Max Gehlar, who is now living on the Gehlar fruit tract in Polk county, was transacting business at the court house yesterday. Mr. Gehlar says the happiest days of his life have been the past two months since taking up his residence on the farm.

Quarantine Contemplated Against California Spuds A quarantine against California potatoes may be declared at a public hearing to be called in Salem on December 11 by the state board of horticulture, according to Charles A. Park of Salem, president of the board. The tuber moth which is working serious damage to California potatoes is said to be a menace to Oregon potatoes if the California product is allowed to be shipped into the state without stringent regulation.

SALEM HOMES TO ENTERTAIN People of City Depended Upon to Accommodate Conference Youths

The Older Boys' conference for the Willamette valley, the fifth of the series, is to be held at Salem December 10, 11 and 12. Recreation entertainment is being provided for the delegates of the conference in the homes of Salem.

The local committee on arrangements is headed by George W. Hug, superintendent of schools, with L. A. Pickett, boys secretary of the Y. M. C. A., as right hand man. Among leaders already secured are Prof. W. T. Fletcher, principal of James John high school, Portland; Rev. E. W. Harrington, pastor First Presbyterian church, Roseburg; Ben H. Schmidt, state boys' secretary Y. M. C. A. of Washington; Henry Hart, international boys secretary en route to India; W. W. Dillon, executive secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for Oregon and Idaho; J. C. Meehan, boys' secretary, Portland; Walter Jenkins, executive secretary community service Portland.

Lots of Boys Coming It is expected that there will be from 250 to 300 older boys in attendance. The Portland boys' division, headed by W. F. Ross, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. from Portland. There will be keen rivalry between the Marion and Yamhill county Y. M. C. A.'s for the largest county delegation while all the high schools of the valley, from Albany and Corvallis to the south to Hood River and Astoria on the north, will strive for good delegations.

The conference will open at 6 o'clock on Friday, December 10, with an acquaintance session. The principal address of the program will be given by W. T. Fletcher. At this special session officers of the conference will be elected and installed. The Saturday sessions will be devoted to addresses and conference discussions with three-hour recreational period in the afternoon.

Banquet Planned Saturday evening at 6:15 the conference banquet given by the people of Salem to all delegates will be held. The program around the table will consist of songs and school yells, interspersed with some short addresses. The leading Sunday feature will be the Older Boys' mass meeting at 2:30 with Rev. Mr. Warrington of Roseburg as the speaker on the conference theme, "Four Square". The conference will close with a mass meeting Sunday night at 7:30 with short talks and brief addresses concluding with a fellowship circle. A. B. Yount, interstate boys secretary, 205 Y. M. C. A. building, Portland, is arranging the program and can be addressed there for any desired information.

The Inward Effects of humors are worse than the outward. They endanger the whole system. Hood's Sarsaparilla eradicates all humors, cures all their inward and outward effects. It is the alternative and tonic, whose merit has been everywhere established.

County Clerks Required to Issue Bounty Warrants County clerks are required under the law to issue warrants for payment of bounty on animals, for which bounty is provided under the law, regardless of whether the bounty fund of the county or state is exhausted. If such fund is exhausted, then interest must be paid on the warrants.

H. Van Winkle, attorney general, has interpreted the law for T. S. McKinney, district attorney for Lake county, who writes that trouble is brewing between the county court and coyote trappers. Recently the county courts were informed by the state that the state fund was exhausted. A small balance remained in Lake county, but the county court ordered the clerk to quit issuing warrants until further funds were appropriated by the next legislature. The trappers complained. The attorney general holds that the county Backward Pupils You are anxious to give your child every advantage at school, but how about his eyes? Perhaps he is going to be handicapped for lack of glasses. No boy can do well in school who cannot see distinctly. A case of that kind came under our observation last year. Teacher said he was stupid and dull—he did not do well at his lessons. We examined his eyes and found he couldn't see the writing on the blackboard. Glasses changed everything—soon he was leading his class.
