor then recounted what he said were several of the "many positions on the league," taken by the Republican candidate, asserting that Senator Harding was attempting "to wiggle and wobble" into the presidency.

The election of Harding, he continued, would be a mixed mandate on the league. Every group of voters opposing the league, he added, favors the senator's election.

"Every traitor in America will vote tomorrow for Warren G. Harding," declared Governor Cox.

Urging the league's adoption, Governor Cox said that worldwide prosperity would follow.

"If we don't go into the league of nations," he said, "you will have smokeless chimneys in Toledo for a long time to come. In six months bankers will be calling their loans if we are not in the league."

DECISION OF COUN-TRYMEN IS AWAITED

Harding Finishes Strong.

Although he has spent most of the last month on the stump, Mr. Harding finishes the campaign in robust condition physically. He presents a picture of health and vigor. His voice, slightly creaked by speech-making and exposure, has almost regained its normal ring and tone.

In all, since his nomination in June, the senator has made 181 speeches, long and short. By far the greatest number were delivered from the rear platform of his train during his travels over 16 states. Thirty-three were delivered from the front porch and 36 at other places in Ohio.

He has made 20 speeches in Indiana, 20 in Iowa, 16 in West Virginia, 11 in Missouri, eight in Kentucky, seven in Illinois, six in Oklahoma, five in New York, five in Tennessee, four in Minnesota, three in Kansas, three in Pennsylvania, two in Nebraska, one in Wisconsin and one in Maryland.

First Vote for Husband.

Mrs. Harding, who has been at his side during every speech and has busied herself unceasingly about his headquarters, has not been so fortunate as her husband in escaping the ill effects of travel and campaign excitement. During the last trip, which ended on Saturday night in Columbus, she took a heavy cold and today she remained in bed until nearly noon.

It was said her illness was not at all alarming and that a good rest and protection from the raw autumn weather would soon restore her to normal health. She said tonight that she expected to go to the polls tomorrow with Mr. Harding and cast her first vote for him for the presidency.

Vacation Is Planned.

After election day there will be a vacation for the senator and his wife, but detailed plans for it have not yet been announced.

The voting booth where the senator and Mrs. Harding will cast their ballots tomorrow is in a small garage about a block from their home. The precinct has been normally democratic. This year the political signs are not convincing, however, for the precinct's greater number of women first voters than there are men.

EACH PARTY HOLDS CLAIM TO VICTORY

will gather at their respective headquarters here tomorrow night to receive the returns.

Coolidge Will Be at Capital.

In Boston, capital of the state whose chief executive he is, Calvin Coolidge, republican vice presidential nominee, will learn whether or not next year he is to move to Washington.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, former assistant secretary of the navy and democratic opponent of Governor Coolidge, will watch the progress of the struggle from his home in Hyde Park, N. Y.

Eugene V. Debs, presidential candidate of the socialist party, nominated to run with Seymour Steadman, Chicago lawyer, will have the usual experience of receiving returns from an election in which he is a candidate while in a prison cell. He is in the Atlanta penitentiary, where he is confined for violation of the espionage act. While his party leaders hold no hope of capturing electoral votes, they express conviction that they will poll a vote two or three times as great as that of 1916.

Election a Unique One.

In a presidential year unique in the number of parties with candidates in the field, other contenders for the presidency and vice presidency are:

Prohibition, A. S. Watkins and Leigh Colvin.

Farmer-Labor, Parley P. Christensen and Max Hayes.

Single Tax, Robert C. MacAnley and Richard C. Barnum.

Socialist-Labor, William W. Cox and August Gillhaus.

In all, 531 members of the electoral college will have to be chosen and of these 266 will be required for election of a presidential candidate. In the last election President Wilson had 277.

The twenty-six aldermen of the city of London are chosen for life.

In Iceland gull flesh is one of the winter foods of the people.

OUCH! LAME BACK RUB LUMBAGO OR BACKACHE AWAY

Rub Pain Right Out with Small Trial Bottle of Old "St. Jacobs Oil."

Kidneys cause Backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

STREETS WILL BE GRAVELED

Action is Taken at Council Meeting—High Street Grade Puzzles

At the meeting of the city council last night action was taken for the graveled of several streets, provided, however, that money to pay for the gravel is first deposited with the city recorder. The streets named were South Seventeenth street, from Trade to Mill; Lefelle street, from Sakinaw to Fir; Trade street from Eighteenth to Nineteenth; east half of Gaines street, from Church to Fifth; and west half of Shipping street from Broadway to Fifth street.

The North High street grade, which has been pronounced as "unsatisfactory" by the residents of that district, is still a matter for consideration on the part of the council. After listening to a report of Alderman Giesy, chairman of the special committee, and also remarks by Mr. Berger, a resident on the street, it was decided to give the matter further investigation, and ascertain, if possible the position the property holders take regarding a change in the plans of the grade should a change in the present plans be thought feasible.

The question arose as to the responsibility of the city where sewers are being dug up, from 12 to 18 feet deep, when a curbing is not used, and Alderman Moore stated that the state insurance company would bear the expense of any accidents which might result under such conditions.

BIG SALES NEGOTIATED

ical weakness, and that through the sales made by the Oregon growers, a firm market was maintained during the entire season.

It is also a fact known by many growers not members of the association, that the price would have been nearer 10 cents a pound than 13 cents, had not the Oregon Growers, through its sales, maintained a firm market.

The story of maintaining prices during the season is also true of cherries. Through the efforts of the association, the price was maintained at 13 cents a pound when there were signs of a weak market. And it is also a fact that many growers were able to dispose of their cracked cherries to the association, saving them a total of more than $13,000, which would otherwise have been a total loss.

Plum Money Pick-up.

Plums, which are not seriously regarded as a money-maker, brought the growers through the association, a total of $2,142.70. To a large extent, this plum money was mainly a pick-up for growers in the Salem district. All brought good prices, one variety selling as high as $3.60 a bushel.

About the only apple sold up to October 1 was the Gravenstein which had brought to members of the association $2,033.14. Other varieties brought the total sales to $2,142.70. These figures give returns of just the beginning of the season as it is estimated that fully 600 cars will be shipped in addition, before the close of the season.

TIDE FOR COX IS MOONSHINE

Thirty Five States Listed Sure for Harding and Coolidge

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—John T. Adams, vice chairman of the Republican national committee in charge of western headquarters, tonight made public a final election prediction in which he expressed the belief that "every northern and every western state will go for the Republican national ticket."

"Latest reports we are receiving are the best. Democratic claims of an eleventh hour tide in Governor Cox's favor are mere moonshine. There is no such tide. On the contrary, without exception in the last three days, the dispatches from the field have grown more favorable from hour to hour. At the close of the campaign these 35 states with 392 electoral votes must be listed as sure for Harding and Coolidge:

"California, 13; Colorado, 6; Connecticut, 7; Delaware, 3; Idaho, 4; Illinois, 29; Indiana, 15; Iowa, 13; Kansas, 10; Kentucky, 13; Maine, 6; Maryland, 8; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 15; Minnesota, 12; Missouri, 18; Montana, 4; Nebraska, 8; Nevada, 3; New Hampshire, 4; New Jersey, 14; New Mexico, 3; New York, 45; North Dakota, 5; Ohio, 21; Oregon, 5; Pennsylvania, 38; Rhode Island, 5; South Dakota, 5; Utah, 4; Vermont, 4; Washington, 7; West Virginia, 8; Wisconsin, 13; Wyoming, 3. Total, 392.

"The sure Cox states are the ten in the solid south, with a total of 114 electoral votes. The only states left to be considered are then:

"Tennessee, Arizona and Oklahoma. Cox will probably carry Tennessee with its 12 electoral votes. In Arizona and Oklahoma his chances are even—no better. If he were to carry all three, he would add only 25 to his solid south and have a total of 139. That is the Cox and Roosevelt high water mark. I do not expect them to reach it. Harding and Coolidge will have 392 electoral votes out of 531, and they may pass 400."

Flood Asserts Democrats Will Overturn Majority

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Chairman Flood of the Democratic national congressional committee issued a statement tonight asserting his claim that the Democrats would overturn the Republican majority in the house and adding the prediction that Democratic members would be elected in Idaho and Washington, as well as in the states previously mentioned in claims of gains.

"We will hold the two Democrats from Utah," he added.

Referring to the election prediction by Chairman Fess of the Republican congressional committee, Mr. Flood said this was "the most glaring" of many "striking examples of Republican misrepresentation and misstatement."

"He says the Republican gain of 20 members in certain states will result from gains of 'one member each in Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Michigan and Nebraska.'"
