

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Coffee Today—A coffee will be given by the women of the Jason Lee Memorial church this afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. C. Rosenberger, 698 North Liberty street.

Vandeville Today—At the Bligh theatre.

Basket Social Planned—Mrs. Mary L. Fulkerson, county superintendent of schools visited the Clear Lake and Mission Bottom schools yesterday. She reports the Clear Lake school patrons are preparing to hold a basket social Friday night and the patrons of the Mission Bottom school will give an entertainment Saturday night. On both occasions Thanksgiving day sentiments will be given a prominent place on the program.

One Cent Sale—Nov. 18-19-20. Perry's Drug store.

License Issued—A marriage license was granted yesterday by the county clerk to Anna A. Mittelstad of Jefferson and Charles N. DeGel of Seattle.

Bingham to Lakeview—To assist in cleaning up the docket in the circuit court at Lakeview, Judge George C. Bingham, of this district, expects to go to Lakeview December 11. He will preside over some cases in which the newly appointed judge of the district, J. M. Batchelder, is personally interested and because of which Judge Batchelder is disqualified.

Fresh Salmon 7 Cents—Fitts Market, phone 211.

Sleep In Jail—John Riley and Donald Burnett were given a night's lodging in the county jail Monday night.

Man Not Injured—An elderly man stepped off the curb at State and Thirteenth streets yesterday in front of a passing automobile and was struck down by a fender on the machine and carried a short distance before the driver could stop, according to a report made to the police, by Clare Scott, driver of the automobile. Mr. Scott said the man was not injured and he took him to his home.

Photographs for Christmas—The very thing you want, to supply your many friends with acceptable gifts. Parker-Shrode studio.

Ordinance Violated—An automobile bearing license number 42219 and recorded as belonging to C. M. Laffont of Amity was reported to the police as passing a street car which was stopped to receive and unload passengers at the intersection of State and Commercial streets.

Rigdon and Son—Reliable funeral directors.

Don't Ever Marry—Last times today. Liberty theater.

Cycles Disturb Service—Consideration on the part of all motorcycle riders in passing buildings in which services are being held is requested for the future. A complaint sent to the police station from South Commercial street will undoubtedly make the request imperative. It appears from the complaint that the evening services held at Leslie Methodist church have been greatly disturbed by the frequency with which motorcycles pass the church with mufflers wide open. Services of the church have been disturbed for some time by this practice which is considered entirely unnecessary, and the request that it be stopped will be granted. Police Officer Moffitt was detailed to attend to the matter.

Crucifix—By McCormack and Werreuth ask to hear this sacred record. H. L. Stiff Furn. Co.

Cars Damaged—An automobile collision occurred yesterday at the intersection of Chemeketa and Capitol streets when automobiles driven by C. T. Haynes and E. W. Muller collided. Both of the machines were somewhat damaged but no one was injured.

Intruder in Basement—A call was sent to the police station Monday night by Robert B. Duncan, 611 South Commercial street, that there was someone in the basement of his home and an officer was wanted to investigate. Police Officers Victor and Brown answered the call, and found the basement window had been jimmied, through which an entrance into the basement had been gained. However, it appeared that the intruder had been frightened away.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.

Jury Trial Started—The case of Harry Loomis charged with cruelty to animals, will be given a hearing before Judge Earl Race today at 3 p. m. Loomis has engaged an attorney and has demanded a jury trial.

Must Follow Law—The state land board cannot legally sell lands unless the same has been advertised for a period of 60 days in each of at least two newspapers of general circulation, one of which must be published in the county where the lands are to be sold, says an opinion of Attorney General Van Winkle written for G. G. Brown, clerk of the land board. The question arose through failure of the Coos Bay Harior to publish the notice of the proposed sale of tide lands in Coos county for the full period of 60 days, while the Marshfield Record published the legal period. The attorney general holds that the state must be followed.

Story Tellers Meet—The story tellers group of the Salem Arts league will meet in the educational room of the Salem public library tonight at 7:20 o'clock.
