

SOCIETY

By MOLLY BRUNK

EVERYTHING in society gives place to the Harold Henry concert at the Grand theatre tonight, the young artist being presented under the auspices of the Salem Musical bureau. Mrs. W. Everett Anderson, head of the bureau, and her local coworkers have been working systematically for the success of the concert, and in bringing the event before residents of valley towns they have been assisted by Mrs. Gertrude Cameron, in Silverton; Miss Lucille Emmons in Albany; Miss Ida Schuelty in Monmouth and Miss Joy Turner in Woodburn.

The program to be presented tonight will include one of Mr. Henry's own compositions, which has never failed in meeting with the enthusiastic approval of the audience whenever given. Following the Salem concert Mr. Henry goes on to San Francisco, where on Sunday afternoon, he fills an engagement with the Symphony orchestra of that city.

Tonight he will present the following program:

Preamble and minuet, from

Partita in G.....Bach
Gigue.....Vivaldi-Bach
Etudes, Op. 25, No. 7, Op. 10, No. 7.....Chopin
Scherzo, Op. 20.....Chopin
Keltic Sonata.....MacDowell
Valley of the Belles.....Ravell
Will O' the Wisp.....Palmgren
Ballad, Op. 65, No. 5.....Grieg
The Dancing Marionette.....Harold Henry
Caprice Espagnole.....Moszkowsky

Hoping to surprise their many friends, Ivan G. Martin and Miss Hannah Seautoff quietly stole away to Seattle and were married on Armistice day. The bride has not been a resident of Salem for long. She is an accomplished musician, has travelled extensively, and lived abroad a number of years. Everyone knows Mr. Martin, musician, attorney-at-law, and for two terms representative in the state legislature. The good wishes of all await their return.

Miss Bertha Sroat of Pasadena, Cal., is the house guest of Mrs. George E. Waters.

Miss Bertha Craik returned Wednesday night from Portland, where she spent the midweek.

Mrs. Lee Schmidt had as her guest this week Mrs. Joseph Sternberg of Portland, who motored down.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stolz are entertaining as house guests for several days, Mrs. L. D. Heater and son, Lyle of Portland.

Cotillion hall was the scene of one of the gayest and altogether delightful social affairs Wednesday night, ever taking place in the big room, when nearly 85 merrymakers, made up of members of the Salem Symphony orchestra, their families and a few close friends, participated in their get-together social session, which will be followed by others at intervals of about six week apart throughout the winter.

Instrumental music, singing of songs and a general good time filled the hours, a cafeteria supper rounding out the evening. Decorations of flags, autumn foliage and flowers made the hall especially attractive for the affair.

Mrs. P. C. Baker of Lafayette, Ore., is visiting friends in Salem.

Tomorrow will be Americanization day for the Salem Woman's club. Reports from the delegates to the Marion County Federation convention held in Woodburn in October will be heard and there will also be a social hour. The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Commercial club.

Mr. and Mrs. Millar McGilchrist will go to Eugene today to remain over the week-end and participate in various "Homecoming" activities. Mrs. McGilchrist will be entertained at the Delta Delta Delta, and Mr. McGilchrist will be a guest of his fraternity, the Sigma Chi.

The Pythian Sisters have come forward and offered assistance to the American War Mothers in their preparations for the bazaar to be held in the Armory the last of November. They are asking all members and friends of the organization to contribute articles that could be used in a cradle-bag, or articles of general utility being them with Mrs. A. B. Gardner at the Gardner & Keene jewelry store, who will see that they are turned over to the committee of the order, who will meet at the home of Mrs. Cox, corner Thirteenth and Chemeketa streets Thursday night to wrap them for the bazaar. All money will be given to the War Mothers for their work.

Miss Pauline Remington and Miss Evelyn DeLong left the first of the week for Newport, where they will spend about three weeks.

The annual Thanksgiving Tea of the First Presbyterian church will be held in the church parlors this afternoon, women of the congregation to be the hostesses. A program in honor of the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims will be featured.

There will be devotional exercises and the annual thank offering. An historical sketch of the Pilgrim fathers will be given by Mrs. Roy Chies; Mrs. Philip Gilbert will discuss the relation to religion; Mrs. E. W. Rosebraugh, their relation to education. There will be piano solos by Miss Mildred Brunk, vocal numbers by Mrs. L. G. Bulgin, and singing by eight girls from the Chemawa Indian school.

Mrs. Ralph Harris of Portland will arrive today to remain over the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Liston.

Mrs. J. W. LaFollette of Portland, arrived last Sunday, and is a guest for the week at the home of Senator A. M. LaFollett.

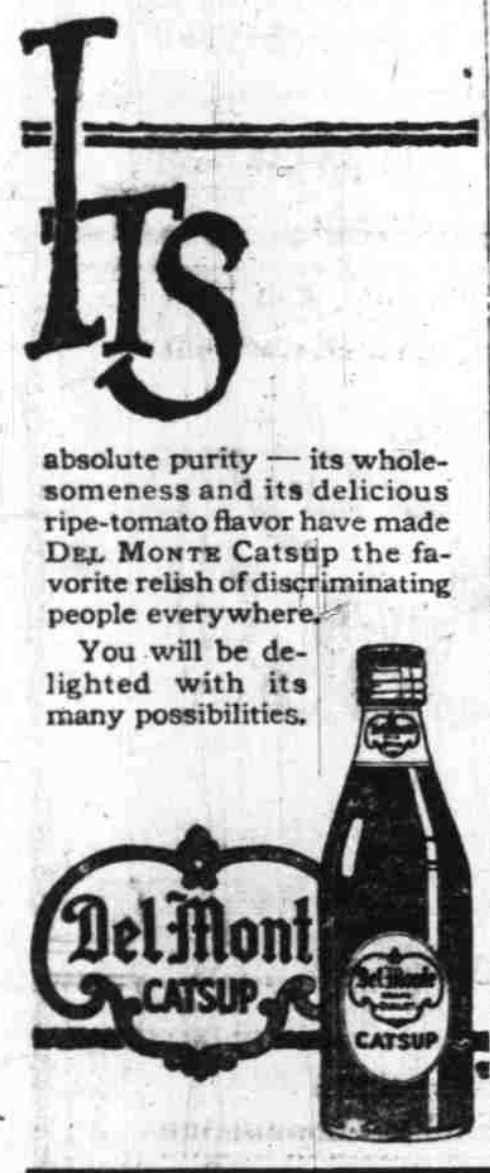

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church was entertained on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. A. Lege.

The devotions were led by Mrs. C. A. Clark. The lesson, "Christ, The Evangelist Missionary," was ably presented by Mrs. M. B. Paroungian. Miss Laurel Blatchford rendered a solo "The Lord My Light," which was much appreciated by her hearers. A unique part of the program was a dialogue between "Miss Friend," directed by Eugene, Savice, Artibus Rudie, and Margaret Barquest. The next regular monthly meeting will be with Mrs. F. H. Thompson.

Wood Lumber company, was launched tonight by the Peninsula Shipbuilding company, the builders sacrificing the advantage of daylight in order to gain the effect of what little tide reaches Portland. Although a scant depth of water prevails at present at the end of the ways, the launching was performed without mishap. Mrs. J. R. Berthoff, sister of Mrs. F. A. Hart, acted as sponsor.

"Now ma'am!" cried the cross-examining lawyer, "was the defendant's air when, as you allege, he promised to marry you, perfectly serious, or was it, on the contrary, jocular and full of levity?"

"It was all ruffled," replied the plaintiff, "with 'im runnin' 's hands through it!"—London Titbits.

To Look Young Quickly For Special Occasion

How often have you gazed and gazed at your face in the mirror and wondered what you could do to look your prettiest, and try what you would do just couldn't get the desired result? Next time your face looks unattractive, exhibiting a careworn and weary appearance, and embarrassed with fine lines, here's something that will quickly transform it into one of youthful freshness.

Just get an ounce of powdered salolite or your detergent, mix this with about a half pint of witch hazel and rub over your face in the solution for two or three minutes. Immediately after you feel a "firming up" of the skin and underlying tissue, which, naturally, irons out the little wrinkles, worry marks and flabbiness. The contour and general appearance of your face are so improved, you will be glad you heard of this simple and harmless method.

Jail is Just Home for Building Profiteers

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Jail for building profiteers as one means of lessening the housing shortage was advocated today by Senator Kenyon of Iowa in discussing the situation with witnesses appearing before the senate housing committee at its first session here.

Senator Kenyon repeatedly asked witnesses if they did not think more drastic laws for profiteers would reduce the housing shortage and told one witness that he "thought putting a few of the building profiteers in jail would help a lot."

Senator Calder, chairman of the committee, told several witnesses he thought a quick revision of federal tax laws back to pre-war basis would help, declaring that heavy taxes made investors shun real estate. Most of the witnesses apparently could give Senator Calder little information concerning the effect revised tax laws would have. Chicago is two and one-half years behind its building program, Building Commissioner Boston said.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through the hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color, and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.
