It will be almost useless to endeavor to differentiate in the matter of who will attend the O. A. C. U. of O. football game tomorrow in Corvallis for it transpires that a very large portion of the Capital city is going. Some just for the game in the afternoon with a good round number of the young folk remaining over for the big dance in the evening, and to be with sorority and fraternity friends over Sunday.

Then there is also the high school game in Eugene today that is claiming many football enthusiasts. Among those who will witness both games will be Miss Macyle Hunter and Miss Alice McClellan, who will go on to Corvallis from Eugene, to remain for the week-end at the latter place. Miss Ruth Mase will join them in Corvallis, to return home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Savage are leaving Saturday morning for southern California, where they expect to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Greene are being welcomed back to Salem, from several months absence, the time being passed on their homestead near Roseburg.

Among Salem folk visiting in Portland this week are Mrs. R. D. Barton and Miss Lucille Barton, who went down Wednesday morning to attend the Horse Show and Livestock exposition.

A. Mills in the Baker apartment, 545 Court street, Wednesday afternoon.

The earlier portion of the afternoon was devoted to a business session in the Baker apartment, a delightful bit of diversion following with stereoscopic slides of some of the well-known women of the church, the photographs for which were taken years previously. Later Mrs. E. E. Upmeyer spoke entertainingly of her trip through southern California, and Mrs. J. H. Baker of her visit to the Yellowstone, both illustrating their talks with the stereoscopic views.

At the serving hour guests adjourned to the Mills apartment where a beautifully appointed table was arranged, centered with yellow chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for twenty. Mrs. Evans assisting.

Mrs. U. G. Shipley will entertain the members of the junior auxiliary of St. Paul's church, at her home this afternoon.

The regular monthly meeting of the West Central Circle of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church was held at the residence of the president, Mrs. J. J. Chambers, last night.

A very pretty wedding was that of Miss Alma Russell and Carl Lentz which took place Sunday at 2 o'clock at the beautiful country home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lentz, near Macleay. Rev. George Koehler of Salem performing the ceremony, in the presence of members of the immediate families and a few friends.

The rooms were attractively decorated with mountain ferns, chrysanthemums and ferns, a nuptial arch being arranged for the ceremony.

Mrs. Mayo McKinney sang "At Dawning," then followed the wedding march by Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Mary McKinney. The bride made a pretty picture in her bridal robe of white satin and georgette, garnished with pearls. She wore a long veil and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses. The couple were unattended.

Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served with each guest being given a bit of the bridal cake.

The bride is an accomplished young woman, with a wide circle of friends. The bridegroom is a well-known rancher near Macleay, who has extensive fruit interests and a large walnut orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lentz left for a wedding trip to southern points, after which they will be at home to their friends.

Guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. William Lentz, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lentz, Mr. and Mrs. McClain of Scio; Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Wright, Mr. and Mrs. E. Advancement on Docket Asked for Tax Action

Because of its universal importance in the state, Attorney General Van Winkle and attorneys for the estate of the late John Clark of Multnomah county will join in a petition to the supreme court to have advanced on the court calendar litigation between the estate and State Treasurer Hoff, an action in which an opinion of the supreme court will place final interpretation on the exemption clause of the inheritance tax law.

The estate is valued at $697,688.19, and there are 10 heirs. Representatives of the estate claim that under the law there is

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a little of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.
