Mrs. Arthur H. Moore entertained the Monday afternoon bridge club the first of the week, her daughter, Miss Ruth Moore, assisting her. The rooms were brightened with pink carnations and greenery. Several tables were arranged for the game, the prize being won by Mrs. O. T. Brandt. Additional guests were Mrs. W. I. Staley and Mrs. H. S. Poisal.

Mrs. Grace Eoff will be the club's next hostess, when it meets in a fortnight.

The Wednesday night dancing club will hold its fortnightly session in Cotilliam Hall during the coming mid-week.

Dr. and Mrs. William H. Lytle went to Portland Thursday to spend Thanksgiving with Senator and Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield. They remained to see the week out.

A charmingly planned and appointed supper of twelve covers was the contribution of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Sites following the Shriner's dance at the Moose Hall Tuesday night. Autumn colors in all their rich variety were noted in the decorations, appointments and menu. Golden and brown chrysanthemums filled a crystal basket in the center of the table, and the guests found their places by unique cards.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Vibbert, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Riggs, Miss Gussie Niles, Glenn Niles and the hosts.

The second of the series of dances to be given by the Aloha club will be on the evening of Tuesday, December 28th, at Dreamland auditorium. The invitation list will be very large, and will include out-of-town college maids and men, and a representative number of local society folk. The specially-named committee to plan the affair includes Carl Gabrielson, chairman; Oliver Meyers, Bert Ford, Fred Deckebach and Fred Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl B. Kugel motored to Portland the last of the week to witness the final performance of "Chu Chin Chow" at the Hellig theater.

Mrs. S. S. East is expected to arrive home the first of the week from Stanfield, where she has been visiting Mrs. Hugh Kyle for a fortnight.

Miss Marie Schulderman, of Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Schulderman, formerly of Salem, arrived Friday and is being entertained as the week-end guest of Miss Margaret Stoiz.

Dr. and Mrs. Delbert C. Burton were among Salem folk going down to Portland yesterday to attend the final performance of "Chu Chin Chow."

Miss Florence Cartwright arrived home Wednesday night from the University of Oregon, to spend the week-end holiday with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cartwright.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Neal of LaGrande arrived in Salem for Thanksgiving and remained over for the week-end. They are being entertained as the house guests of Mrs. Nell's sister, Mrs. Charles E. Knowland.

Thanksgiving day guests at the W. W. Moore home were Mr. and Mrs. E. White of Brownsville and Miss Blanche White of Portland.

The November number of Music and Musicians, the official organ of the Oregon State Music Teachers' Association, contains a splendid picture of Clifford White Kantner, of Seattle, and a resume of his musical activities in that city. Mr. Kantner is a son of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Kantner, and it is of musical note that he will appear in Salem during the holidays on a concert program to be given at the First Congregational church, plans for which are now under way.

Mr. Kantner's son, Master Jean Kantner, is known throughout the Northwest as the boy soprano, having appeared for seven years as concert and church soloist. He was heard in Salem about a year ago, and has also sung for the Sunset club concerts, and with Philharmonic orchestra, under John Spargur of Seattle.

In speaking of Mr. Kantner, Music and Musicians said: "A baritone and teacher of singing, who as the successor of Edmund J. Myer and by the principals of pedagogy he has evolved on his own account, is one of the successful vocal teachers of the Pacific Northwest. The atmosphere of Mr. Kantner's studio reflects the man who dominates it and naturally a fine 'esprit de corps' prevails. Besides individual instruction the choral advantages of the Theo Karle club are open to Kantner pupils. It is no small compliment to Mr. Kantner's work that Fortune Gallo accepted Joseph P. Kelly for the San Carlo Opera company direct from his studio. It is also worthy of note that pupils from various sections of the Northwest are studying with Mr. Kantner."

Mrs. Roy Brenner opened her home Friday afternoon to the members of the Three-Links club and a few additional guests. Presiding as hostesses with her were Mrs. Harry Hutton, Mrs. Thomas Clegggett, Mrs. Richard Carlson and Mrs. Peebles.

At this session tentative plans were made for the second dance to be given by the club this year in Cotilliam hall, the date chosen being December 14. A large Christmas party will be given during the holidays in I. O. O. F. hall.

The next fortnightly meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Carl Engstrom.

Kansas Farmers Plant Large Wheat Acreage

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 26.—Kansas farmers this fall planted probably the third largest acreage to wheat in the history of the state, according to a canvass announced by J. C. Mohler, secretary of the state board of agriculture.

"The board's correspondents estimate that the acreage sown this fall amounts in the aggregate to 9,892,441 acres," the report says. "This is greater by 2,708,742 acres than the average annual acreage for the crops of the five year pre-war period, 1909 to 1913 inclusive. But it is now 6.3 per cent less than the 1919 crop of 11,610,445 acres."

A return to more diversified farming is given as one of the principal reasons for the decrease in wheat this year.

"It would be erroneous to assume, however, that the rapid decline in the price of wheat this fall was not a factor in the reduced acreage. The majority of correspondents frankly state that the condition of the market commends conservation and particularly in view of the possibility of high priced labor for low-priced wheat next year."
