ONE of the most interesting celebrations taking place for some time in Salem was the family reunion and birthday commemoration which was held Sunday at the home of Jesse Macy, 193 Miller street, when he celebrated his 81st anniversary. Present at this time were his brothers, Seth Macy of Elk Grove, Calif., who was 82 the day previous, and William Macy, of Carlson, Neb., who was 79 last June. Three sons and two daughters also of the honoree also participated in the festivities. They were A. M. Macy of Eugene, Edwin S. and Pearl Macy of Portland, B. E. Macy and Mrs. Edmund May of Salem and Lillian Lynam, a granddaughter of Salem.

Miss Grace Cameron, listed on the program as "the woman of character", with the George A. White company at the Grand theater Tuesday night, is an honorary member of the Portland Press club, being elevated to that position several years ago, after a complimentary performance before club members. Miss Cameron wired the club during her stay in Salem Tuesday, that she would repeat the courtesy, previous to her appearance at the Heilig last night.

Salem members of the Portland Press club are W. A. Pettit, local representative of the Oregonian, and Stephen A. Stone, city editor of the Statesman and correspondent for the Telegram.

Dr. Gertrude Minthorn will arrive tomorrow from Newport where she has been with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Minthorn and will remain over the week-end with Mrs. B. J. Miles. Dr. Min-thorn will be a principal speaker at the Friends quarterly meeting which convenes Friday and Saturday. She will speak Friday evening at the South Salem Friends church.

Mrs. Frederick Thielsen returned last night from a brief visit in Portland.

Mrs. A. Klein returned Tuesday night from a "week-end" absence, the time being divided between Vancouver, B. C., where she was the guest of her sister Mrs. J. W. Willson, formerly of Salem, and in Seattle, where she was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Willson, also former Salem folk, and other relatives and friends. In Portland she was joined by her mother Mrs. John Lewis for a short visit.

Mrs. Lee Canfield will entertain the members of the Amicus club at its first meeting of the year, this afternoon at her home on South High street. This social organization, which has been formed several years, includes as members Mrs. William J. Burick, Mrs. William Cravatt, Mrs. Charles Knowland, Mrs. E. Kurtz, Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mrs. C. Doolittle, Mrs. A. Chapman, Mrs. L. N. Simon, Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mrs. H. O. White, Mrs. Loose and Mrs. Canfield.

A merry group of friends of Ernest L. Kapphahn dropped in without previous announcement, at his home 1406 Court street, Monday night, their arrival occasioning a pleasant surprise. The call was in celebration of his birthday. Cards filled in the hours, high scores being tallied to Charles Knowland, Mr. Kapphahn receiving the consolation. Later a collation was served by Miss Pearl Kapphahn and Miss Pauline Marnach.

Those who participated in this affair were Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Schei, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Bevier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knowland, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marnach, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Albert (Biddie) Bishop.

The following item from the society page of the Eugene Guard is of interest: "Miss Kate Chatburn, of the class of '21, and Clara Calkins, of the class of '22, were on the campus for the coming year. Miss Calkins is teaching school at Klamath Falls and Miss Chatburn is working in the state house at Salem. Both girls were members of the University Girls' Glee club and of Mu Phi Epsilon.

Mrs. E. A. McElvain entertained as her guests over the week-end her cousin Miss Dolly Morrell of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Irma Becker of Portland.

Men of the Order of the Eastern Star were hosts Tuesday night entertaining the feminine members of the organization with a delightful program in their rooms in the Pacific temple. Numbers alternated with music and readings, Miss Clara taking part being; Leslie Springer, vocal solo; Dr. John R. Sites, instrumental; Miss Gertrude Aldrich, vocal solo, the entire assemblage taking part in mass singing, led by Rev. H. N. Aldrich.

Heading the committee in charge was Hugh Rogers, and assisting him were: W. W. Moore, Glenn Niles, Dr. O. A. Olson, R. K. Page, George F. Peed, M. C. Pettit, Dr. W. P. C. A. B. Smith, Frank Reeves, T. A. Reinhardt, Walter Smith, Linn C. Smith, E. A. Shaver, Robert Simpson, F. A. Turner, Amas Vass and David Wright.

A birthday anniversary of W. F. Drager inspired the assembly of a group of his friends Saturday night, who planned their arrival at his home on Fir street as a surprise celebration. They took with them a big birthday cake, and other things necessary for a supper, serving them at the conclusion of the evening which was passed with music and delightful informal entertainment.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Emil Aufrance, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Campbell, Mrs. C. A. B. Smith, Delano, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mishler, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McElvain, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Nichols, Thelma Martin, Cynthia Delano, James Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Drager, Marion Drager and Glen Drager.

The reception Monday night to Dr. J. J. Evans, incoming pastor of the First Christian church, Mrs. Evans and their daughter Margaret was a most enjoyable event, largely attended by members of the congregation and their friends. The main program was given in the church auditorium which was brightened with autumn foliage, potted plants and white chrysanthemums. Refreshments were served afterwards in the church parlors which were attractively decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. A large basket bearing these flowers and topped by a big bow of tulle centered the serving table, candles in the same shade adding to the color scheme.

Thomas B. Kay was in charge of the program, which included brief speeches of welcome by James P. Elvin, Mrs. W. C. Kantner, Rev. Mr. Putnam, and members of prominence in the church. Miss Lena Belle Tartar furnished vocal numbers and there were instrumental contributions by the Wenger string quartet composed of Mrs. Alice Wenger, Miss Trista Wenger, Carl Wenger and Ira Cave.

Several committees were named to perfect plans for the event. Mrs. D. D. Olmstead was head of the general committee which included Mrs. Flora Clark and J. W. Harris. On the reception committee were Mrs. O. J. Hull, Mrs. E. W. Cooley, Mrs. Adams Burns, Mrs. Thomas Brunk, Mrs. J. W. Harritt, Mrs. Edward Townsend, Mrs. A. M. Hansen, Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mrs. John Riggs, Mrs. Ben Walcher, Miss Beaver, Miss Trista Wenger, Mrs. M. N. Ransom, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. W. H. Cave. Composing the refreshment committee were Mrs. H. J. Clements, Mrs. Will May, Mrs. Cass, Mrs. Nona White. In charge of decorations were Mrs. John Humphreys, Mrs. Richard, Mrs. J. T. Hunt, Mrs. Frank Zinn, and Mrs. Charles Lee. The program committee was headed by O. J. Hull and included Ira Cave and Ben Walcher.

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

The Story of a Honeymoon

A Wonderful Romance of Married Life Wonderfully Told by ADELE GARRISON

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE... CHAPTER 748

WHY THE "OTHER MRS. GRAHAM" IS INTERESTED.

Although I don't like the phrase, "the prey of mixed emotions," it certainly is descriptive of my feelings when, upon looking at the photograph of the other Mrs. Graham's oldest son, I realized that his fantastic imaginings were all the merest moonshine—that Captain Hugh Grantland was Captain Hugh Grantland still, and as such as fascinating a mystery as ever.

Relief—that was the predominant feeling—relief that my hostess had no faintest inkling of the absurd theory with which I had looked at the photograph of her son and his family. I was relieved also—but the feeling was one of which I wasn't particularly proud—to find that the wounded officer had not given me, a false impression, that he was in all probability what he had signified in his graphic word picture—a poor devil with no home to speak of.

Chasing—nay, more, humilitation—was also my portion. To think that I had allowed myself

PIMPPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 50c.
